NINER NUGGETS

• Charlotte caps regular-season action with a 7 p.m. Saturday tip against North Texas inside Halton Arena. The 49ers will recognize the accomplishments of Alexis Alexander and Kira Gordon after the game concludes as part of the annual Senior Night festivities.

• Alexander and Gordon represent members of head coach Cara Consuegra's first recruiting class after she assumed control of the program. It is the second set of seniors to play all four of their collegiate campaigns during Consuegra's tenure, joining last year's group of Ayanna Holmes, Olivia Rankin and Hillary Sigmon. Those three were recruited to Charlotte by the previous staff and head coach Karen Aston.

• The Niners clinched the No. 4 seed in the upcoming Conference USA Championships with the 68-63 triumph over Rice March 3. Charlotte is locked into the No. 4 spot and cannot move up or down with the results of Saturday's action that concludes regular-season play across the league.

• The No. 4 seed gives Charlotte a double-bye in the quarterfinal round, which will take place March 10 inside UAB's Bartow Arena. The tournament officially begins March 8 with two games, followed by four more March 9. The 49ers are joined by regular-season champion and No. 1 seed UTEP, along with Middle Tennessee and WKU, with securing the double-bye. The Blue Raiders and Lady Toppers currently are tied for the No. 2 and No. 3 spots and will be determined following Saturday's games.

• Charlotte's No. 4 seeding is its highest as a Conference USA member since the Niners won the league regular-season crown in 2003, assuring them of the No. 1 spot. The 49ers, who were picked to place sixth in the preseason poll, were the No. 6 seed in their first year back in the conference in 2014 and the No. 8 seed last season.

• Head coach Cara Consuegra picked up career win No. 90 with the March 3 triumph over Rice inside Halton Arena. She is only of three coaches to reach the milestone and is quickly approaching her boss, current director of athletics Judy Rose, for second place on the program's all-time wins list. Rose accumulated 93 victories as Charlotte's first coach from 1976-82.

• The 49ers torched the net for a 72.7 percent conversion rate during the first half of the March 3 win against Rice, the best percentage from the floor in the opening 20 minutes this season. Charlotte finished at 52.8 percent, its seventh time this year making at least one-half of its field goal attempts and the 28th overall time during Consuegra's five seasons.

• The Niners competed in their 200th overall contest as a member of Conference USA March 3 against Rice. The 200 games include both regular season and tournament action. Charlotte is in its third year back in the league and 13th overall in Conference USA after serving as a charter member from 1995-96 through 2004-05 before rejoining prior to the 2013-14 campaign.

Opponent profile: North Texas

- Charlotte concludes the regular season with Senior Night against North Texas Saturday evening inside Halton Arena.
- The 49ers own a 4-0 all-time series lead over the Mean Green after picking up an 82-70 triumph in the earlier season meeting in Denton, Texas, the highest scoring game of the series.
- This year's contest featured senior Kira Gordon hitting the 1,000-point mark on her first basket. She had entered the tilt with 999 career points.
- Freshman Laia Raventós tallied 19 points in the matchup, a then-career high, and helping her secure her first Conference USA Freshman of the Week honor two days later.
- The two programs began playing in 2013-14, the first year both were members of Conference USA. North Texas was a member of the Sun Belt prior to making the league move.
- The Mean Green are coached by one of their former players, Jalie Mitchell, who is in her first season with the program. She is the third, and final, first-year head coach Charlotte faces in league action this season.
- Mitchell previously served as an assistant coach for Karen Aston, the former 49ers head coach, both at North Texas and Texas prior to returning to her alma mater.
- The Mean Green are one of five C-USA foes the Niners has faced two times this season.

Hunter continues to dominate C-USA with fourth award

• No freshman has been more dominant in Conference USA action since the start of league play than Charlotte's Grace Hunter and she continued to be rewarded for her hard work, garnering her fourth Conference USA Freshman of the Week accolade Feb. 29.

• Her four weekly honors are the most by any rookie in the league since conference games began in January and tie her for the most by any 49ers freshman in program history as she worked to solidify her case for C-USA's Freshman of the Year in the postseason.

• Hunter saved her best scoring effort of the season for the conference champion, UTEP, on her way to averaging a near double-double of 21.5 points and 9.5 rebounds this past week for the Niners.

