NINER NUGGETS

- Charlotte is on the road for the seventh time in the last nine games, the most in Conference USA, when it faces North Texas in a mid-afternoon Saturday contest inside The Super Pit in Denton, Texas. It also marks the third-straight game in which the 49ers are serving as the opponent for a Play 4Kay/Hoops for the Cure cause. Charlotte will have its own celebration, inside Halton Arena, next weekend, Feb. 20 against WKU.

- Grace Hunter, the two-time reigning Conference USA Freshman of the Week, netted a team-high 19 points, including nine points on 3-of-3 field goals and 3-of-5 free throws in the fourth quarter, to lead the Niners to a 69-58 road victory at Rice Thursday. Hunter is averaging 22.8 points per game in her last four contests, including three 20-plus scoring efforts as she has ramped up her candidacy for Conference USA Freshman of the Year.

- Fellow rookie Laia Raventós also played well against the Owls, connecting on a career-high four 3-pointers and finishing perfect behind the arc as part of her 14-point display. She buried one triple in every quarter and swiped a career-best tying four steals, leading the 49ers' defensive efforts. Her 4-of-4 from 3-point territory raised her season percentage to 60.0 in Conference USA action, leading the league in the category entering Saturday's game.

- Senior Kira Gordon came ever-so-close Thursday to joining the 1,000-point club but fell one point shy of the plateau. She enters Saturday's contest with 999 in her pursuit of becoming the 21st player in program history to reach the milestone. Should she reach the mark, Gordon will be the third player under head coach Cara Consuegra, joining Jennifer Hailey in 2013 and Hillary Sigmon in 2015, to add her name to the exclusive membership.

- Junior Lefty Webster is also charging hard at making the 1,000-point club by the end of the season. She currently ranks 23rd in program history with 961 career points, needing only 39 to put her name on the chart. She's coming off a 12-point, eight-rebound showing Thursday at Rice. Webster is also trying to become only the 10th player in school history to put her name on the list by accomplishing the feat in three seasons or less.

- Consuegra is climbing a list of her own with her 85 career coaching wins. She needs one more triumph to move into a third-place tie with her predecessor, Karen Aston (2008-11), for third on the school's all-time victories list. Ironically enough, Aston coached at North Texas for one year after leaving the 49ers program before moving on to her current position with No. 6/5 Texas.

Opponent profile: North Texas

- Charlotte travels to Denton, Texas, for its seventh road game among the last nine contests to take on North Texas in the Saturday afternoon matchup.
- The 49ers own a 3-0 all-time series lead over the Mean Green after sweeping last year's two-game set.
- The two programs began playing in 2013-14, the first year both were members of Conference USA. North Texas was a member of the Sun Belt prior to making the league move.
- The Mean Green are coached by one of their former players, Jalie Mitchell, who is in her first season with the program. She is the third, and final, first-year head coach Charlotte faces in league action this season.
- Mitchell previously served as an assistant coach for Karen Aston, the former 49ers head coach, both at North Texas and Texas prior to returning to her alma mater.
- The Mean Green are one of five C-USA foes the Niners will play two times this season. Charlotte will welcome North Texas to Halton Arena March 5 for Senior Night, capping the regular season prior to the Conference USA Championships in Birmingham, Alabama, March 8-11.

Season openers

- Charlotte improved to 25-16 all-time in season openers, and 6-0 in the last six years, following the 72-66 triumph over Ball State Nov. 13.
- The 49ers are 5-0 in season openers under head coach Cara Consuegra.
- Charlotte posts a 19-1 record when the season opener is also at home, including victories in its last 16 outings. The last loss during a season opener at home was a 68-64 setback to Wingate Nov. 27, 1982.
- Under Consuegra, the only season opener on the road was last year at Liberty. All others during her tenure, including this year's game with Ball State, have been contested inside Halton Arena. The 49ers are 4-0 in such matchups.

Webster earns league honor

Charlotte junior guard Lefty Webster made her way onto the Preseason All-Conference USA Team for the second-straight year.

She's coming off a season in which she led the 49ers in several statistical categories, including points per game (14.0), minutes per game (31.6), field goals made (161), field goals attempted (374) and steals (64). She also ranked high on the team with 180 rebounds, 104 assists, 15 blocked shots, 38 3-pointers made and 74 free throws made.

She earned All-Conference USA Second Team honors in 2014-15, a year after garnering All-Conference USA Freshman Team plaudits.

