TIPPING POINTS

- Today's contest marks just the fourth meeting between these two programs. The Lady Monarchs hold a two-game winning streak over the Mean Green and took both meetings last season by an average margin of 16 points.
- Old Dominion enters the contest on a three-game winning streak after defeating Florida Atlantic, FIU and Charlotte. In the games against the Florida opponents, five players reached double figures, marking the first time since 2010 that five Lady Monarchs reached 10+ points in one game. ODU was close to achieving that feat again against the 49ers, but fell just one point short.
- ODU also set a new season high for assists against Charlotte, dishing out 22 helpers, which broke its previous high of 21 that was set against FIU. The assist total marked the second-straight game ODU has reached the 20+ mark.
- Simms made history against FIU, becoming just the sixth Old Dominion women's basketball player to score 1,000 points in two years with a jumper with 2:11 on the clock in the third period. She joined Anne Donovan, Shae Kelley, Nancy Lieberman, Clarisse Machanguana and Inge Nissen as the only players to reach 1,000 points in two seasons at ODU.
- ODU solidified its status as one of the finest basketball programs in NCAA history by claiming the program's 1,000 win after defeating the Howard Bison, 83-64. ODU became the fourth program to reach 1,000 victories, joining Tennessee, Louisiana Tech and James Madison as the only programs to achieve this feat.

OPPONENT PROFILE: NORTH TEXAS

SCOUTING THE MEAN GREEN

• The Mean Green - coming off one of the season's worst offensive performances on Thursday against Southern Miss (38 points) - put up 71 points and nearly picked up the program's first win over Louisiana Tech on Saturday from the Thomas Assembly Center. Foul trouble limited the North Texas roster and gave the Lady Techsters plenty of chances from the charity stripe in a 77-71 loss.

• North Texas (8-12, 3-7), who took a seven-point lead into the locker room at halftime, was in control for much of the first half. But the final two quarters were summarized by LA Tech's ability to draw fouls and finish the game with 33 free throws attempts and cashed in on 28 of them.

• Four players scored in double figures, led by 18 from Candice Adams, who tied a career high and connected on four shots from long range.

• Kelsey Criner leads the team with 12.0 points, 5.5 rebounds and 5.1 assists per game. Adams adds 11.5 points, while Terra Ellison and Acheil Tac add 10.4 and 10.3 points, respectively. Tac also pulls in a team high 8.2 rebounds per outing.

• On April 9, 2015, Jalie Mitchell returned to her alma mater to become the eighth head coach in Mean Green women's basketball program history. Mitchell boasts numerous records as a four-year letterwinner on the North Texas women's basketball team from 1999-02. She finished as the Mean Green's all-time leading scorer with 1,764 points and tops the list of career free throws made and attempted. In 2002, Mitchell was named Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year when she averaged 19.4 points per game.

She earned all-conference honors all four years at North Texas and was a part of the winningest senior class in program history, compiling a 77-39 record -- including a 42-4 mark at the Super Pit -- and making back-to-back WNIT appearances in 2001 and 2002.

Mitchell's No. 44 is one of two numbers that has been retired by the Mean Green, and her spectacular playing career culminated in 2007 when she was inducted into the North Texas Hall of Fame.

GAME TWENTY-THREE • ODU AT NORTH TEXAS • 8:00 PM (ET) • DENTON, TEXAS • SUPER PIT

LAST TIME OUT FOR ODU

NORFOLK, Va. -- In front of 3,146 fans in pink for the 14th annual Hoops for the Cure game, the Old Dominion Lady Monarchs defeated the Charlotte 49ers, 94-85, on Saturday afternoon at the Ted Constant Center.

After scoring 90-plus points for the first time this season, the Lady Monarchs improved to 10-12 overall and 6-4 in Conference USA, while Charlotte fell to 12-9 overall and 5-5 in league play.

Jennie Simms led ODU with 35 points, tying her season-high, to go along with five rebounds and five assists. Ije Ajemba finished the game with a double-double of 15 points and 13 rebounds, while Destinee Young also finished with 14 points and 10 rebounds for her sixth double-double of the season. Gianna Smith chipped in 10 points for her third-straight double-figure outing.