• She started the two-game road slate with her sixth career double-double of 11 points and 10 rebounds in the Feb. 25 victory at UTSA, while swiping a two steals against the Road-runners.

• She then was nearly unstoppable from start-to-finish against UTEP Feb. 27, as Charlotte almost captured the double-overtime win.

• The Raleigh, North Carolina product, opened 9-of-9 from the floor, scoring the 49ers' first seven points and tallying 16 by halftime. She ended regulation with what would have been a career high, 28 points, before finishing the game with a career-best and game-high 32 against the Miners.

• She hit 13-of-15 field goals, one miss an off-balance 3-point attempt, while dropping in 4-of-5 free throws to go with nine boards to finish just shy of another double-double.

• Her 32 points are the most by any freshman in Conference USA and by any Charlotte player this season and tie for the most by any 49ers player during head coach Cara Consuegra's five years.

• Hunter's 86.7 field goal percentage at UTEP is the sixth best in a single game in program history and the second highest under Consuegra. She was on the floor for a career-high 48 minutes, only the second time in her career in which she played at least 40.

• Hunter has been recognized in Conference USA for the weeks of Jan. 11, Feb. 2, Feb. 9 and Feb. 29. Coupled with the single accolade bestowed to Laia Raventós Feb. 16, the 49ers duo set a single-season program record with its five freshman of the week awards. Charlotte claimed four of the possible five honors in February, the peak of the conference campaign.

Hunter ties single-season program record for FOTWS

• Grace Hunter has matched a single-season school mark for all-time Freshman/Rookie of the Week honors after claiming her latest from Conference USA, Feb. 29.

• Hunter has been recognized in Conference USA for the weeks of Jan. 11, Feb. 2, Feb. 9 and Feb. 29.

Raventós gives 49ers three-straight C-USA awards

• Charlotte women's basketball collected its third-straight Conference USA Freshman of the Week honor Feb. 15, as guard Laia Raventós earned her first weekly league accolade. The month of February has belonged almost exclusively to the 49ers, who started the three-week period with Grace Hunter winning back-to-back plaudits.

• Raventós finished with the best scoring week of her career in guiding Charlotte to a pair of road C-USA triumphs, knocking off Rice Feb. 11 and North Texas Feb. 13, to climb into a fourth-place tie in the league standings.

• She opened the week by hitting 4-of-4 3-pointers, setting a new career high behind the arc, as part of her 14 points in the 69-58 victory at Rice. She finished 5-of-7 from the floor, while coming up big on the defensive end with a career-best tying four steals to lead all players.

• She then capped the week with a career-high 19 points on 8-of-12 field goals, including two more triples, in the triumph over North Texas. Her 3-pointer in the corner with exactly three minutes left gave her the new career best in scoring.

• Her eight field goals made and 12 attempted established new career highs, as she became a focal point of the 49ers' offensive attack. Raventós handed out six assists, while solidifying her solid efforts on the defensive end with three more steals against the Mean Green.

Hunter adds back-to-back league freshman nod

• Charlotte guard Grace Hunter has been tabbed the Conference USA Freshman of the Week for Feb. 8, the league office announced. It's the second-straight week in which Hunter has received the accolade and her third overall honor this season.

• Hunter became only the second 49ers freshmen in program history to win at least three rookie/freshman of the week plaudits, joining Gabby Tyler in 2010-11. Tyler collected four that season from the Atlantic 10.

• The Raleigh, North Carolina, product continued her strong play as of late with her fifth double-double of the season, keeping her among the conference leaders, in the Niners' lone contest of the week. She finished with a career-high 27 points and grabbed 10 rebounds at Old Dominion Feb. 6.

• Hunter hit 9-of-17 field goals, setting a career best for attempts, and 8-of-12 at the foul line, establishing career highs in both categories for her third-straight 20-plus scoring performance.

• She added a career-best three assists, a career-high three steals and a blocked shot in playing the full 40 minutes for the first time in her career.

• Hunter's five double-doubles match the total of senior Alexis Alexander for the most by any Charlotte player this year.

Hunter claims sole C-USA Freshman of the Week honor

• Guard Grace Hunter was named the Conference USA Freshman of the Week, Feb. 1, after she averaged a double-double of 22.5 points and 12.0 rebounds in home league victories over FIU (Jan. 28) and Florida Atlantic (Jan. 30).

