A Look at the Explorers

La Salle enters the mid-week matchup with a 1-7 record on the year. The team's lone win of the season came in a 71-68 victory at Howard on Dec. 2. The Mean Green may have the chance to get some offense rolling, as La Salle gives up an average of 69.9 points per contest. On the offensive end, three players score in double figures for the Explorers. That group is led by forward Micahya Owens's 14.6 ppg mark. In-and-out player Amy Griffin and guard Adreana Miller round out the group with 11.4 and 10.6 ppg, respectively.

The North Texas-La Salle Series

The two sides will face off for only the second time on Wednesday evening. The Explorers took the previous meeting in this series, a neutral contest at the Montana Invitational, by a score of 71-66 on Dec. 8, 1990.

Last Time Out

The Mean Green shot 14.8 percent and scored a season-low 14 points in the first half of Sunday's game against Iona, resulting in a 22-point deficit that North Texas couldn't climb out of. NT pulled to within four in the second half before dropping the contest, 62-51. Junior guard Kelsey Criner orchestrated the would-be comeback, scoring 16 of her career-high 19 points in the second half.

Defensive Mindset

Coach Mitchell came to Denton with a focus on defensive intensity and NT has found a way to improve an already stellar D from a season ago. The Mean Green is giving up a mere 59.0 points per game in 2015. That total would be the program's second-best average ever and is currently the fifth-lowest mark in C-USA.

Transfer Triumph

Junior guard Kelsey Criner, a transfer from New Mexico Junior College, has taken over as the team's primary point guard in 2015, and she hasn't taken long to turn heads. In the team's last game against Iona, Criner dropped career highs with 19 points and nine rebounds while nearly orchestrating the team's second straight 20-point comeback. On the year, the Dallas native is second on the team in points (10.5 ppg), second in rebounding (5.9 rpg) and leads NT in steals (2.0 spg) and assists (3.6 apg).

Criner The Clutch

In each Mean Green win this season, Kelsey Criner has scored go-ahead baskets with less than a minute remaining. Against IUPUI, that shot was a corner three that put the Mean Green up, 68-67, with 43 seconds to play.

A.-Tac'ing the Competition

Acheil Tac continues to be an all-around weapon for North Texas after a solid season last year. She already has two double-doubles on the year and is averaging 8.8 points and 7.3 rebounds per game. The senior has the fourth-highest shooting percentage in C-USA with a 58.0 mark from the field, and she has sole possession of the league lead for defensive rebounds (6.0 rpg). Her overall rebounding average is good for tenth in the league.

Coming Out Hot

North Texas tends to outscore opponents while their feet are fresh, especially coming out of halftime. In third quarters this season, the Mean Green enjoy a commanding 117-98 scoring margin. On the flip side, the second quarter is generally the worst for NT (85-115) as the team has an overall scoring margin of -3.4.

Added to the Mix

Coach Mitchell and staff added walk-on freshman Orianna Shillow to the roster on Nov. 21 against Texas State. Before the addition, NT was left with only nine able bodies for the season. Shillow was a first-team all-district pick for Stony Point High during her senior season while finishing second in team history for three-pointers made in a season (75). She saw her first action against Weber State, getting two minutes of playing time.

What A Way To Start

NT took down No.17 Oklahoma on Nov. 16, and they did so from OU's home court. It was the first time that NT had ever beaten a ranked team, and the victory served as Jalie Mitchell's first head coaching win. Before the loss, the Sooners had dropped only one game from its home floor since the beginning of the 2013-14 season.

Roster Re-do

A new coaching staff meant a retooled Mean Green roster for the 2015-16 season. In fact, only seven letterwinners remain from a year ago. Among the first moves made by Mitchell & Co. was the addition of four transfer student-athletes that must sit out for the year due to NCAA regulations: Tyara Warren from West Virginia, Terriell Bradley from Kansas and Stabresa McDaniel from Minnesota. North Texas has also lost two players to injury.