Both teams opened the game going basket-for-basket, as the game was tied four times in the opening 10 minutes of play. The 49ers closed the final 53 seconds with a 5-0 run to hold a 17-13 edge over the Lady Monarchs going into the second period.

The Lady Monarchs chipped away at the 49ers advantage and eventually took the lead back (32-30) by the 3:51 mark after a quick 4-0 spurt, forcing Charlotte to take its first timeout of the contest. Simms had a hand in both baskets by scoring the first and dishing the ball to Young for the second. Old Dominion continued to increase its lead and held Charlotte to just six points over the final 4:44 of the period, as the Lady Monarchs headed into the lock room with a 40-36 advantage.

Young led ODU with 12 points in 18 minutes of action, while Simms added nine points and three assists. ODU shot 55.1 percent from the floor (27-49) and held Charlotte to 48.9 percent (23-47).

Old Dominion and Charlotte traded baskets once again over the first two minutes of the third period, but the Lady Monarchs responded with a 7-2 run over a span on 1:13 to take an eight-point lead with 4:48 on the clock. ODU continued to pour in the points and held a 12-point edge over Charlotte with 1:39 left and entered the final period with a nine-point advantage.

Charlotte put together a 5-0 run over the first 1:39 in the fourth period, which prompted a Lady Monarch timeout. Following the break, Old Dominion scored eight unanswered points, capped by an Ajemba layup, to bring its lead back to 12 with 6:06 left on the clock. The 49ers cut the Lady Monarch lead to seven points, but Simms responded with back-to-back three pointers to bring the lead to 11 with 2:40 left in the game. Despite five late points from Charlotte down the stretch, ODU never gave up the lead and picked up its second win over Charlotte this season.

For the game, ODU shot 54.2 percent from the floor (32-59) compared to 47.0 percent (31-66) for Charlotte. The Lady Monarchs also held a 42-31 edge over the 49ers on the glass and dished out a season-high 22 assists, marking the second time this season ODU has recorded 20-plus assists in a game.

Grace Hunter led the 49ers with 27 points and 10 rebounds, while Laia Raventós added 12 points and five assists. Kira Gordon and Lefty Webster finished the game with 14 points, while Alexis Alexander, who leads the team with 14.6 points per game, was held to just eight points.

TWO GAME DOUBLE DIGIT PERFORMANCE

For the first time since 2010 against Charlotte, five Lady Monarchs scored in double figures, not only once, but twice in one week. Jennie Simms led the way for ODU against FAU (1.28) with 20 points, while Destinee Young (18), Annika Holopainen (14), Gianna Smith (12) and Ije Ajemba (10) joined Simms in double-digits. The quintet against reached double figure points against FIU (1.30), as Simms led with 23 points, while Ije Ajemba and Smith added 13 points apiece. Young chipped in 12 points and Holopainen finished the game with 10 points.

ODU was close to achieving it for the third-straight game, but fell just one point shy against Charlotte (2.6). Simms tied a season-high 35 points, while Ajemba reached a career-high 15 points. Young added 14 points and Smith chipped in 11 points. Keyana Brown was close to double-figures, as she finished the game with nine points.

HALFTIME WOES

The Lady Monarchs have struggled to come back from a halftime deficit this season, as the team is 0-9 overall and 0-4 in the conference when trailing at halftime. On the other side, ODU is 5-0 in Conference USA play and 9-3 overall when leading at the half.

CRASHING THE BOARDS

Destinee Young leads the Lady Monarchs with 8.3 rebounds per contest, which ranks fifth in Conference USA, while her counterpart Ije Ajemba also pulls in 8.3 rebounds as well, ranking her just behind Young at No. 6 in C-USA. In just conference games, Young leads the way with 9.4 rebounds, while Ajemba is not far behind with 9.3 boards per game. The tandem ranks third and fourth in the league in Conference USA rebounding, marking just one of three schools to have two players in the top-10 in league rebounding. Overall, Young and Ajemba are part of two programs to have two players in the top-10 in rebounding.

