DEFINITIONS

Repeated Course Tuition

Undergraduate students classified as Texas residents or who pay Texas resident tuition rate who attempt certain courses more than twice at the University of North Texas are subject to an additional tuition rate of $75.00 per semester credit hour for the repeated course. This additional charge will be billed after the beginning of each semester.

Repeated Hours for Taken Course

Repeated hours are defined as hours for a course that is the same or substantially similar to a course that the student has previously taken for two or more times at the same institution. Previously taken courses from which the student withdraws before the official census date shall not count as an attempted course.

Exempted Courses

Courses that are exempted from Repeated Course Tuition include:

- hours for special topics and seminar courses
- hours for courses that involve different or more advanced content each time they are taken, including but not limited to:
 - individual music lessons
 - theater practicum
 - music performance
 - ensembles
 - studio art
- hours for independent study courses

Viewing Your Repeated Courses

To view your repeated courses, click on the Repeat Courses link in the Undergraduate Student Info section at my.unt.edu.

All courses listed have been taken twice, and thus are subject to the additional fees for repeated courses. Courses with a “Y” in the Enrolled field indicate that the student is enrolled in the course for the selected term and that course will be subject to the additional fee.