Celebrating 20 years

Halton Arena, the home of Charlotte women's basketball, will celebrate its 20th season in 2015-16. The facility, located on campus, seats 9,105 and became the home to the 49ers' basketball and volleyball programs beginning during the 1996-97 campaign.

- The Niners' first game in the building came Dec. 3, 1996, against UNC Asheville. Charlotte played its first home contest of the campaign, Nov. 30, against Furman in Belk Gym, the old arena on-campus before construction was completed a few days later.
- Belk Gym served as the 49ers' home court from their inaugural campaign in 1975-76 through the Furman game in 1996.

TV Pickup

Following a successful run of 10 broadcast events, Charlotte athletics and UNC Charlotte Cable Television have extended their agreement to showcase 11 basketball games this winter. Women's basketball will have six contests on the channel, while men's basketball will have five on the network that reaches over 500,000 Time Warner Cable and AT&T UVerse subscribers in the Charlotte region.

- The broadcast can be seen on campus and in Mecklenburg, Union and Iredell counties through Time Warner Cable's channel 22. Broadcast Communications, located on campus, provides television and video production services to the University community. The department is also responsible for the operation of the University's cable television channel 22.
- The broadcast on channel 22 will be simulcast with www.charlotte49ers.tv online.

Hunter adds back-to-back league freshman nod

- Charlotte guard Grace Hunter has been tabbed the Conference USA Freshman of the Week for Feb. 8, the league office announced. It's the second-straight week in which Hunter has received the accolade and her third overall honor this season.
- Hunter became only the second 49ers freshmen in program history to win at least three rookie/freshman of the week plaudits, joining Gabby Tyler in 2010-11. Tyler collected four that season from the Atlantic 10.
- The Raleigh, North Carolina, product continued her strong play as of late with her fifth double-double of the season, keeping her among the conference leaders, in the Niners' lone contest of the week. She finished with a career-high 27 points and grabbed 10 rebounds at Old Dominion Feb. 6.
- Hunter hit 9-of-17 field goals, setting a career best for attempts, and 8-of-12 at the foul line, establishing career highs in both categories for her third-straight 20-plus scoring performance.
- She added a career-best three assists, a career-high three steals and a blocked shot in playing the full 40 minutes for the first time in her career.
- Hunter's five double-doubles match the total of senior Alexis Alexander for the most by any Charlotte player this year.

Hunter claims sole C-USA Freshman of the Week honor

- Guard Grace Hunter was named the Conference USA Freshman of the Week, Feb. 1, after she averaged a double-double of 22.5 points and 12.0 rebounds in home league victories over FIU (Jan. 28) and Florida Atlantic (Jan. 30).
- She opened the week with a career-best 23 points on 9-of-15 field goals and 4-of-5 free throws to go along with nine rebounds and two assists against FIU. She became the fifth different 49ers player to tally at least 20 points in a game this year.
- She then topped that performance with her fourth career double-double of 22 points and a career-high 15 rebounds against Florida Atlantic. She again made 9-of-15 field goals to go with 4-of-6 free throws, while corralling 12 of her 15 boards on the defensive glass in a career-best tying 38 minutes.
- She became the fourth Niners player with multiple 20-plus scoring efforts in 2015-16 and the first Charlotte player with at least 15 rebounds in a game since Amanda Dowe in 2013. Her 12 defensive rebounds tie for third on the single-game list in Halton Arena history among all-time 49ers.
- Hunter added a career-high tying three blocked shots against the Owls, including a rejection on a 3-point attempt at the halftime buzzer which preserved the Niners' 18-point lead heading into the intermission.
- Her 45 points during the week are the most in consecutive games by any Charlotte player this season.
- Hunter's two C-USA Freshman of the Week plaudits raise the program total to three, as she is the first multi-time recipient.
- She also was named the Conference USA Player of the Week by College Sports Madness for her performances.

Hunter scored on a record pace

- Freshman Grace Hunter netted at least 20 points in three-straight games from Jan. 28-Feb. 6, becoming the first rookie under head coach Cara Consuegra to accomplish the feat.
- The three-straight games with at least 20 points has been done now 30 times in program history, by 14 different players, based on available records.