Ajemba is one of the conference's most physical players on the glass, as she was a defensive end for Park dale High School's football team where she racked up 15 tackles and one sack.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION

The Lady Monarchs exploded for 85 points, a then season high, against Florida Atlantic on Thursday night. Not only did the team set a then season high for points, ODU also broke its previous high for shooting percentage with a 55.2 mark and demolished its previous halftime advantage mark (16) with a 36-point edge against the Owls. Five players scored in double-figures for ODU, marking the first time since Dec. 29, 2010 against Charlotte that five Lady Monarchs have done so. On the defensive end, ODU held FAU to just 23.1 percent from the floor (15-65), which is the

1,000 POINTS AND COUNTING

Simms made history against FIU, becoming just the sixth Old Dominion women's basketball player to score 1,000 points in two years with a jumper with 2:11 on the clock in the third period. She joined Anne Donovan, Shae Kelley, Nancy Lieberman, Clarisse Machanguana and Inge Nissen as the only players to reach 1,000 points in two seasons at ODU. She also became the 32nd Lady Monarch to reach 1,000 career points against FAU and currently has 1,066 career points, which is good for 30th in ODU history.

Simms has averaged over 19 points per game in both of her seasons with the Lady Monarchs and has notched double-figures 18 times this season and 50 times over her career.

Already the recipient of the Conference USA Player of the Week award on January 4, Simms has collected 10 20+ point performances this season.

lowest shooting percentage by an ODU opponent this season. The Lady Monarchs followed that performance with another 80-plus points against FIU two days later. ODU defeated the Panthers, 84-49, behind another five players in double-figures. ODU also shot 50.0 percent from the floor and out-rebounded FIU 39-22.

Following the explosion of points against the Florida opponents, the Lady Monarchs set a new season-high with 94 points in the win over Charlotte (2.6). The 94 points marked the first time ODU reached the 90+ mark since defeating Southern Miss on the road 92-82 on January 15, 2015. ODU also dished out a season high 22 assists, led by five from Jennie Simms and Carolina Bernardeco.

BENCH PRODUCTION

The Lady Monarchs do not rely on just the starting five to produce points, as the bench as combined to score 334 points on the season. ODU holds a slight 334-333 advantage in bench points over its opponents with its largest margin coming against FAU (25-3). Keyana Brown leads the bench with 7.6 points per game in 20.9 minutes of action per game.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Destinee Young is the first Lady Monarch to notch back-to-back double-doubles this season after posting 28 points and 15 rebounds against Loyola (12.2) and following that up with a 17 point 11 rebound performance at Howard (12.15). The two marked her first double-doubles of the season, but her fourth and fifth of her career. For the season, she has posted six double-doubles and hit two more in a row for the second time this season following the FIU (12pts & 12rbs) and Charlotte (14pts, 10rbs) games. She is close to averaging a double-double overall with 10.9 points and 8.3 rebounds per contest. In Conference USA games only, she puts up 10.9 points and 9.4 boards per outing.

BOUNCING BACK STRONG FROM LOSSES

This season, the Old Dominion Lady Monarchs hold a 6-3 record in games immediately following a loss. The Lady Monarchs' two losses after a loss came at the end of November and at the Paradise Jam and most recently on the road at Marshall. Overall under Karen Barefoot, ODU is 27-21 in games following a loss since she joined the program for the 2011-2012 season.

DOUBLE-FIGURE SCORING

Jennie Simms has scored in double figures in 18-of-19 games she has played this season, while Destinee Young has also scored in double figures in 13-of-21 contests. Simms and Young are also the only two Monarchs with 20+ scoring games, while Simms is the only Lady Monarch to reach the 30+ mark. SPORTSCENTER TOP 10

Makayla Timmons put Old Dominion women's basketball on the map this season after making the SportsCenter Top 10 segment with her buzzer beater against Middle Tennessee. The play came in at No. 7 on the list.

NEW FACES

The Old Dominion women's basketball team added James Madison University transfer Carley Brew, as announced by head coach Karen Barefoot on Wednesday afternoon.

