performance

Flutists of a varying range of experience can observe master teaching, perform, and interact with artist Mary Karen Clardy and students in daily sessions with audience observation and interaction in each session. Flutists are coached in various performing genres including concert, competition, orchestral audition, and recording techniques, with particular focus on development of musical phrasing and technical consistence in repertoire.

Classes include fundamentals of teaching, including development of musical phrasing, vibrato, tone, technique, and articulation, with particular emphasis on practice methods. Various methods, including Mary Karen Clardy's Flute Fundamentals I and II; Etude Books I and II; Classic Solos 1 and 2; Classic Duets 1 and 2; and Classic Études are used throughout the class to address individual strengths and challenges.

production

In the 21st century, flutists are required to submit recorded performances for auditions, competitions, etc., and digital recording technology allows the production of high-quality recordings. Basic recording techniques, microphone placement, planning of recording sessions, and other elements are included in the class, with individual coaching in how to produce a quality recording with the most effective techniques for the best recorded product.
