FAU will recognize Ali Gorrell and Morgan Robinson Saturday on Senior Day. Gorrell leads FAU in nearly every stat category, while Robinson is the only four-year member of the team.

FAU has made a three in 189 straight games, dating back to Jan. 10, 2010. The Owls have only been held to one only twice in that span.

Kat Wright has made a three in 31 consecutive games and tied a C-USA record with 11 threes at Charlotte. Her 9 threes in the second-half alone was enough to tie the FAU single game record.

Ali Gorrell scored 23 second-half points in FAU's loss at Southern Miss. That ranks among the best all-time in a C-USA game and her 14 free throws were the second-most in a game in FAU history.

FAU made at least 10 three-pointers in its first four Conference USA games and at least four in every game this year.

In its win over Marshall, FAU knocked down 17 three-pointers at a 58% clip. The mark is second in C-USA single-game history to a March 5, 2014 contest that saw the same Owls connect on 20 against UTEP.

Morgan Robinson scored a career-high 28-point against FIU on Jan. 3, including a personal 11-2 4th-Q run against the Panthers.

2014-15 in Review

“When I reflect back on the past season, two words come to mind: growth and maturity,” Kellie Lewis-Jay, FAU Head Coach, said of her 2014-15 squad.

The Owls exceeded expectations this season, finishing five spots higher in the Conference USA standings than the preseason poll projected. With no senior leadership and a multitude of freshmen, FAU (13-17, 7-11 C-USA) held the distinction of being the youngest, most inexperienced team in Division I going into the 2014-15 season.

“Our goal this year was to get better every time we stepped on the court,” Lewis-Jay said. “And I believe we accomplished that both individually and collectively.”

FAU got off to a hot start, winning three in a row after dropping their opening contest at UCF. Wins over Bethune-Cookman, Cleveland State and Western Illinois gave the Owls the confidence they needed as the players adapted to the collegiate game.

A close loss to NJIT set the Owls back to 3-2 before they won decisive back-to-back games against Northeastern and Webber International. FAU finished its nonconference schedule with a winning record at 6-5 and sophomore Shaneese Bailey posted back-to-back career-high games to give the Owls a pair of wins to open the C-USA season.

FAU snapped a three-game losing streak with back-to-back conference wins against FIU and Charlotte to improve to 4-3 in C-USA play. Big road wins at UTEP on Feb. 5 and at Rice on Feb. 21 propelled FAU into the Conference USA tournament. The Owls knocked off Marshall 83-73 at home on Feb. 28 to earn the No. 10 seed in the tournament in Birmingham.

FAU was pitted against 7th-seeded LA Tech in the opening round and led for much of the contest. Injuries in the second half shortened the bench for the Owls, helping the Lady Techsters come back for the 84-74 win.

The Owls finished the year ranked second in the conference in three-pointers made with 206 and free throw shooting at .719. Bailey ranked seventh in C-USA with 16.2 points per game while Ali Gorrell was 13th at 13.9 points per contest. The duo also sat near the top in field goal and free throw percentages. Freshman Malia Kency made 52 three-pointers in her debut season, the ninth most of any player in C-USA. With no seniors, FAU will transition from the youngest team this year to one of the most experienced in 2015-16. The Owls have a full year of games together and will be able to improve upon their chemistry in the coming season.

“We definitely learned a lot this year and I hope we can build on the lessons and continue our development,” Lewis-Jay said. “I look forward to working with this team each and every day and I can’t wait to see what this group can accomplish together.”

Head Coach

Kellie Lewis-Jay

Fourth Season

Boise State, '98

Kellie Lewis-Jay joined Florida Atlantic University as its head coach in May 2012. Lewis-Jay, the fourth head coach in the young program's 28-year existence, came to FAU as an accomplished student, athlete, coach and mentor. She also has served as an assistant coach in the Pac 10, Big 12 and Big Ten Conferences and represented each league in the NCAA Tournament.

In her first season at the helm at FAU, Lewis-Jay led the Owls to a 12-17 overall record and a 9-11 mark in the Sun Belt Conference in FAU's final season in the SBC. Her squad finished 15th in the nation in turnover margin and 30th in the country in steals per game. In 2013-14, Lewis-Jay embarked on her fourth conference in as many years as FAU joined Conference USA. Formerly, Lewis-Jay worked in the Big Ten, Big 12 and Sun Belt Conferences. Lewis-Jay's 2013-14 squad finished the season with 2,331 points in 30 games, the second highest scoring mark and average in school history. Her team shattered the school record with 264 three-pointers, 83 more than the previous mark. The Owls also set school records for largest margin of victory (77 vs. Florida Memorial, 11/16/13) and most steals (33, same game) en route to a 16-14 record. FAU broke a Conference USA record with 20 three-pointers in the regular-season finale against UTEP on March 5. Senior Kimberly Smith was named Second Team All-Conference USA after shattering multiple FAU and C-USA records.

In 2014-15, Lewis-Jay helmed the youngest Division I team in the nation with eight freshmen, and only one third-year player, to a 13-17 mark, earning the No. 10 seed in the C-USA Tournament. The Owls finished the year ranked second in the conference in three-pointers made with 206 and in free throw shooting at .719. Sophomore Shaneese Bailey was named First Team All-Conference USA while Malia Kency was named to the All-Freshman team.