Player	Reason for Absence
Tyara Warren	NCAA transfer regulations
Terriell Bradley	NCAA transfer regulations
Stabresa McDaniel	NCAA transfer regulations
Taylor Roof	Redshirt - Injury
Kiara Davis	Medical Hardship - Injury

Preseason Projections

The C-USA preseason coaches poll wasn't friendly to the Mean Green following the team's dismal 5-24 record last season. North Texas was picked to finish dead last in the league poll. Middle Tennessee, Old Dominion, WKU, Southern Miss and UTEP were picked to round out the top five. Meanwhile, no North Texas players were picked on the preseason all-conference team.

Close Call Conference

Despite the team's record last season, North Texas was able to consistently compete in a tough C-USA slate. In fact, four of the Mean Green's wins came in conference games, and the team lost seven C-USA games by 10 or less points in 2014-15. With what is essentially an entirely new team, it will be interesting to see how conference play shakes out for the Mean Green.

FIRST SEASON AT NORTH TEXAS | @NT_COACHJ

For years, Jalie Mitchell has topped the record books at North Texas. Now, North Texas will be at the top of her resume.

On April 9, 2015, Mitchell returned to her alma mater to become the eighth head coach in Mean Green women's basketball program history. It is her first-career head coaching position and a dream job for the best player in school history.

"I feel incredibly blessed to have this opportunity to be the head women's basketball coach at my alma mater," Mitchell said. "Since I left here as a player, it has always been my dream to come back and one day lead this program. I'm excited for the challenge of returning this program to the type of success it had when I played here."

Mitchell boasts numerous records as a four-year letterwinner on the North Texas women's basketball team from 1999-02. She finished as the Mean Green's all-time leading scorer with 1,764 points and tops the list of career free throws made and attempted. In 2002, Mitchell was named Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year when she averaged 19.4 points per game.

She earned all-conference honors all four years at North Texas and was a part of the winningest senior class in program history, compiling a 77-39 record -- including a 42-4 mark at the Super Pit -- and making back-to-back WNIT appearances in 2001 and 2002.

Mitchell's No. 44 is one of two numbers that has been retired by the Mean Green, and her spectacular playing career culminated in 2007 when she was inducted into the North Texas Hall of Fame.

"This is a great day for the program, the athletic department and the entire University of North Texas," Athletic Director Rick Villarreal said. "We were able to bring back one of our own who has played at the highest level, worked with and learned from some of the most talented coaches in the country and has proven herself as a premier recruiter across the nation."

Previously, Mitchell had been an assistant coach for four seasons under head coach Karen Aston, beginning with the 2011-12 campaign with North Texas. In that campaign, the team went 15-16, which is its best record of the last nine seasons.

When Aston left the Mean Green to coach the Longhorns in 2012, Mitchell followed. In her three seasons at Texas, the team combined for a 60-41 overall record. The Longhorns made the NCAA Tournament field the last two seasons, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 2015 -- their first since 2008.

Mitchell began her collegiate coaching career in 2008 as an assistant coach with the Mean Green under Shanice Stephens. She spent two seasons at North Texas under Stephens before taking on the same position at UNC Wilmington for the 2010-11 season. Mitchell helped the Seahawks finish with a 24-9 record and reach the second round of the WNIT, both program bests.

"In addition to her coaching and recruiting skills, Jalie will bring to us an emotion, a passion and a commitment to the university that she doesn't have to think about because it's embedded in her," Villarreal continued. "At the end of the day, this hire was about her ability to bring in quality players and push them to maximize their talents in order to build the kind of program we all want. She brings the added ability to connect to the Dallas market, not just with student-athletes, but also with alumni who share her memories and dreams."

PLAYING CAREER

- 2002 Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year
- Program's All-Time Leading Scorer (1,764 pts.)
- Part of a 2002 team that set a school record with 21 wins and went to back-to-back WNITs
- Only 4-time all-conference player in team history
- Her No. 44 is one of two jerseys retired at NT
- North Texas Hall-of-Fame inductee in 2007

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING...

"This is a terrific hire for North Texas, and I am so thrilled for Jalie. She is a rising star in our profession and truly cares not only about winning, but also developing young women. During my time with her over the past four seasons, her commitment was always to the student-athlete first. Jalie is a tremendous recruiter and someone who will embrace helping players achieve their goals, may it be academically or athletically. I am so appreciative of her commitment to helping Texas become successful, and more importantly, I am so proud of her, personally and professionally."