- Hunter is the first to do it since Jennifer Hailey had a four-game stretch Jan. 20-Feb. 3, 2013, on her way to earning Atlantic 10 Player of the Year honors. Hailey was the first to accomplish the feat during Consuegra's tenure.
- Hunter's 24.0 points per game average during the streak tied her for 19th among the 49ers who have had stretches of 20-or-more points in three-or-more contests.
- Hunter joined Paula Bennett as the only two freshmen in program history to be score at least 20 points in three-or-more straight games. Bennett had three different periods during her rookie campaign of 1978-79 in which she tallied at least 20 points in three-consecutive games.

Hunter enters Halton Arena Top 10 list

- Freshman Grace Hunter's 12 defensive rebounds against Florida Atlantic Jan. 30 ties her for third among all-time Niners during the history of Halton Arena, since the building opened in 1996.
- Hunter finished two shy of the mark, set by Amanda Dowe, against Duquesne Feb. 3, 2013.
- Hunter's 15 overall boards fell just shy of reaching that Top 10, as the cut off is at 16.

Hunter reaches mark; first 49er in nearly three years

- Freshman Grace Hunter's 15 total rebounds against Florida Atlantic Jan. 30 put her in elite company under head coach Cara Consuegra.
- Hunter became the first 49ers player since Amanda Dowe March 21, 2013, against Appalachian State in the WNIT First Round to haul in 15 or more rebounds in a game.

Dempsey drops in buzzer beater in homecoming

- Sophomore Griffin Dempsey tallied only three points in her return to Huntington, W.Va., Jan. 21 at Marshall, but it was the biggest three points of her career.
- Dempsey's lone bucket came with 1.5 seconds left, providing buzzer-beating heroics for the 49ers, in the 64-61 road victory over the Thundering Herd.

Hunter named co-C-USA Freshman of the Week

- Guard Grace Hunter was selected as the co-recipient of the Jan. 11 Conference USA Freshman of the Week after helping to lead the 49ers to home wins over Southern Miss (Jan. 7) and Louisiana Tech (Jan. 9).
- Hunter averaged a double-double of 11.0 points and 12.0 rebounds in the two victories, posting a double-double in each contest despite coming off the bench both games.
- She had a double-double of 12 points and 10 rebounds against the Lady Eagles, connecting on 5-of-6 field goals during the Education Day triumph.
- She then added 10 points and a career-high tying 14 boards, including two vital caroms in the final minute, against the Lady Techsters for her second career double-double.
- Hunter became only the second Conference USA Freshman of the Week honoree in program history, joining Amaya Ransom who earned the award Nov. 17, 2014.

Making ESPN SportsCenter's Top 10

- Freshman Laia Raventós helped earn Charlotte a No. 6 placement in the Dec. 6 ESPN SportsCenter Top 10 Plays of the Day after the 49ers' contest at North Carolina State.
- She made another no-look, behind-the-back assist to Lefty Webster midway through the third quarter to complete a play which started with a Ciara Gregory steal.
- It marks the second time under head coach Cara Consuegra in which a 49ers play has garnered a spot on the Top 10, following (now graduate manager) Jai Forney's halftime half-court buzzer-beater against VCU Feb. 28, 2013, on her senior night. That play reached as high as No. 4 on the countdown.

Gregory holds spot atop Top 10 nationally

- Junior Ciara Gregory has set the tone early, not only on the Charlotte roster, but also in the national listings with her performance at the free-throw line.
- Gregory is the team leader, through games of Feb. 11, while holding down a first-place spot in the national Top 10.
- She dropped her first 27 free throws to begin the 2015-16 campaign, including a high of 8-of-8 in the season opener Nov. 13 against Ball State, before missing her final attempt at Davidson Dec. 20 to snap the run.
- Gregory's 27-in-a-row is third in school history for the longest streak, trailing only the 31 by Lisa Gerton (1994-95) and record 33 by Alicia Abernathy (2000-01).
- Classmate Lefty Webster also put her name in the national Top 10 for much of the season, only to recently fall out after a 4-of-7 showing Feb. 11 at Rice.

- Webster had dropped 21-straight attempts before snapping the streak Jan. 14 at Middle Tennessee, providing another long streak of consecutive conversions for the Niners this season.
- Charlotte was the only school nationally with multiple players ranking in the Top 10 in the category until recently.