Brew, a 6-foot forward from Wyomissing, Pa. who attended high school at Wilson, was a McDonald's All-American nominee as a senior. In addition, she was named to the Pennsylvania Sports Writers All-State PIAA 4A team and was a Sporting News Magazine National High School Honorable Mention All-American in 2014. Earning PIAA District 3 4A First Team honors, Brew led Wilson to a Berks Conference championship and PIAA District 3 championship as a senior. She finished her high school career with 1,277 points and was selected as a Berks County All-Star team member at the conclusion of her senior campaign. Outside of high school, Brew played with the Philadelphia Belles and was a member of the Nike National Team.

GAME TWENTY-THREE • ODU AT NORTH TEXAS • 8:00 PM (ET) • DENTON, TEXAS • SUPER PIT

At James Madison, Brew made an appearance in 16 games as a freshman, averaging 4.1 minutes per outing. She played a career-high 17 minutes against Houston last season and pulled down a career-high three rebounds.

Brew will sit out the rest of the 2015-16 season due to NCAA transfer rules and will be eligible to compete in December during the 2016-17 season.

VIRGINIA SPORTS HALL OF FAME

Former Old Dominion women's basketball coach Marianne Stanley is one of seven members of the 2016 Virginia Sports Hall of Fame induction class, the organization announced on Tuesday. Stanley led the Lady Monarchs to three national championships during her ten years at the helm of the ODU program, winning back-to-back AIAW titles in 1979 and 1980 as well as the NCAA trophy in 1985.

Stanley served as the Lady Monarchs' head coach from 1977 to 1987, compiling a ten-year mark of 268-59 and helping put the Lady Monarch basketball program on the map. Along with the national titles, she led the team to a NWIT title in 1978 as well as four Sun Belt Conference Championships after joining the league in 1982. Her career winning percentage of .820 is the best of any coach in ODU women's basketball history.

Stanley's teams won 30 or more games four times and enjoyed eight seasons of 20 or more wins. She was the AIAW National Coach of the Year in 1979, and a five-time Virginia Coach of the Year in 1979, 1980, 1981, 1984 and 1985. Stanley also served as head coach at the University of Pennsylvania, California-Berkeley and the University of Southern California, as well as an assistant coach at Stanford where she helped guide The Cardinal to the NCAA Final Four in 1996.

Stanley is also a member of the The Women's Basketball Hall of Fame and the ODU Sports Hall of Fame. She joins her former players Nancy Lieberman and Anne Donovan in the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame. Currently, Stanley is an assistant coach for the Washington Mystics of the WNBA.

Other inductees include former Norfolk Tides general manager Dave Rosenfield, former University of Virginia linebacker James Farrior, former James Madison and UVA sports information director Rich Murray, Virginia Union basketball player Charles Oakley, the NFL's Charlie Stukes and professional soccer player Robert Ukrop.

1000 PROGRAM WINS

With the 83-64 victory at Howard, the team and coach Karen Barefoot added became the fourth Division I program to amass 1,000 victories, joining Tennessee (1,287), Louisiana Tech (1,064) and James Madison (1,024). Tennessee began keeping records in 1903, James Madison's records date to 1920, ODU started keeping track in 1969 and Louisiana Tech began in 1974.

During the game on Thursday, three of the four teams listed above were represented in some capacity. The obvious representations are ODU and LA Tech. The head coach of the Lady Techsters brings in Tennessee, not only for being standout Tennessee women's basketball coach Pat Summitt's son, but also for being an alumni of the institution.

C-USA PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Junior guard Jennie Simms has been named the Conference USA Player of the Week (1.2.16) for the first time in her career after averaging 26.5 points and seven rebounds in two games. Awards are chosen by a vote from a panel representing the 14 member schools.

Simms finished the month of December with C-USA's highest scoring total so far this season, as she exploded for 35 points in the loss to W&M (12.29). The Maryland product went 13-of-26 from the field and 4-of-8 from behind the arc for a .500 average in both categories. Seventeen of her 35 points also came in the fourth quarter and she finished the game just one rebound (9) short of a double-double. Simms also added two assists, three blocks and three steals to her stat line.