- Karen Aston, Head Coach, University of Texas

"Jalie Mitchell is going to make a fantastic head coach at this level. She is an incredible recruiter and she can connect with student-athletes on a level that not many coaches can get to. I think this is a great opportunity and I'm extremely proud of her going to North Texas, a place where she has so much passion for that program. The president and athletic director showed great foresight and commitment by bringing in a young, passionate individual like Jalie. I'm looking forward to what she will bring to North Texas women's basketball."

- Cynthia Cooper-Dyke, Head Coach, USC

"Jalie is not only one of the greatest players to ever play at North Texas, but one of the greatest people I have coached throughout the years. Her leadership, vision and loyalty to North Texas women's basketball will be demonstrated in her everyday process. Jalie is a class act and I am proud of her and excited for the future of the program."

- Tina Slinker, former head coach

DENTON - The North Texas women's basketball team fought back from a double digit deficit to take a fourth quarter lead but couldn't perform well enough down the stretch as San Francisco defeated the Mean Green on Friday, 69-61.

"We definitely did not play our best basketball tonight," head coach Jalie Mitchell said following her first regular season game on the Mean Green bench. "I think our mistakes are fixable and I'm encouraged by that fact. We have to capitalize on the opportunities we're given."

North Texas (0-1) went nearly five minutes without scoring a point in the first quarter, setting the team back 10 points from the onset. That deficit increased to 16 points before the Mean Green started to climb back into the game.

The Mean Green used six points from junior Terra Ellison and a perfect 4-of-4 mark at the free throw line to cut the Dons lead to eight, but it was the third quarter where the home team jumped on top.

Sparked by a trio of three-pointers from junior guard Candice Adams, the Mean Green took its first lead of the game with 1:09 to go in the third. She finished the night with a career-high four field goals from distance and tied the highest scoring output of her career with 16 points.

North Texas entered the fourth with a two point advantage, which unfortunately was the team's biggest lead of the day. A three-minute scoring drought in the final quarter put a stamp on the team's fate, and eight fouls in the period led to a barrage of made free throws for San Francisco.

NORMAN, Okla. - In the 1,096-game history of North Texas women's basketball, no squad had ever trumped a top-25 opponent. That is, until the Mean Green rolled into the Lloyd Noble Center on Monday night.

North Texas never trailed and seemed to have all the right answers for the No. 17 Oklahoma Sooners, as the team took a 61-57 win to earn the biggest upset victory in the program's history.

"It's hard to contain myself right here," an emotional Jalie Mitchell said moments after the win. "I'm so proud of our young ladies. They were extremely resilient tonight and gave me everything they had."

Defense, especially on the interior, was key in what turned out to be a low-scoring game from Norman, Oklahoma. From the onset, North Texas honed in on All-Big 12 Second Team selection Kaylon Williams. The 6-3 redshirt senior made only 20 percent of her shots on the night and her failed attempts early in the game allowed the Mean Green to get off to a seven-point lead before the Sooners put points on the board.

North Texas (1-1) kept its foot on the pedal throughout the game, but - as can happen with only nine bodies to play - Mean Green fouls started to take their toll.

Still holding onto a slim lead, North Texas found itself without each of its lengthy post players in the fourth quarter as Acheil Tac, Bria Frierson and Tosin Mabodu all took a seat on the bench with five fouls.

From there, it was up to a small North Texas lineup to close out the game against the height of a Big 12 opponent. Luckily for the Mean Green, junior Terra Ellison wasn't going anywhere. The Colony, Texas, native poured in 15 points on Monday night, leading the team and consistently responding to a Sooner offense that continued to creep its way back into the game.

But the defining moment of the contest came with only 30 seconds remaining in regulation, when junior Kelsey Criner shimmed her way through the lane to bank home a left-handed layup, breaking a 57-57 tie and giving the lead back to the Mean Green. She then added a quick steal and got herself to the free throw line, where she virtually sealed the upset by pushing the lead to four points with only three seconds to play.

"I couldn't have drawn up a better start or finish for our girls," Mitchell said of her group's fight. "It was a team effort, we needed all nine people and they gave us everything they had."

SAN MARCOS, Texas — Senior forward Acheil Tac recorded her first double-double of the season and senior guard Teadra Jones added a career-high 16 points, but North Texas fell in the closing seconds at Texas State on Saturday afternoon, 64-62.