Gregory enters school's leaderboard

- Ciara Gregory dropped in a career-high six 3-pointers among her 10 attempts from behind the arc at North Carolina State Dec. 6, while adding a 6-of-11 effort two days later against College of Charleston.
- Gregory's six 3-pointers are the most by a 49ers player under head coach Cara Consuegra and the highest for Charlotte since Traci Ray buried six against Duquesne in the Atlantic 10 Tournament March 7, 2009, on the Niners' quest for the league tournament crown and second NCAA Tournament berth in school history.
- Gregory's six triples ties for third with four others for most in a single game, trailing the program record by one.
- The 12 trifectas in consecutive games is the most by a 49ers player in school history, surpassing the 11 by Whitney Hoey Dec. 28 (Murray State) and record-tying seven Dec. 30.
- Gregory added six more 3-pointers in the 87-74 Conference USA triumph against FIU Jan. 28 inside Halton Arena.
- She became the first player in program history with at least six triples in three or more games.

Gregory ties program record

- Ciara Gregory continued to be lethal from behind the 3-point arc with a 5-of-7 showing at Davidson Dec. 20, giving her nine career 3-pointers on the Wildcats' home floor in two career games inside Belk Arena.
- Gregory's 71.4 percent effort this season matches the school standard for single-game 3-point field goal percentage among players with at least six attempts.
- The feat had happened only three previously, with the last coming at UTEP Jan. 18, 2014.

Gregory joins century clubs

- Junior Ciara Gregory become only the 11th player in program history to bury at least 100 triples in her career when she hit three at Middle Tennessee Jan. 14.
- Gregory now has 114 on her resume, including 54 this season to top her previous single-season best mark of 40, established as a sophomore in 2014-15.
- Gregory joined the school's Top 10 for 3-pointers attempted after hoisting a pair Jan. 9 against Louisiana Tech. She crossed the single-season 100-mark for the second-straight year Jan. 7 against Southern Miss on Education Day.
- Hillary Sigmon (2012-15) set both school records last year with new standards of 203 made and 567 attempted.

Education Day continues to be successful

- Charlotte completed another edition of its annual Education Day when it played host to Conference USA foe Southern Miss Jan. 7 inside Halton Arena.
- The 49ers pulled away in the second quarter for the 80-59 triumph, improving to 8-1 all-time on Education Day and 5-0 under head coach Cara Consuegra.

- Charlotte welcomed 5,437 fans to the game, marking the third largest crowd on record with all three happening during the annual Education Day festivities.
- In their history of the event, the Niners have played in front of 5,000-plus fans four times with each of the four happening during Consuegra's tenure (2012-present).
- Charlotte also moved to 5-1 when those games have been contested against league opponents.
- The 49ers' 80 points in this year's meeting with Southern Miss marked the highest they have scored during the nine Education Day affairs, besting the previous high of 78 netted against UNC Wilmington Jan. 3, 2014.

Tournament title in-hand

- Charlotte captured its first in-season tournament crown under head coach Cara Consuegra when it won the GSU Thanksgiving Classic over Thanksgiving weekend, Nov. 28-29, in Atlanta. The 49ers defeated Mercer 72-62 and host Georgia State 83-71 to claim the title in a pre-determined tournament format.
- The championship is the first under Consuegra and first for the program since the 2008 Hoop for the Cure Tournament in Dallas when the Niners defeated Fresno State and host SMU.
- Overall, Charlotte has now won 12 in-season events in program history, dating back to the inaugural Sun Belt Invitational in 1979.

Consuegra moving up wins list

- The two victories at the GSU Thanksgiving Classic gave head coach Cara Consuegra 76 in her Charlotte coaching career, tying for fourth most in program history.
- Consuegra then moved into fourth place by herself, passing Katie Meier (2002-05), with the 67-52 triumph over North Carolina Central Dec. 2.
- Next on the list is her predecessor, Karen Aston (2008-11), who accumulated 86 throughout her tenure.

Road trip that never seemed to end

- Charlotte embarked on a four-game road trip through Conference USA Jan. 14-23, its longest such stretch of true away games since 2003.
- Through their history, the 49ers have faced 12 periods of four-or-more true road games in a row, including five of which have spanned five contests consecutively.
- This year's four-game road swing matches the longest in school history when all of the matchups have been against league opponents, with the 2003 trip also pitting the Niners against Conference USA foes.
- It marked the longest road swing of true away games under head coach Cara Consuegra since she took over the program prior to the 2011-12 campaign.

