NOTES

SCOUTING THE MEAN GREEN

North Texas is 6-7 this season and 1-2 in Conference USA after a win over UTSA and back-to-back losses to UTEP and Rice, the latter coming in triple overtime (100-97) in Houston. Kelsey Criner leads the team in points (12.6), assists (66), steals (29) and 3-point percentage (18-for-40, .450). Acheil Tac is the top rebounder (7.8) and the best in field goal percentage (50-for-83, .602) and free throw shooting (30-for-37, .811), while Bria Frierson has the edge in blocks (7). The Mean Green is second in Conference USA in rebounding defense, giving up just 34.5 caroms per game and last in blocked shots (1.5) and steals (5.8).

CAREER-HIGHS

Kiana Evans had a career day in the 65-58 win over FIU. She recorded career-highs in points (16), rebounds (14), 3-pointers made (three) and minutes (32) in the first double-double effort of her career. Chelsey Romero also had a career-best two 3-pointers and two assists in the win over the Panthers.

SHARPSHOOTERS

The Herd made 92.3 percent (12-for-13) of its free throws in the 65-58 win over FIU, the best percentage for the program since going perfect (18-for-18) in a 76-57 win over Memphis in the first round of the 2009 Conference USA Tournament. That night, Tynikki Crook went 8-for-8, Casey Baker went 4-for-4 and Alyssa Hammond, Alix Barnette and Angelica Harris all went 2-for-2.

BOUNCING BACK

Guard Taylor Porter bounced back in the win over the Panthers, sinking three of her five 3-point attempts, after going 1-for-14 in her five previous games as she works her way back from an ankle injury she suffered in the early moments of the win over WVU Tech. As a team, Marshall did the same, making 11 long-range shots to tie a season-high (at Morehead State). Defensively, the Herd turned up the screws at the arc as well. Western Kentucky (7-for-11, 63.6%) and FAU (17-for-29, 58.6%) had big days against MU, but FIU managed just a 4-for-21 (19.0%) from deep.

MILESTONE

Marshall point guard Norrishia Victrum played in her 100th game Saturday at FIU, just over a year after suffering a major knee injury at FIU Arena.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

The Herd is outstanding when the following happens:

- 8-0 leading at half
- 10-0 leading with five minutes left
- 8-1 when outrebounding opposition
- 8-3 when more points in the paint
- 11-0 when making more free throws
- 8-3 when opponent makes more TOs
- 8-1 when three or more players get double digits

RECORD BOOK WATCH

The Herd has a few players who are approaching career milestones and rising up the ranks of the program record book.

- Senior Leah Scott has scored 232 points this season for a career total of 1,065. She is the 19th player in team history to score 1,000. Scott currently ranks 16th and needs 18 to pass Saundra Fullen (1978-80). She also ranks 10th all-time with 249 free throws made.
- Senior Norrishia Victrum can be found in a few places in the record book. Victrum has 318 assists and just passed Kim Lewis (1984-1988) for fifth place in the school's all-time records. Victrum is currently eighth in 3-point field goals made (99) and needs 171 points to become the 20th player to reach 1,000 for her career.
- Junior Chelsey Romero has 21 blocks this season to give her a career total of 105. Romero is in fifth place all-time and is the fifth player in program history with 100 in a career.

HAVE YOU HERD?

After defeating Alabama A&M, it was the 1st time Marshall has started 6-0 since the 1971-72 season in which the Herd started 20-0 and finished the year 21-1.

POINTS ALL AROUND

In the first two games, Marshall scored over 90 points in back-to-back games for the first time since 1989. It was also only the fifth time in school history that has happened. All times of 90 points or more in consecutive games:

HEAD COACH MATT DANIEL

Fourth season • @coachmattdaniel

Jonesboro, Ark. | Harding '98

Matt Daniel, who quickly built a successful NCAA Division I women's basketball program at Central Arkansas, was named head coach at Marshall University in May 2012 and enters his fourth season with the Thundering Herd.

Daniel, 39, guided Marshall to a berth in the Women's Basketball Invitational in 2014-15 and captured the program's first postseason win in the NCAA era (81-79 victory over Northern Kentucky) in only its second appearance. The WBI run also extended the Herd's season later than any other season since the 1971-72 season where the program played to the end of March (but only 17 games). He also mentored Leah Scott and Chukwuka Ezeigbo, who each became just the fourth and fifth student-athletes in program history to gain All-Conference USA recognition (second team). Daniel's latest team also brought an increased commitment to scoring as the team's 66.1 points per game was the most since the 2007-08 season (68.0) and the 193 3-pointers are a school record. The stage was set for a good season when Daniel and his staff brought in a 2015-16 recruiting class that was ranked 52nd nationally by BlueStar Report, ahead of Villanova, Indiana, Boston College and Cincinnati among others.

On Dec. 22, 2014, Daniel's Thundering Herd set a school single-game scoring record in a 127-56 win over Brescia. That mark is also a Conference USA record, giving Daniel's teams the single-game scoring record in two leagues (Conference USA, Southland). In that game, the team hit 14 3-pointers, tying the school's all-time record. Marshall guard AJ Johnson also nailed seven 3-pointers, also a school record, and set a Marshall single-season school record when she hit 72 3-pointers last season.

In Daniel's second season, his Thundering Herd became the lowest seed to advance in a conference tournament when, as a 16 seed, it defeated ninth-seeded Florida Atlantic 80-73 in the opening round of the 2014 Conference USA Tournament in El Paso, Texas.

At UCA, Daniel earned a reputation as a spirited and tireless young coach who displayed an ability to turn around a program, finishing his final three seasons at UCA with a 66-26 record.

During his four years with the Sugar Bears, Daniel took UCA from Division II to the Division I level and guided a program that had two consecutive 20-loss seasons (2007-08 and 2008-09) to its first Division I regular season conference championship (Southland Conference), two postseason tournaments ('12 WNIT, '11 WBI) and three straight 21-win seasons. His teams had the best overall and conference records in the Southland Conference over his last three seasons.

Daniel's recruiting ability led to many of Central Arkansas' recent successes. During his four years at UCA, he produced two Southland Players of the Year, a Southland Defensive Player of the Year and a Southland Freshman of the Year. Daniel also coached eight All-Conference selections, along with three first-team selections and three All-Academic honorees.

For his efforts, he was named the 2010 and 2012 Southland Coach of the Year.

Under Daniel's direction, women's basketball attendances increased significantly at UCA. Eight of the top 10 crowds in UCA history came in the last five years. UCA led the Southland in attendance, while developing an intimidating home-court advantage that included a 21-3 home conference record in his last three years.

In total, Daniel's teams have made three postseason appearances and all of his recruits that have graduated have played in a postseason.

The Jonesboro, Ark. native has other coaching experience at the University of Missouri, the University of Colorado, and Texas-Arlington, where he was an assistant coach at each institution.

Daniel started coaching as a graduate assistant for men's basketball at Arizona State and played collegiate basketball at Colorado and Harding (Ark.) University.

He is a 1998 graduate of Harding University and was Mr. Basketball in Arkansas in 1994. He was named MVP of the state tournament after taking Jonesboro High School to a state title in Arkansas' highest classification.

He and his wife, Dr. Jennifer Daniel, welcomed their firstborn daughter, Steele, in October 2012, and their second daughter, Brett, in July 2014.