Texas State (2-1) put together a 62-58 lead on a three-point play with 2:11 left. North Texas (1-2) battled back to tie the game at 62-62 after a key four-point swing with just over a minute left to play, which included a lay-up by junior guard Kelsey Criner and then an offensive rebound and put-back by Jones off a missed free throw.

But the Bobcats had one final answer, a drive and lay-up by Texas State guard Taeler Deer, who led all scorers with 32 points, with 5.4 seconds left that proved to be the game-winner for the Bobcats.

"I'm very disappointed in the game as a whole," head coach Jalie Mitchell said. "You saw a totally different team Monday night, so I'm disappointed in the way that we showed up and played for most of the game. I told them that the game does not reward you for just a few good minutes of play."

Led by Tac and Jones, all five starters for North Texas scored eight or more points in the contest. As a team, the Mean Green shot 59.5 percent (25-of-42) from the floor and 9-of-11 from the free-throw line. The team also won the rebounding battle, 32-18, but it was unable to make enough plays down the stretch to overcome 25 turnovers.

North Texas made each of its first six shots of the game on the way to a 14-8 lead, which included a 7-2 run to start the contest. Texas State tied the game at 14-14 with 2:03 left in the first quarter and then, after a 12-0 run, grabbed a 28-20 lead with 6:13 left in the second quarter. The Mean Green pulled to within four at 30-26 with 2:26 left after a pair of free throws by Jones, but they went into halftime trailing 36-28.

Similar to the first half, North Texas started the second half strong, using a 10-2 run to tie the game at 38-38 with 5:26 left in the third quarter. Texas State pushed its lead back to 46-40 with 2:38 left, before Tac scored the last four points of the third quarter to help spur a late push for North Texas. Sparked by Tac's final four points of the third quarter, North Texas went on a 12-0 run to take a 56-49 lead with 6:51 left in the game and led as late as the 3:16 mark of the fourth quarter, but it was Texas State that made enough plays to close out the win.

DENTON — Three players scored in double figures, but North Texas was unable to close out what would have been the first home win of Jalie Mitchell's coaching career and the second win over a Power 5 opponent in as many opportunities this season.

Arizona held North Texas to a season-low scoring output and outlasted the Mean Green by a score of 49-44 on Friday afternoon at the Super Pit. Defensively, Arizona limited North Texas to 38 percent shooting and forced 26 North Texas turnovers, a season-high for the Mean Green. The Wildcats also turned that defense into offense, scoring 24 points off the North Texas miscues.

"A couple of things stand out, looking at the stat sheet," Mitchell said. "Our turnovers hurt us a lot today. It was the same story for us last game as well. We have to learn how to take care of the ball better because you miss out on some opportunities to score and put points on the board when you don't take care of the ball. And then free throws. We had 16 opportunities and only took advantage of seven. That's huge. You miss nine and lose by seven."

For North Texas (1-3), junior guard Candice Adams led the way with 12 points, followed by fellow junior guards Terra Ellison and Kelsey Criner who finished with 11 points and 10 points, respectively. Senior forward Acheil Tac also finished two points shy of her second double-double of the season, scoring eight points and grabbing 12 rebounds in the contest.

Sparked by back-to-back 3-pointers by Adams to start the game, North Texas took a 13-5 lead into the media timeout of the first quarter with 4:39 left. The Mean Green led for 27:17 of the game and did not trail until the 9:29 mark in the fourth quarter.

Arizona (4-1) chipped away at the North Texas lead in the second and third quarters, after trailing 18-11 heading to the second frame. In a third quarter that featured a combined 12 points, 5-of-18 shooting and 15 turnovers, Arizona battled back to tie the game at 28-28 with 6:55 left, and the teams went to the fourth quarter tied at 32-32.

The Wildcats then grabbed their first lead of the game, a 34-32 advantage, as part of a 10-0 run on a layup by junior forward Breanna Workman with 9:29 left in the game.

Arizona took its largest lead of the game, 43-35, with 3:38 left after a 5-0 run, all the points courtesy of Workman, who finished with 13 points. North Texas pulled to within four at 47-43 with 1:15 left on a banked-in 3-pointer by senior guard Kasiney Williams, but that was as close as the Mean Green would get the rest of the way.

