Jeff Mitchell

Head Coach

► Sixth Year

Jeff Mitchell enters his sixth season as the head coach of the North Texas women's golf team. In his time with North Texas, he has reshaped the program as the longest serving head coach of the program since the modern era.

Mitchell had the Mean Green ranked as a top-75 program for two straight years from 2010-2012, which is the first time in school history that has happened.

During the 2012-13 season, he molded true freshman Georgina Mundy and saw her capture the UALR Women's Golf Classic title. She was the first freshman to capture an individual title since 2001 and only the third overall in school history.

Jacey Chun turned into a two-time all-conference player from 2011-12 and at one point was ranked as a top-five golfer in the nation. Chun was named to the All-Sun Belt team in consecutive years, which is the first time that has happened in nearly a decade at North Texas.

Mitchell has coached five all-conference selections in the last two seasons, which is the same number of all-conference golfers North Texas had since joining the Sun Belt Conference in 2001 until 2010. North Texas was ranked No. 41 in the nation during the 2011-12 season, which is highest ranking in school history.

The 2010-11 season will go down as the most memorable and successful season in women's golf history at North Texas thanks to Mitchell's leadership.

The Mean Green advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history, won a school record four tournaments during the year, had a school record four players named to the all-conference team, and Mitchell was named the 2010-11 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year.

Mitchell was the first coach in women's golf history at North Texas to win Coach of the Year honors. He also led North Texas as a team to another first in school history, a national ranking. The Mean Green for the first time was ranked in the top-50 nationally in 2010-11.

It didn't end there either. The Mean Green set a school record in 2010-11 for the lowest team score at 872 in as they won the Worldlink North Texas Fall Classic. Individually Kelsey Kipp shot the lowest 54-hole score at 211 in school history, while Chaslyn Chrimer had the lowest freshman stroke average in over 15 years at North Texas. Chrimer also recorded the second lowest round of golf in school history in 2010-11.

In 2009, Mitchell guided North Texas to its first tournament team championship since 2006. Along the way Jordan Rose captured the individual title of the Shocker Invitational. The Mean Green recorded four top five finishes and shot a 293 twice, which is just one shot off the school record for lowest round.

In his first season at North Texas, Mitchell's experience paid dividends for the North Texas golf program. He guided true freshman Addison Long to three top 25 finishes in the fall of 2008. She was the first Mean Green freshman player to record such a start to a career in four seasons.

Mitchell was the head coach of the men's golf team at Stanford from 2000-2004 and the director of golf at Texas Tech from 1998-2000 and the head women's coach from 1990-2000. Most recently he was a teaching professional at the TPC Craig Ranch in McKinney.

At Stanford, Mitchell coached three all-conference players, one All-American, and nine scholar athletes. In 2002, he coached Jim Seki to the Pac-10 conference title, the first individual at Stanford to win a conference title since Tiger Woods.

Mitchell spent 10 years as the head women's golf coach at Texas Tech, and in 1998, he became the director of golf for both the men's and women's programs. He was named District Coach of the Year in 1993 and '96 and the Southwest Conference Coach of the Year in 1994 and '96. In 2000 he was inducted into the Texas Tech Hall of Fame.

As a player, Mitchell had a successful career on the PGA Tour starting in 1976. He competed from 1976-84, playing in an average of 30 tournaments a year. He won the Phoenix Open in 1980 and had 13 top-10 finishes and made 111 career cuts on the PGA Tour. He competed in over 200 pro-amateur events and participated in over 100 clinics.

Along with his win at the Phoenix Open, Mitchell won the 1978 Texas State Open at Horseshoe Bay. He was named to the All-Southwest Conference team in 1976 and an honorable mention All-American as he was a three-year letterman from 1974-76. He graduated from Texas Tech in 1989 with a degree in physical education.

Prior to his coaching career, Mitchell was a member of the graduate faculty at Texas Tech and a teaching assistant, working as an instructor and camp director as well as teaching activity classes in golf, tennis and volleyball.

From 1986-87, Mitchell was the head golf professional at Golden Eagle Golf Course in Tallahassee, FL where he was responsible for arranging tee times, tournaments, all shop purchases, teaching, assistant professional training and golf course set-up.

Prior to Golden Eagle, he spent a year as the assistant

Sandra Palmer

North Texas '64

Perhaps the greatest woman golfer to ever come from North Texas never actually struck a drive or made a putt for the Mean Green.

That's because when Sandra Palmer -- a winner of 21 career LPGA Tour victories and a National Collegiate Hall of Famer -- went to North Texas, the school did not sponsor women's golf as a varsity sport.

Palmer was an accomplished golfer by the time she attended North Texas from 1959-63, where she showed her enthusiasm for athletics by serving as a cheerleader and becoming a member of the Green Jacket booster club. After she graduated from North Texas in 1964 with a bachelor of science degree in education, Palmer joined the LPGA Tour. As a professional, she captured 21 LPGA Tour wins and surpassed the $1 million mark in career earnings.

Palmer, a 1994 inductee into the North Texas Athletic Hall of Fame, took up the game of golf at the age of 13 and counts the legendary Harvey Penick as one of the teachers who greatly influenced her career.

She won the West Texas Amateur Champion four times and while at North Texas Palmer was a runner-up at the 1961 National Collegiate Championship and winner of the Texas State Amateur in 1963.

After joining the LPGA in 1964, Palmer failed to win a tournament her first seven years on the tour. However, she won at least one LPGA tournament in each of the next seven seasons. She won a career-high four tournaments in 1973 and in 1975 she claimed three titles, including a U.S. Women's Open championship that helped earn her LPGA Player of the Year honors. She narrowly lost the 1976 Open title in an 18-hole playoff to JoAnne Carner.

In 1986 Palmer won the final event of her career -- the Mayflower Classic -- in a sudden-death playoff. She later went on to win the Sprint Senior Challenge from 1991-95.

Palmer, who was named North Texas Alumnus of the Year in 1977, was recognized as one of the LPGA's top 50 players and teachers in 2000 when the LPGA celebrated its 50th anniversary.
