The University of North Texas College of Music presents

THE ALEXANDER TECHNIQUE Two-day Workshop for Singers and Instrumentalists

August 2-3, 2014

Learn how to:

- perform with comfort and ease
 reduce tension and effort improve posture and coordination
 improve breathing
 - You can:
- stop creating unnecessary tension and effort
 use your whole body in a new way

The Alexander Technique has been popular among musicians for over 100 years. Today it is taught in many conservatory and university programs. Musicians who have studied the Alexander Technique include Sir James Galway, Sir Colin Davis, Sir Adrian Boult, Julian Bream, Yehudi Menuhin, Alan Titus, Renee Fleming, Sir Paul McCartney, and Sting.

Faculty: Phyllis Richmond, Certified Senior Teacher of the Alexander Technique, teaches at the University of North Texas College of Music and offers private lessons in Dallas TX and Evanston IL. She has taught for many schools and professional programs in the US and abroad.

- Master Class format emphasizes individual attention
- Classes meet in the School of Music at the University of North Texas in Denton, TX.
- Classes meet 10 am -5 pm on Saturday August 2 and Sunday August 3.
- Students must be at least 18 years of age to participate.
- Tuition: $165 Full-time Student Tuition: $115
- Housing and Meals available on campus

Registration must be accompanied by check or money order (no credit cards) payable to "University of North Texas" for a nonrefundable deposit of $80.00. Mail this form and payment by 7/15/14 to: Summer Alexander Technique Workshop, College of Music, University of North Texas, P.O. Box 311367, Denton, TX 76203-1367

Registration is also available online at https://music.unt.edu/connect/alexander-technique

Housing is available on campus. For housing reservations please call: 940-565-3998

The University of North Texas College of Music presents

THE ALEXANDER TECHNIQUE Two-day Workshop for Singers and Instrumentalists

August 2-3, 2014