DENTON - North Texas controlled 34 minutes of Tuesday night's game against Metroplex rival SMU at the Super Pit. But getting first-year head coach Jalie Mitchell her first home victory was not going to be that easy.

The Mean Green women, up by as many as 14 points in the second half, saw their lead wiped out by a frantic SMU rally that put the Mustangs on top, 55-53, with 3:16 to play, forcing a Mean Green timeout.

"I told them we were playing not to lose instead of playing to win," Mitchell said. "We had to do what got us that lead. I think they got themselves pumped up after that, and figured it out. This team has been working on overcoming adversity, on taking a punch and being able to punch right back."

Coming out of the timeout, North Texas stung the Mustangs with a flurry of blows that turned the momentum in the Mean Green's favor. A clutch 12-foot jumper by Candice Adams stopped the bleeding and tied the game, a dagger of a three-point field goal by Kelsey Criner at the end of the shot clock put North Texas back on top, and two free throws by Terra Ellison with 12.7 seconds left iced an emotional 60-57 North Texas win.

And throughout those final three minutes, the Mean Green defense, which had played so well in building the original lead, held the Mustangs scoreless until 1.3 seconds play and forced three turnovers. For the game, NT allowed SMU to make just 38.6 percent of its field-goal attempts and harried the Mustangs into 19 turnovers.

The victory lifts NT to 2-3 on the year and snaps a four-game losing streak against SMU (3-3).

"I love that," Mitchell said of besting the Mustangs. "I have to admit."

Criner, the junior guard from Dallas by way of New Mexico Junior College, led all scorers with 17 points and added a team-high eight rebounds.

"I like our team with the ball in Kelsey's hands," Mitchell said. "She makes really great decisions, and she's tough to guard."

Adams had 12 points, Bria Frierson had 10 and Ellison had nine. Frierson also had a big game defensively, limiting SMU's 6-5 post Stephanie Collins to 10 points, her second lowest output of the season.

DENTON - The North Texas women have been working on dealing with adversity this year, but they also need to work on handling success.

For the second time this year, the Mean Green followed up a big win with a disappointing loss. On the heels of Tuesday's victory over SMU, North Texas turned in its worst outing of the season Friday night in a 45-38 loss to Weber State in the first night of the Hospitality Hill Challenge at the Super Pit.

In a drought that would turn a rain forest into a desert, the North Texas offense plunged to season lows in scoring and field-goal percentage which, combined with 24 turnovers, turned a nine-point first quarter lead into a 15-point fourth-quarter deficit. The Mean Green made just 34.1 percent of its field-goal attempts and scored just 11 points combined in the second and third periods.

North Texas rallied in the fourth, getting big stops from its defense, including forcing three shot-clock violations, to close within three with 2:23 to play, but the offensive woes and turnovers continued and would not allow the Mean Green to complete the rally. The loss drops NT to 2-4 on the year.

"I'm extremely disappointed," North Texas coach Jalie Mitchell said. "We gave that team 10 minutes of North Texas basketball, all in the fourth quarter. That's not enough. I had one starter show up to play today."

That was Acheil Tac, who was limited by foul trouble Tuesday to two points and one rebound. She bounced back with a double-double Friday, topping her Tuesday totals by the first timeout Friday and finished with 13 points and 10 rebounds.

In a ragged, mistake-filled, low-scoring first half, Tac's nine points North Texas took a 13-4 lead in the first quarter. But that was the high-water mark for North Texas for the next two quarters. Despite scoring just four points in the second quarter, matching a season low, NT kept the lead to intermission, holding Weber State to 15.8 percent shooting, making three field goals in 19 attempts.

However, Weber State (5-1) heated up in the third quarter, opening the second half with a 12-0 run. From the end of the first quarter until the Wildcats opened their 14-point advantage at 39-24, Weber State out-scored North Texas 35-12.

DENTON -- North Texas trailed by as many as 20, but the Mean Green rode a second-half surge to a thrilling 68-67 win over IUPUI on Saturday afternoon at the Super Pit. North Texas (3-4) led for just 43 seconds, taking their only lead of the game on a corner 3-pointer by junior guard Kelsey Criner.