- She opened the week with a career-best 23 points on 9-of-15 field goals and 4-of-5 free throws to go along with nine rebounds and two assists against FIU. She became the fifth different 49ers player to tally at least 20 points in a game this year.
- She then topped that performance with her fourth career double-double of 22 points and a career-high 15 rebounds against Florida Atlantic. She again made 9-of-15 field goals to go with 4-of-6 free throws, while corraling 12 of her 15 boards on the defensive glass in a career-best tying 38 minutes.
- She became the fourth Niners player with multiple 20-plus scoring efforts in 2015-16 and the first Charlotte player with at least 15 rebounds in a game since Amanda Dowe in 2013. Her 12 defensive rebounds tie for third on the single-game list in Halton Arena history among all-time 49ers.
- Hunter added a career-high tying three blocked shots against the Owls, including a rejection on a 3-point attempt at the halftime buzzer which preserved the Niners' 18-point lead heading into the intermission.
- Her 45 points during the week are the most in consecutive games by any Charlotte player this season.
- Hunter's two C-USA Freshman of the Week plaudits raise the program total to three, as she is the first multi-time recipient.
- She also was named the Conference USA Player of the Week by College Sports Madness for her performances.

Hunter; Raventós join elite freshman group of 49ers

- Grace Hunter and Laia Raventós became the first set of Charlotte teammates to earn a conference freshman of the week award in the same season since three different 49ers, including current graduate manager Jai Forney, were named by the Atlantic 10 in 2009-10.
- Charlotte is the second school this year to have teammates earn the honor, joining Louisiana Tech with Reauna Cleaver (Nov. 23) and Kierra Anthony (Dec. 21).
- Overall, the Niners have now been recipients of 12 conference freshman of the week accolades and five by Conference USA, all within the last two seasons.

Raventós doubles up against Rice at home

- Charlotte freshman point guard Laia Raventós turned in a rare type of double-double, the second of her career, when she had career highs of 12 rebounds (11 defensive) and 11 assists against Rice March 3.
- Raventós became the first 49ers player with a non-traditional double-double, not including points, since Ayanna Holmes had 10 rebounds and 10 assists at Southern Miss Feb. 21, 2015.

Hunter scored on a record pace

- Freshman Grace Hunter netted at least 20 points in three-straight games from Jan. 28-Feb. 6, becoming the first rookie under head coach Cara Consuegra to accomplish the feat.
- The three-straight games with at least 20 points has been done now 30 times in program history, by 14 different players, based on available records.
- Hunter is the first to do it since Jennifer Hailey had a four-game stretch Jan. 20-Feb. 3, 2013, on her way to earning Atlantic 10 Player of the Year honors. Hailey was the first to accomplish the feat during Consuegra's tenure.
- Hunter's 24.0 points per game average during the streak tied her for 19th among the 49ers who have had stretches of 20-or-more points in three-or-more contests.

- Hunter joined Paula Bennett as the only two freshmen in program history to be score at least 20 points in three-or-more straight games. Bennett had three different periods during her rookie campaign of 1978-79 in which she tallied at least 20 points in three-consecutive games.

Making ESPN SportsCenter's Top 10

- Freshman Laia Raventós helped earn Charlotte a No. 6 placement in the Dec. 6 ESPN SportsCenter Top 10 Plays of the Day after the 49ers' contest at North Carolina State.
- She made another no-look, behind-the-back assist to Lefty Webster midway through the third quarter to complete a play which started with a Ciara Gregory steal.

- It marks the second time under head coach Cara Consuegra in which a 49ers play has garnered a spot on the Top 10, following (now graduate manager) Jai Forney's halftime half-court buzzer-beater against VCU Feb. 28, 2013, on her senior night. That play reached as high as No. 4 on the countdown.