In the first Conference USA game of the season, Simms poured in 18 points and pulled in five rebounds leading Old Dominion to a 71-59 victory over Charlotte on national television. Her efforts helped ODU move to 33-3 overall in conference openers since joining the Sun Belt in 1982.

C-USA PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONOR ROLL

Destinee Young earned Conference USA Player of the Week Honor Roll accolades after pouring in a career-high 28 points and 15 rebounds in the win over Loyola (12.2). She award was the closest and ODU player has come to winning Player of the Week since Shae Kelley took home the laurel on Dec. 9, 2013.

ALUMNI DAY AND HOOPS FOR THE CURE

A host of familiar Lady Monarch alumni will return on Jan. 30 for the ODU vs FIU game at 4 p.m., when the program celebrates surpassing 1,000 wins, becoming only the fourth women's basketball program in history to do so. Then, on Saturday, Feb. 6, ODU will welcome breast cancer survivors, their family members and fans to the 14th annual Hoops for the Cure Game, presented by Bon Secours In Motion Physical Therapy, Sports Performance, Fitness & Wellness at 4 p.m.

C-USA PRESEASON RANKINGS

After posting 21 wins last season and advancing to the WNIT second round, the Old Dominion Lady Monarchs were picked second in the 2015-16 Conference USA Preseason Poll, according to the league coaches. The Middle Tennessee Blue Raiders were selected as the Conference USA women's basketball preseason favorite to win the league's regular-season crown.

Preseason C-USA Coaches Poll

1. Middle Tennessee (5)
2. Old Dominion (4)
3. WKU (4)
4. Southern Miss
5. UTEP
6. Charlotte
7. UTSA (1)
8. UAB
9. Louisiana Tech
10. Marshall
11. Florida Atlantic
12. Rice
13. Middle Tennessee
14. North Texas

EARNING A PRESEASON SPOT

Last season's C-USA Newcomer of the Year, Jennie Simms, earned a spot on the preseason All-C-USA list and will lead Old Dominion, which placed second in the preseason poll with four first-place votes following its exciting run in the 2015 C-USA Championship. Simms emerged as one of the dominant guards in the league and led ODU in points (19.3 ppg) and rebounds (8.1) on top of first-team all-conference honors.

RECRUITING TRAIL

On Nov. 11, 2015 head coach Karen Barefoot announced the signing of three committed recruits for the 2016-17 season. Each prospect averaged a double-double in their junior season and earned a plethora of athletic honors throughout their careers. Manaya Jones, Tyasia Moore and Jessica Munoz all signed a National Letter of Intent, committing to the ODU program.

Manaya Jones: Jones hails from Memphis, Tenn. where she was a standout player at Raleigh-Egypt High School. The 6-4 power forward is tabbed in the Top-100 ESPNW rankings and recognized as a four-star prospect by ESPN. Jones was a Class AA All-State selection as a junior and highlighted her career with All-District MVP and All-Region MVP honors.

Tyasia Moore: Moore, the only guard in the bunch, filled the stat sheet with 16.8 points, 13.3 rebounds, 3.2 assists and 5.0 steals per game last season. She helped lead Forestville Military Academy to a State Championship, earning Tournament MVP honors along the way. Moore has excelled on the court throughout her career and was named MVP of her conference, along with earning First Team All-State and All-District honors.

Jessica Munoz: Munoz, a 6-1 forward from Nacogdoches, Texas, enters her senior campaign as the reigning District Most Valuable Player. She averaged 21 points and 12 rebounds per game as a junior and earned All-Region and First Team All-State laurels. Munoz helped lead her AAU team to two Adidas National AAU Championships and was most recently ranked 19th for the Class of 2016 by the Texas Premier Basketball Report.

MONARCHS AND THE WNBA

Former Old Dominion player Shae Kelley became the fourth Lady Monarch to win a WNBA title after claiming the crown with the Minnesota Lynx this past season. She joins Ticha Penicheiro, Hamchetou Maiga and Anne Donovan to hoist the trophy. Penicheiro and Maiga won the title in 2005 with the Sacramento Monarchs, while Donovan won as a coach in 2004 with the Seattle Storm.