"We had a group that made a decision that the way we had been playing is not who we were going to be," head coach Jalie Mitchell said. "Offensively, we got extremely aggressive, which we hadn't been for the third quarters, and it changed the game. It also gave us some confidence in that we saw that they couldn't guard the things that we were running as long as we executed and stayed in attack mode."

Junior guard Candice Adams led the way with a game-high 18 points on 8-of-16 shooting, including a game-tying 3-pointer with 1:56 left in the game. Senior forward Acheil Tac added 12 points and eight rebounds, while Criner finished with 10 points, none bigger than her go-ahead 3-pointer, which proved to be the difference in the game.

North Texas shot 50 percent (30-of-60) from the floor and 6-of-11 from 3-point range. In the second half, when the Mean Green outscored IUPUI (6-2) by a score of 42-26, they shot 58.1 percent (18-of-31) from the floor and a perfect 5-of-5 from 3-point range. They also committed a season-low 11 turnovers for the game.

IUPUI led wire to wire in the first half, taking a 41-26 lead into halftime, tied for its largest lead of the half. The Jaguars shot 48 percent (16-of-33) from the floor, including 5-of-15 from 3-point range, and committed just three turnovers in the half. North Texas outscored IUPUI 18-16 in the third quarter to head to the fourth quarter trailing 57-44. The stretch included a 7-0 run late in the quarter that erased a 20-point IUPUI lead, their largest of the game.

The Mean Green carried that momentum into the fourth quarter, becoming more aggressive on offense and storming back to make it a 63-62 game with 2:42 left after an offensive rebound and put-back by junior guard Terra Ellison.

North Texas completed the comeback, first tying the game at 65-65 before taking a 68-67 lead in the final minutes of the contest, behind big scoring plays from Adams and Criner. Down by a point, IUPUI had two looks at the basket in the final minute, including a lay-up in the closing seconds that rimmed out, but North Texas held on for the win.

"To come back from down 20, you have to have something about you," Mitchell said. "There was a lot of excitement on the bench, so I thought that everybody played a part in that comeback victory."

NEW ROCHELLE, New York — Sunday afternoon's game against Iona was supposed to be the second win of a streak that North Texas women's basketball hoped would lead into conference play. Instead, a lackluster first half put the Mean Green in a hole it couldn't dig itself out of in a 62-51 loss to the Gaels.

North Texas made just four shots in the game's first 20 minutes to score a season-low 14 points. Sadly, that point total nearly matched the team's shooting percentage for the half - 14.8 percent. By halftime, the Mean Green found themselves down by 22 points - their largest deficit of the season - before a second half surge made things interesting.

As has been the case on many occasions early in the season, North Texas came out strong at both ends of the court in the third quarter, outscoring the Gaels 21-5 and forcing 11 turnovers to get the team back in it. That resurgence was due in large part to junior guard Kelsey Criner, who had 16 of her career- and team-high 19 points in the second half.

Early in the fourth, a Criner steal-turned-layup cut the Iona lead to only four points, 41-37, before an 8-0 run for the Gaels gave them the space they needed to get away with the win.

Rebounding played a large role in Iona's ability to develop and sustain a lead. Led by senior Joy Adams's 19 rebounds, the Gaels outnumbered the Mean Green 49-40 on the glass, including 20 offensive rebounds that contributed to 15 second-chance points.

North Texas was able to contain Iona's leading scorer, guard Marina Lizarazu, to only two points in the contest, but her limited output was compensated by a dominant 31-2 advantage on bench points. Most of those came from freshman Alexis Lewis who led the Gaels with 22 points, including a perfect 4-of-4 mark from three-point range.

In addition to Criner's strong play, North Texas got a solid effort out of senior guard Teadra Jones. She was perhaps the team's most consistent performer from start to finish, as she ended the day with 13 points and six boards. Additionally, sophomore Bria Frierson finished a point away from her first career double-double with nine points and 12 rebounds.

Still, head coach Jalie Mitchell knows that she needs more from her team, and she shared that message after Sunday's loss.

"Honestly, I told the team that we need to care more," the first-year playcaller said. "We've only got 10 players and we need everybody to show up, play and give effort. When we have one, two or three that aren't doing that, it affects us. That much is obvious."
