

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH TEXAS®

OUTSTANDING INTERNATIONAL STUDENT/GLOBAL CITIZEN AWARD 2013

UNT-International recognizes an outstanding undergraduate or graduate student who has contributed to the continued growth and sustainability of the international community and a culturally diverse environment at the University of North Texas. Students to be honored with this award are selected according to the following procedures:

QUALIFICATIONS

Students meeting the following criteria would be eligible to receive the Outstanding International Student Award:

- Students should be committed to excellence and have made a significant contribution to the growth and sustainability of the international community and a culturally diverse environment at the University of North Texas and/or in the community.
- Students should be actively involved in campus activities.

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS

*Please note that this is not an academic award - it does carry minimum academic requirements, but the award is based on campus and community service activities.

- Students must have completed one long semester at UNT and be currently enrolled full-time.
- Graduate students must have a cumulative grade point average on work done at UNT of at least 3.25 for Master's candidates, and 3.5 for Doctoral candidates. Undergraduate students must have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0 on work at UNT.

NOMINATIONS

Nominations for the Outstanding International Student/Global Citizen Award may be made by faculty, administrators, staff members, students, and student organizations directly to the International Welcome Center. Self-nominations will NOT be considered. Nominations must be in writing on a nomination form and must be supported by two separate letters of recommendation from a professor, administrator, staff member, or student organization other than the person making the nomination. Nomination forms are available at the INTERNATIONAL WELCOME CENTER , Sycamore Hall, Room 286.

NOMINATIONS DEADLINE: Friday, March 1, 2013.

SELECTION

The Director of the International Welcome Center will appoint a selection committee made up of members of the staff of UNT International. The committee will report to the Director of the International Welcome Center , who will notify the University Honors Committee of the student to be honored with the Outstanding International Student /Global Citizen Award. The student will be honored at Honors Day and at the Celebrating Great Global Citizens Gala in April.