Gregory hold spot atop Top 10 nationally

- Junior Ciara Gregory has set the tone early, not only on the Charlotte roster, but also in the national listings with her performance at the free-throw line.
- Gregory is the team leader, through games of March 3, while holding down a first-place spot in the national Top 10.
- She dropped her first 27 free throws to begin the 2015-16 campaign, including a high of 8-of-8 in the season opener Nov. 13 against Ball State, before missing her final attempt at Davidson Dec. 20 to snap the run.
- Gregory's 27-in-a-row is third in school history for the longest streak, trailing only the 31 by Lisa Gerton (1994-95) and record 33 by Alicia Abernathy (2000-01).
- Classmate Lefty Webster also put her name in the national Top 10 for much of the season and currently is in a three-way for 16th.
- Webster had dropped 21-straight attempts before snapping the streak Jan. 14 at Middle Tennessee, providing another long streak of consecutive conversions for the Niners this season.
- Charlotte was the only school nationally with multiple players ranking in the Top 10 in the category until recently.

Spanish sensation turns in double-double

- Freshman point guard Laia Raventós has provided an electric spark to the 49ers' offense this season and her skills were on display in the Nov. 28 victory over Mercer at the GSU Thanksgiving Classic.
- Raventós posted her first career double-double against the Bears with 10 assists and 10 points. The 10 assists set a new career best, while the 10 points fell one shy of her career high.
- Her 10th assist was a no-look, behind-the-back pass to senior Alexis Alexander with 2:29 remaining in the fourth quarter. Alexander then converted the free throw after getting fouled to create a three-point play.

Hunter nearly beats Panthers by herself

- Rookie guard Grace Hunter tallied a career-high 23 points Jan. 28 in the 49ers' 87-47 victory over FIU inside Halton Arena to lead all players in scoring.
- She connected on 9-of-15 field goals and 4-of-5 free throws against the Panthers, while falling just short of a double-double with nine boards to go along with two assists in 34 minutes.

Hunter comes to play against nationally-ranked Tigers

- Freshman Grace Hunter poured in 15 points when the 49ers closed the non-conference schedule Dec. 29 at No. 23/RV Missouri.

- Freshman guard Grace Hunter became a huge factor on the glass during the GSU Thanksgiving Classic, leading the team with a combined 24 rebounds in the two games.
- Hunter started the weekend with a 10-board contest versus Mercer Nov. 28, which would have been a career-best performance had she not come back the following day with a then career-high 14 caroms against host Georgia State.
- Eighteen of her 24 boards (75.0 percent) were on the defensive glass, including 10 Nov. 29 against the Panthers.
- The next closest 49ers player in the rebounding category was senior Alexis Alexander, the tournament MVP, who hauled in 11 during the event.

Hunter doubles up in front of the kids

- Grace Hunter continued to elevate her game and she turned in her best single-game performance of her career to-date Jan. 7 when she tallied her first career double-double in the 80-59 Education Day victory over Southern Miss.

Gregory earns league mention

She becomes the third 49ers player to receive the Honor Roll mention this season, which is presented to the runner-up of the weekly player of the week voting.
- Webster's week was highlighted by a season-best 24 point effort in the 87-77 win over Marshall Feb. 18, giving her exactly 1,000 career points. She became the 22nd player in program history to reach the milestone and only the 10th to accomplish the feat in three seasons or less. The 24 points are one shy of her career high.
- She made 7-of-11 field goals and 7-of-9 free throws against the Thundering Herd, including two charity tosses with 18.6 seconds left to the hit the 1,000-point mark. Reaching at least 85 points in three-straight games

- Charlotte attained a milestone it had never before accomplished under head coach Cara Consuegra, scoring at least 85 points in three-straight games, when it did it Jan. 28-Feb. 6, 2016.
- It marked just the second time in program history in which the 49ers have tallied at least 85 points in three-or-more games and the first since Jan. 18-23, 1979, under head coach, and now director of athletics, Judy (Wilkins) Rose.

When three score 20+, it marks another rare feat

- Charlotte had three of its players tally at least 20 points in the 99-88 victory at Davidson Dec. 20, marking just the fifth time in program history that has been accomplished.
- The rarity happened in 1978, 1979 and 1981 -- all under then-head coach (and now director of athletics) Judy Wilkins Rose -- before adding two within the most recent full calendar year under head coach Cara Consuegra.

• All five of the games in which it has happened have been on the road with the Niners owning a 4-1 record in those contests.

• This season's trio (Gregory, Alexander, Webster) combined for 25-of-39 (64.1 percent) from the floor and 7-of-10 (70.0 percent) from 3-point territory. It finished with 63 of the 49ers' 99 points (63.6 percent) in the road victory over the cross-county rival.