Spanish sensation turns in double-double

- Freshman point guard Laia Raventós has provided an electric spark to the 49ers' offense this season and her skills were on display in the Nov. 28 victory over Mercer at the GSU Thanksgiving Classic.
- Raventós posted her first career double-double against the Bears with 10 assists and 10 points. The 10 assists set a new career best, while the 10 points fell one shy of her career high.
- Her 10th assist was a no-look, behind-the-back pass to senior Alexis Alexander with 2:29 remaining in the fourth quarter. Alexander then converted the free throw after getting fouled to create a three-point play.

Hunter nearly beats Panthers by herself

- Rookie guard Grace Hunter tallied a career-high 23 points Jan. 28 in the 49ers' 87-47 victory over FIU inside Halton Arena to lead all players in scoring.
- She connected on 9-of-15 field goals and 4-of-5 free throws against the Panthers, while falling just short of a double-double with nine boards to go along with two assists in 34 minutes.

Hunter comes to play against nationally-ranked Tigers

- Freshman Grace Hunter poured in 15 points when the 49ers closed the non-conference schedule Dec. 29 at No. 23/RV Missouri.
- Hunter hit 7-of-12 field goals, including a 3-pointer, to lead the Charlotte bench in scoring in 26 minutes of action.

Rookie rises on the boards

- Freshman guard Grace Hunter became a huge factor on the glass during the GSU Thanksgiving Classic, leading the team with a combined 24 rebounds in the two games.
- Hunter started the weekend with a 10-board contest versus Mercer Nov. 28, which would have been a career-best performance had she not come back the following day with 14 caroms against host Georgia State.
- Eighteen of her 24 boards (75.0 percent) were on the defensive glass, including 10 Nov. 29 against the Panthers.
- The next closest 49ers player in the rebounding category was senior Alexis Alexander, who hauled in 11 during the event.

Hunter doubles up in front of the kids

- Grace Hunter continues to elevate her game and she turned in the best single-game performance of her career to-date Jan. 7 when she tallied her first career double-double in the 80-59 Education Day victory over Southern Miss.
- Hunter hit 5-of-6 (83.3 percent) field goals and 2-of-4 free throws for 12 points, while grabbing 10 rebounds to share game-high honors on the glass. She added a career-best three steals in 26 minutes.

Gregory earns league mention

- Junior Ciara Gregory has been named to the Nov. 16 Conference USA Honor Roll, a new weekly honor started this season.
- The accolade goes to the runner-up each week for the league's player-of-the-week award.
- Gregory was the first recipient of the plaudit in 2015-16 after averaging 21.5 points in the first-two games against Ball State and Robert Morris. Her average and 43 total points ranked as the highest among players across the conference through Sunday's action.

Alexander shares league mention

- Senior Alexis Alexander was the co-recipient of the Dec. 14 Conference USA Honor Roll selection after turning in a double-double of 21 points and 12 rebounds to lead the 49ers to an 89-61 triumph over College of Charleston Dec. 8.
- Alexander shared the award with WKU's Tashia Brown after her game-best performance. The double-double was her second of the season and fifth of her career.
- It marked the second time of her career in which she has posted multiple double-doubles in the same season.

Alexander comes to play against Colonials

- Senior forward Alexis Alexander put together the best game of her career to-date when she buried 12-of-15 field goals and 6-of-8 free throws for a career-best 30 points in the Nov. 15 victory over Robert Morris.
- Alexander also topped the Niners with eight rebounds and tied for the team lead with two steals in playing a team-high tying 30 minutes.

Alexander's 30 points puts her in rarified air

- When Alexis Alexander netted her 30 points Nov. 15 against Robert Morris, it put her into elite company in various school record books.
- She moved into a second-place tie for most points scored by a 49ers player in Halton Arena history. Only the 35 netted by Tonya Phifer against DePaul Jan. 28, 2001, ranks higher. Phifer owns three of the top-five marks in the facility's 20-year history.

| 4 | Tonya Phifer | East Carolina | 11.24.98 | 29 |
| | Aysha Jones | Wake Forest | 11.26.08 | 29 |

- Alexander's 30 points represent only the ninth 30-plus scoring performance by a 49ers player in the last 20 years. Each of the last three have come under head coach Cara Consuegra.
- Overall, there have been 43 games in program history in which a player has posted at least 30 points.

Setting a team record

- Charlotte's 94 points in the Nov. 15 victory over Robert Morris enters the school record books as the top-scoring performance by the 49ers inside Halton Arena in the 20-year history of the facility.
- The Niners edged the 93 points the program had scored twice previously but not since 2003 against Texas A&M.