Lewis-Jay served five seasons at the University of Nebraska where she coordinated Nebraska's recruiting efforts. Those efforts gleaned a top-25 recruiting class in 2011, the highest for a program under the direction of Connie Yori (Nebraska's current head coach), and also helped the Huskers to the best season in school history in 2009-10. NU finished with a 32-2 record, including a perfect 16-0 conference mark to capture the school's first Big 12 regular-season crown. Lewis-Jay also helped the Huskers to their first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance and their second NCAA Tournament trip in her first three seasons in Lincoln and WNIT appearance in 2009.

Lewis-Jay joined Yori's Husker staff in 2007, after spending four seasons as an assistant coach at Washington. Lewis-Jay helped the Huskies to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2006 and 2007, before aiding Nebraska's run to another NCAA Tournament bid in 2008.

In addition to coordinating Nebraska's recruiting efforts, Lewis-Jay assisted with on-court coaching responsibilities, including opponent scouting. She also was responsible for developing Nebraska's guard play.

Lewis-Jay was instrumental in helping Washington sign one of the nation's top recruiting classes for the 2007-08 season, as the six-player class was ranked eighth nationally at the time of signing by Blue Star on Nov. 8, 2006.

Lewis-Jay joined current Husker assistant coach Sunny Smallwood on the Washington staff in 2003-04, and both Lewis-Jay and Smallwood are graduates of Boise State University. The connections to the state of Washington helped the Huskers sign 2009 Washington Gatorade High School Player of the Year Lindsey Moore, a third-team Parade High School All-American and a 2010 Big 12 All-Freshman selection as NU's starting point guard.

Lewis-Jay's duties at Washington included opponent scouting, coordinating the Husky defense, recruiting, on-floor coaching and serving as the team's academic coordinator.

A native of Auburn, California, Lewis-Jay was a standout at Boise State after attending Placer High School.

After completing her playing career, Lewis-Jay began her coaching career at the high school and club levels.

Lewis-Jay was named the head girls coach at Bishop Kelly High School in Boise, Idaho, for the start of the 1998-99 season. She led Bishop Kelly to a five-year record of 87-33, including a runner-up showing at the 2002 state championships.

Lewis-Jay led the prep varsity team to a district championship in 2003, after guiding the junior varsity team to district crowns in 1999 and 2000. Lewis-Jay also was named the District 3 Junior Varsity Coach of the Year in 2000.

Aside from her prep coaching duties, Lewis-Jay established the Idaho Elite in 1999, a competitive summer team based in Boise. Members of Lewis-Jay's Idaho Elite team included 25 all-state athletes, as well as 12 NCAA Division I signees. Among those standout players were Huskies Maggie O'Hara and Emily Florence. Led by O'Hara and Florence, the Idaho Elite won the 2002 Midsummer Nights Madness Tournament title in Seattle.

Lewis-Jay was a four-year letterwinner and a two-time team captain as a player at Boise State. Her list of collegiate accolades included a pair of All-Big West Conference selections in 1997 and 1998, as well as Boise State team MVP honors those same seasons. During her senior campaign, Lewis-Jay earned Big West Conference All-Tournament honors, after being named the MVP of the Boise State Tournament. She also was honored as a two-time recipient of the National Arthur Ashe Scholar Athlete Award in 1997 and 1998.

Along with displaying excellence on the court, Lewis-Jay performed well in the classroom. She was a four-time academic all-conference pick, including 1995 and 1996 selections to the Big Sky team and 1997 and 1998 nods to the Big West team. Lewis-Jay's name still appears among many single-season and career top-10 lists in Bronco history. She ranks second in three-point field goals made (163), second in three-point field goals attempted (484), second in free-throw percentage (.807) and ninth in three-point field goal percentage (.337). Her 829 career points also rank 20th in the Bronco record books.

Lewis-Jay established single-season school records for three-pointers made (76) and attempted (205) in 1996-97, which have since been surpassed. Her 61 treys in 1997-98 rank seventh all-time. Her .830 free-throw shooting percentage in 1997-98 remains the fourth-best on the BSU single-season list in that category. Lewis-Jay also shares the single-game school record for three-pointers with seven.

An outstanding all-around player, Lewis-Jay led the Broncos in six categories during her junior season, including scoring (12.2 ppg), field goals made (107), three-pointers made (76), free-throw percentage (.765), assists (69) and steals (48). She was the team leader in three-pointers in 1998 (61) and 1995 (20), in three-point field goal percentage in 1995 (.328), in free-throw percentage in 1998 (.830), and assists in 1998 (76).

Lewis-Jay was a standout at Placer High School in Auburn, California, where she graduated in 1994 as the school's valedictorian. She led Placer to four Sierra Foothill League Championships. Lewis-Jay earned league MVP honors during her senior campaign, and was also a three-time all-conference selection. She was a three-year team captain and two-time team MVP.

Lewis-Jay earned her bachelor's degree in social science/public affairs with an emphasis in sociology and psychology from Boise State in 1998. Lewis-Jay was born Feb. 18, 1976. She is married to Chris Jay and the couple has a daughter, Kobie.