- Freshman point guard Laia Raventós put her superb ball-handling skills to work Nov. 23 when the Niners played host to Miami (Fla.).
- She finished with six assists, many of which were jaw dropping, with only one turnover against the 'Canes.

Raventós en fuego from deep in Houston

- Laia Raventós was on fire from 3-point range in the 49ers' 69-58 victory at Rice Feb. 11, putting in a career-best performance from behind the arc.
- She made a career-high four 3-pointers on a career-best tying four attempts, not missing at all, as part of her 14 points against the Owls.
- Raventós made one triple in each quarter to top her previous career high of two triples to go along with a career-best tying and game-high four steals in 29 minutes.

Let's play more minutes

- Charlotte entered its first overtime contest of the season Feb. 27 at UTEP and only the fourth time under head coach Cara Consuegra in which the 49ers needed extra time to decide the outcome.
- Three of the four overtime contests during her tenure have been against conference opponents, along with three of the four taking place on the road.

Extra, extra the 49ers go beyond a normal OT period

- Charlotte has played into multiple overtime periods five times in program history, the most recent being a double-overtime affair at UTEP Feb. 27 with the 49ers owning a 2-3 mark in such contests.
- The longest game in school history was a three-overtime 90-87 win over Wake Forest Dec. 19, 1993.

Raventós finishes second in national assist competition

- Charlotte freshman point guard Laia Raventós earned second place among four contestants during the third round voting for the State Farm Assist of the Year.
- Raventós was the lone Conference USA selection among the 16 overall contestants during the four-round competition and the only Division I women's choice.
- Through a five-day voting process conducted through social media, the Spanish sensation placed second with 25.0

percent of the votes. The third-round winner was from Rochester (N.Y.), while she beat out options from Seton Hall and Butler to claim the runner-up spot.

- One of the top signs of support for Raventós during the competition came from current assistant coach for the NBA's San Antonio Spurs and longtime WNBA member Becky Hammon, who called "this girl's dish & swish is insane! Vote for her..."

Gordon finding range from beyond the arc

- Senior Kira Gordon has transformed her game over the last two seasons to add a dimension she did not have as a freshman or sophomore, shooting from behind the 3-point arc.
- Gordon dropped in a career-best seven 3-pointers in 2014-15 but has already exceeded that effort this season.
- She drained a career-high three 3-pointers against Miami (Fla.) Nov. 23, while attempting a career-best four triples in the matchup with the Hurricanes.
- Gordon had buried two 3-pointers against Robert Morris Nov. 15, her first game with multiple triples as each of her seven during her junior year happened in seven different games.

Gordon countdown I is over

- Kira Gordon made her 100th game appearance Nov. 30 when the 49ers faced Georgia State in Atlanta as part of the GSU Thanksgiving Classic.

Alexander reaches 100 career games, as well

- Senior Alexis Alexander became the second member of this year's team to reach 100 career games played, when she hit the milestone Jan. 28 against FIU inside Halton Arena.
- With her and Gordon both joining the club this year, they have become the 42nd and 43rd members in program history to play in at least 100 career games.

Gordon countdown for part II is completed

- Senior Kira Gordon spent most of the season approaching another milestone in her Charlotte career, before finally joining the 1,000-point club with her first basket Feb. 13 at North Texas.
- She concluded the GSU Thanksgiving Classic with 842 points to her credit, which featured an early season career-high 24 against Miami (Fla.) Nov. 23 inside Halton Arena.
- Gordon's current 1,082 points currently place her in 19th in school history with her sights on Aysha Jones (2007-10) next on the list.
- There have been 22 all-time 1,000-point scorers in program history, the last most recent of whom before this season was Hillary Sigmon (2012-15) who tallied 1,178 points and ended her career ranked 16th. Sigmon hit her milestone against UAB Jan. 22, 2015, inside Halton Arena.
- Gordon became the first player recruited by head coach Cara Consuegra to reach the milestone. Two others (Jennifer Hailey and Hillary Sigmon) both played for Consuegra but both were recruited by the previous staff and then-head coach Karen Aston. Hailey played her final two years for Consuegra, while Sigmon played all four of her seasons for her.