Getting to 90 is also a rare accomplishment

- Charlotte's set a program mark for most points scored during the Cara Consuegra era (2012-present) with a 99-point showing at Davidson Dec. 20, surpassing the 94 it had reached earlier in the season, Nov. 15, against Robert Morris.
- The 49ers had reached the 90-point barrier only once previously during Consuegra's tenure, registering 92 in a 92-86 triumph at UTEP Jan. 18, 2014.
- The high-octane offense added an 89-point output Dec. 8 against College of Charleston, tying for fourth most under Consuegra's watch.

| Robert Morris | 11.15.15 | 94 |
| at Davidson | 12.20.15 | 99 |

- The 99 points at Davidson Dec. 20 is the highest for the 49ers since they netted 99 against ETSU Dec. 21, 1997, in a 99-93 triumph over the Lady Bucs. Those two games are the only ones in school history Charlotte has scored exactly 99 points.

Reaching at least 85 points in three-straight games

- Charlotte attained a milestone it had never before accomplished under head coach Cara Consuegra, scoring at least 85 points in three-straight games, when it did it Jan. 28-Feb. 6, 2016.
- It marked just the second time in program history in which the 49ers have tallied at least 85 points in three-or-more games and the first since Jan. 18-23, 1979, under head coach, and now director of athletics, Judy (Wilkins) Rose.

| 3 | 01.28-02.06.16 | 85-85-87 | 85.7 |

When three score 20+, it marks another rare feat

- Charlotte had three of its players tally at least 20 points in the 99-88 victory at Davidson Dec. 20, marking just the fifth time in program history that has been accomplished.
- The rarity happened in 1978, 1979 and 1981 -- all under then-head coach (and now director of athletics) Judy Wilkins Rose -- before adding two within the most recent full calendar year under head coach Cara Consuegra.
- All five of the games in which it has happened have been on the road with the Niners owning a 4-1 record in those contests.
- This season's trio (Gregory, Alexander, Webster) combined for 25-of-39 (64.1 percent) from the floor and 7-of-10 (70.0 percent) from 3-point territory. It finished with 63 of the 49ers' 99 points (63.6 percent) in the road victory over the cross-county rival.

It's 20 or more by just two against the Florida schools

- Tallying 20 or more points by only two players happened for the Charlotte program for the first time this season Jan. 28 against FIU in the 87-74 home victory.
- Freshman Grace Hunter led the way with her career-high 23 points, while junior Ciara Gregory came off the bench to record 20.
- The feat was matched two days later, Jan. 30, against Florida Atlantic when Hunter nearly equaled her career best with 22 points, while senior Alexis Alexander also poured in 22.
- It marked the first two times since the Niners' road contest at UTEP Jan. 18, 2014, in which only two players posted 20 or more points in the same game. In that 92-86 win over the Miners, Hillary Sigmon dropped in 32, while Gabby Tyler added 22.

20 or more points becoming more common place

- Charlotte has had five different players score at least 20 points in a single game this season, led by five times from senior Alexis Alexander.

Six makes a balanced effort

- Charlotte had six players, including all five starters, reach double-figure scoring in the Dec. 20 win at Davidson. It marked the first time under head coach Cara Consuegra the 49ers had six double-digit scorers.
- Throughout Consuegra's tenure (2012-present), the Niners have had five double-figure scorers 11 times.

Starting off on a strong note

- For the third time in head coach Cara Consuegra's five seasons, Charlotte opened its season with a 2-0 record. The previous two times came in her first two years, 2011-12 and 2012-13.
- It also equaled the 2011-12 campaign for posting those two wins in a three-day stretch, as the 49ers started that year with games Nov. 11 and 13. This season, the Niners played contests Nov. 13 and 15.

Record-breaking from deep

- Junior Ciara Gregory began the season Nov. 13 with a career night against Ball State, tallying a career-high 27 points, including a then-career best five 3-pointers made (tied at Elon, Nov. 19), leading the 49ers to the 72-66 victory.
- Gregory netted 14 points in the second quarter alone, featuring four triples, to match the Cardinals' team output during the 10-minute frame.
- She reached the 20-point plateau for the first time in her career, while converting a career-high 8-of-8 at the foul line for a career-best performance at the charity stripe.

- Gregory added a game-high tying four assists in 31 minutes in the starting role.

