

Flute! Middle School Day Camp 2015 June 12-13, 2015

Flute! Middle School Day Camp 2015 is a fun camp for middle school flutists who want to build tone, technique, and performance confidence for next year's competitions and auditions! Daily sessions include basics of embouchure, breathing, tone production, musical phrasing, articulation, vibrato, and technique. Campers interact with artist Mary Karen Clardy in every session, and flute choir rehearsals add the opportunity to try other members of the flute family (piccolo, alto flute and bass flute) and build ensemble skills, with a final camp concert of music learned during camp and a party for campers, family, and friends!

Mary Karen Clardy, Regents Professor of Flute at the University of North Texas, appears as soloist and chamber artist throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Britain, Europe, Asia, South America, with numerous performances for the National Flute Association and British Flute Society. Her recordings include Sonatas and Sonatinas, after syrinx . . . , with October Trio, and The Solo Flute Past to Present, for the EPR label; a solo recital of American Music for the BBC's Radio 3; and orchestral recordings for Pro Arte, Dorian, and Klavier labels. Renowned as a teacher, she regularly presents master classes at home and abroad, and her students are consistent winners of international and national competitions, holding prestigious orchestral and faculty positions throughout the world. An established author, Ms. Clardy's award-winning publications are in multiple reprint.

Flute! Middle School Day Camp 2015

Middle School flutists from beginner through intermediate level participate in classes to build tone, technique, and confidence for next year's auditions and competitions in a fun environment! Led by Mary Karen Clardy, classes develop confidence by performing both in groups and individually, with audience observation and interaction throughout the camp. Flutists are coached both individually and in flute choir rehearsals to develop ensemble skills and have fun! The Camp concludes with a concert of music learned during the camp and a party for campers, family and friends.

Classes include warm ups, tone and vibrato exercises, scales and arpeggios, articulation studies, sight reading and flute choir rehearsals, with particular emphasis on practice methods. Various books, including Mary Karen Clardy's Flute Fundamentals I and II; Etude Books I and II; Classic Solos 1 and 2; Classic Duets 1 and 2; and Classic Études are used throughout the class to address individual strengths and challenges.

production

In the 21st century, flutists are required to submit recordings for auditions, competitions, etc., and digital recording technology allows the production of high-quality recordings. Basic recording techniques, microphone placement, planning of recording sessions, and other elements are included in the class, with individual coaching in how to produce a quality recording using the most effective techniques for the best recorded product.