Webster reaches 1,000 as well

- Junior Lefty Webster has always been a scoring threat for the 49ers and this season is no different and she became the 22nd member of the school's 1,000-point club with her 24 points against Marshall Feb. 18.
- She hit the milestone exactly with two free throws with 18.6 seconds left, giving Charlotte the distinction of having two players do it in back-to-back games.

Olley gives boost off bench; ties career best

- Junior Kenya Olley turned in the best of game of her season Jan. 21 at Marshall when she hit 7-of-11 field goals to match her career high with 14 points at Marshall.
- Olley's seven field goals made and 11 field goals attempted also equaled previous career bests, all set previously Feb. 19, 2015, at Louisiana Tech.
- She tallied 12-straight points at one point for the 49ers, spanning the first and second quarters. It's the longest individual scoring streak for any Charlotte player this season.

McKoy gets on the board

- Redshirt freshman Mintrell McKoy netted her first collegiate points Jan. 9 against Louisiana Tech with a bucket in the second quarter.
- Her turn-around jumper in the lane at 3:00 gave the 49ers a 27-25 edge and a lead they would not relinquish the remainder of the contest against the Lady Techsters.
- Her points came on her only field goal attempt of the matchup, while she added a pair of rebounds in three minutes.

Road wins mounting late in the season

- Charlotte enters the Feb. 27 showdown with UTEP having won its last three road games, all in league play, for its longest in a conference since a seven-game run in 2012-13 when playing in the Atlantic 10.
- The 49ers finished that season 13-1 in league play, winning 13-in-a-row, their longest streak in program history. Currently, Charlotte has won its last five entering the Feb. 27 contest.

Niners go deep often

- Three-pointers have proven to be an important part of the 49ers' offense thus far and the Niners provided their best effort behind the arc with 12 triples Dec. 8 in the 89-61 win against College of Charleston.
- The mark was matched Jan. 28 against FIU when Charlotte buried 12-of-26 from behind the arc with five different 49ers making at least one, including a career-best tying six from junior Ciara Gregory.

- Charlotte connected on 10 3-pointers in the season-opening 72-66 victory over Ball State Nov. 13.
- The Niners then added 11 from behind the arc in the road opener at Elon Nov. 19.
- Charlotte continued the solid showings in 3-point territory with 10 more long-range bombs Dec. 20 at Davidson.
- The 49ers have made at least 10 trifectas six times under head coach Cara Consuegra, two of which came in the two most recent season openers and five overall have happened this season. Charlotte drained 13 from behind the arc at Liberty Nov. 14, 2014.
- Overall, the Niners have made double-digit treys in one game 21 times through the 10 at Davidson Dec. 20 in the 99-88 triumph.

Webster doubles up

- Junior Preseason All-Conference USA selection Lefty Webster tallied the first double-double of the campaign by any Niners player and the third overall in her career with 18 points and a game-best 11 rebounds Nov. 13 in the season opener against Ball State.
- The double-double against the Cardinals represents the first in her career to come against an opponent other than Florida Atlantic, and subsequently, the first in non-conference action.

Alexander doubles against preseason favorite

- Senior Alexis Alexander had a monster game at Middle Tennessee Jan. 14, posting her third double-double of the season and sixth of her career with 26 points on 12-of-15 field goals and 10 rebounds to lead all players in both categories.

Freshmen make debuts

- First-year players Grace Hunter and Laia Raventós made their collegiate debuts in the season opener Nov. 13 against Ball State.
- Raventós garnered a starting role, finishing with two points, five rebounds, three assists and three steals in 24 minutes.
- Hunter came off the bench to contribute three points and four rebounds in 17 minutes.

Another debut

- Redshirt freshman Mintrell McKoy stepped onto the collegiate court for the first time Nov. 29 at Georgia State at the GSU Thanksgiving Classic after missing all of last season due to injury.
- McKoy finished with a blocked shot in six minutes during the second quarter.

Freshmen duo garners starting role together

- Charlotte's two sensational freshmen, Grace Hunter and Laia Raventós, were members of the starting five for the first time together Jan. 23 at WKU.
- It marked the fourth (Hunter) and 15th (Raventós) overall starts of the campaign for them, individually.
- The pair is one of eight freshmen guard tandems across the country to have started at least one game together this season, based on research conducted by the UMES media relations office.