Hot start on Education Day

- Charlotte drained a season-high 64.0 percent (16-of-25) of its field goals during the first half against Southern Miss Jan. 7 on Education Day, helping to build a 46-23 cushion at the intermission.
- The 49ers' 64.0 percent was carried by a 9-of-12 (75.0 percent) performance in the second quarter in which they outscored the Lady Eagles 27-6 on the strength of an 18-0 run spanning 7:17 (8:45 to 1:28).

Double double-doubles against the 'Canes plus two Conference USA opponents

- Charlotte had two of its players, seniors Kira Gordon and Alexis Alexander, each post a double-double when the 49ers played host to Miami (Fla.) Nov. 23.
- The feat was matched on Education Day, Jan. 7, when Gordon and freshman Grace Hunter each had a double-double in the triumph over Southern Miss.
- It also happened Jan. 23 at WKU when Alexander and junior Lefty Webster posted the double-doubles in C-USA action.
- Overall, during the five-year tenure of head coach Cara Consuegra, there have been 16 games with Charlotte having at least two players record a double-double.
- The Niners own a 10-6 record in the 16 games during the Consuegra era in which the feat has been accomplished.
- Eleven of the 16 contests have been played inside Halton Arena, including the two most recently against Miami (Fla.) Nov. 23 and against Southern Miss Jan. 7 this season.

- Freshman point guard Laia Raventós put her superb ball-handling skills to work Nov. 23 when the Niners played host to Miami (Fla.).
- She finished with six assists, many of which were jaw dropping, with only one turnover against the 'Canes.

Raventós en fuego from deep in Houston

- Laia Raventós was on fire from 3-point range in the 49ers' 69-58 victory at Rice Feb. 11, putting in a career-best performance from behind the arc.
- She made a career-high four 3-pointers on a career-best tying four attempts, not missing at all, as part of her 14 points against the Owls.
- Raventós made one triple in each quarter to top her previous career high of two triples to go along with a career-best tying and game-high four steals in 29 minutes.

Gordon finding range from beyond the arc

- Senior Kira Gordon has transformed her game over the last two seasons to add a dimension she did not have as a freshman or sophomore, shooting from behind the 3-point arc.
- Gordon dropped in a career-best seven 3-pointers in 2014-15 but has already exceeded that effort this season.
- She drained a career-high three 3-pointers against Miami (Fla.) Nov. 23, while attempting a career-best four triples in the matchup with the Hurricanes.
- Gordon had buried two 3-pointers against Robert Morris Nov. 15, her first game with multiple triples as each of her seven during her junior year happened in seven different games.

Gordon countdown I is over

- Kira Gordon made her 100th game appearance Nov. 30 when the 49ers faced Georgia State in Atlanta as part of the GSU Thanksgiving Classic.

Alexander reaches 100 career games, as well

- Senior Alexis Alexander became the second member of this year's team to reach 100 career games played, when she hit the milestone Jan. 28 against FIU inside Halton Arena.
- With her and Gordon both joining the club this year, they have become the 42nd and 43rd members in program history to play in at least 100 career games.

Gordon countdown is on, part II

- Senior Kira Gordon is also quickly approaching another milestone in her Charlotte career, as she is just five points away from reaching 1,000.
- She concluded the GSU Thanksgiving Classic with 842 points to her credit, which featured an early season career-high 24 against Miami (Fla.) Nov. 23 inside Halton Arena.

- Gordon's current 999 points currently place her in 21st in school history, past Julia Burton (1990-93)'s 966.
- She has scored the most points by anyone in school history not to reach the 1,000-point mark -- yet.
- There have been 20 all-time 1,000-point scorers in program history, the last of whom was Hillary Sigmon (2012-15) who tallied 1,178 points and ended her career ranked 16th. Sigmon hit her milestone against UAB Jan. 22, 2015, inside Halton Arena.

Webster making a charge to reach 1,000 as well

- Junior Lefty Webster has always been a scoring threat for the 49ers and this season is no different, as she currently is averaging 13.5 points per game.
- She is currently in 23rd place with 961 career points just ahead of the 960 attained by Erin Floyd (2007-10) and trailing the 966 from Julia Burton (1990-93).

Webster set to join elite group of nine currently

- Junior Lefty Webster stands just 39 points shy of becoming the 22nd player in program history to tally at least 1,000 in her career.
- Should Webster accomplish the feat by the end of the 2015-16 campaign, she will become only the 10th member of the exclusive club to reach the milestone in three seasons or less.

Picking up steam in the second and third quarters

- With the switch to the four-quarter format this season, Charlotte has found the second and third periods to be its most beneficial thus far.
- The 35 points in the second quarter against Robert Morris Nov. 19 signify the highest scoring quarter thus far for Charlotte.
- A total of 431 points have been posted in the third quarter for the Niners thus far, the highest scoring frame to date.

Two 49ers play the max

- For the first time this season, Charlotte had at least one player not step off the floor during a game when both Kira Gordon and Lefty Webster each played the full 40 minutes Jan. 9 against Louisiana Tech.
- The pair become the first Niners to play a 40-minute contest since Webster and Ayanna Holmes did so at Southern Miss Feb. 21, 2015.

Olley gives boost off bench; ties career best

- Junior Kenya Olley turned in the best of game of her season Jan. 21 at Marshall when she hit 7-of-11 field goals to match her career high with 14 points at Marshall.
- Olley's seven field goals made and 11 field goals attempted also equaled previous career bests, all set previously Feb. 19, 2015, at Louisiana Tech.
- She tallied 12-straight points at one point for the 49ers, spanning the first and second quarters. It's the longest individual scoring streak for any Charlotte player this season.

McKoy gets on the board

- Redshirt freshman Mintrell McKoy netted her first collegiate points Jan. 9 against Louisiana Tech with a bucket in the second quarter.
- Her turn-around jumper in the lane at 3:00 gave the 49ers a 27-25 edge and a lead they would not relinquish the remainder of the contest against the Lady Techsters.

- Her points came on her only field goal attempt of the matchup, while she added a pair of rebounds in three minutes.

Niners go deep often

- Three-pointers have proven to be an important part of the 49ers' offense thus far and the Niners provided their best effort behind the arc with 12 triples Dec. 8 in the 89-61 win against College of Charleston.
- The mark was matched Jan. 28 against FIU when Charlotte buried 12-of-26 from behind the arc with five different 49ers making at least one, including a career-best tying six from junior Ciara Gregory.
- Charlotte connected on 10 3-pointers in the season-opening 72-66 victory over Ball State Nov. 13.
- The Niners then added 11 from behind the arc in the road opener at Elon Nov. 19.
- Charlotte continued the solid showings in 3-point territory with 10 more long-range bombs Dec. 20 at Davidson.
- The 49ers have made at least 10 trifectas six times under head coach Cara Consuegra, two of which came in the two most recent season openers and five overall have happened this season. Charlotte drained 13 from behind the arc at Liberty Nov. 14, 2014.
- Overall, the Niners have made double-digit treys in one game 21 times through the 10 at Davidson Dec. 20 in the 99-88 triumph.

Webster doubles up

- Junior Preseason All-Conference USA selection Lefty Webster tallied the first double-double of the campaign by any Niners player and the third overall in her career with 18 points and a game-best 11 rebounds Nov. 13 in the season opener against Ball State.
- The double-double against the Cardinals represents the first in her career to come against an opponent other than Florida Atlantic, and subsequently, the first in non-conference action.

Alexander doubles against preseason favorite

- Senior Alexis Alexander had a monster game at Middle Tennessee Jan. 14, posting her third double-double of the season and sixth of her career with 26 points on 12-of-15 field goals and 10 rebounds to lead all players in both categories.

Freshmen make debuts

- First-year players Grace Hunter and Laia Raventós made their collegiate debuts in the season opener Nov. 13 against Ball State.
- Raventós garnered a starting role, finishing with two points, five rebounds, three assists and three steals in 24 minutes.
- Hunter came off the bench to contribute three points and four rebounds in 17 minutes.

Another debut

- Redshirt freshman Mintrell McKoy stepped onto the collegiate court for the first time Nov. 29 at Georgia State at the GSU Thanksgiving Classic after missing all of last season due to injury.
- McKoy finished with a blocked shot in six minutes during the second quarter.

Freshmen duo garners starting role together

- Charlotte's two sensational freshmen, Grace Hunter and Laia Raventós, were members of the starting five for the first time together Jan. 23 at WKU.
- It marked the fourth (Hunter) and 15th (Raventós) overall starts of the campaign for them, individually.
- The pair is one of eight freshmen guard tandems across the country to have started at least one game together this season, based on research conducted by the UMES media relations office.