NEW BASKETBALL PERFORMANCE CENTER

Construction on a new 24,000-square-foot basketball practice facility kicked off in late 2015. The $8,400,000 facility is set to include a two full-sized practice courts, a 14,000 square foot strength conditioning and training space, locker and shower rooms, team offices, conference rooms and players' lounges. The project is located in the medium-sized open field between the Ted Constant Convocation Center and the University Village. Clark-Nexsen Architecture & Engineering designed the project and the lowest bidder, P.G. Harris Construction Company will build it. The project is being funded by the ODU Athletic Foundation.

For more information about the construction on ODU's campus, browse the Mace & Crown's feature article: <http://www.maceandcrown.com/2016/01/17/looking-ahead-campus-construction-projects/>

BAREFOOT DONATION TO MITCHUM BASKETBALL CENTER

Barefoot made a generous $25,000 commitment to the Bernett and Blanche Mitchum Basketball Performance Center all in the name of Sara Jones, who made an incredible impact on Barefoot's life and the entire Lady Monarch family. Construction on the Center began on Dec. 11, 2015.

TEAM IMPACT'S SAGE BAKER

Sage Baker, part of Team Impact, joined the Lady Monarchs team this season. Sage was introduced to a contingent of ODU women's basketball fans at the exhibition against Davis & Elkins on Nov. 7, 2015. Baker was 6-months-old when she was diagnosed with acute leukemia of ambiguous lineage (also called biphenotypic leukemia), a rare form of cancer. She went through 6 months of chemotherapy and had a stem cell transplant in December of 2010. However, her liver began to fail in 2014 and she was put on the transplant list. In June of 2015 she underwent a liver transplant and is doing well, but requires frequent check-ups. She is now five-years-old and in remission. Sage truly epitomizes what it means to be a fighter and is an inspiration to her new teammates.

EDUCATION DAY

The Old Dominion Lady Monarchs defeated the Loyola Greyhounds in front of 8,472 fans at the Ted Constant Center. Students from 33 Norfolk Public Schools participated in Education Day, an annual tradition on the Lady Monarchs' schedule that was started by head coach Karen Barefoot. This year's game marked the second-consecutive sellout at the Ted Constant Center for the Old Dominion women's basketball team. The crowd of 8,472 is the seventh highest attendance ever in the state of Virginia to watch a regular season college women's basketball game. The attendance was also the second largest for a Lady Monarchs regular season game.

MEDIA GUIDE ONLINE

Media and fans wanting to read about this year's Lady Monarchs team can check out the 2015-16 Old Dominion women's basketball media guide at <http://bit.ly/1RRqe11>. KAREN BAREFOOT • HC

Fifth Season • 79-74 at ODU • 289-217 overall
Christopher Newport, 1995

In 17 years as a head coach, Karen Barefoot has compiled 14 winning seasons, nine national post-season tournament appearances and has won two National Coach of the Year awards. Barefoot begins her 18th season as a head coach and fifth as the fearless leader of the Lady Monarchs and will represent Conference USA on the national stage as the "Conference Captain" for the 2015-16 season.

Throughout Barefoot's coaching career, she has resurrected three different programs, which included creating postseason opportunities and reaching first ever championships, as well as elevating academic success. Each and every day on and off the court, Barefoot brings limitless energy, focus, dedication and motivation to the Old Dominion University women's basketball program, one that she is in the process of bringing back to national prominence.

Last year, Barefoot led the Lady Monarchs to a 21-13 overall record, which is the most wins during the Barefoot era at Old Dominion. As a program, ODU will enter the 2015-16 season just three wins shy of reaching 1,000 all-time victories. The Lady Monarchs went a perfect 4-0 against in-state competition, taking down UVA, Virginia Tech, VCU and William & Mary. The Lady Monarchs advanced to their conference semi-finals for the first time since the 2009-10 season. Coach Barefoot also led Old Dominion back to the WNIT, where the team advanced to the second round for the second consecutive year after taking down UVA of the ACC in the first round.

Jennie Simms was named the 2014-15 Conference USA Newcomer of the Year and garnered First Team All C-USA and All C-USA Tournament Team honors. On Jan. 29, Simms moved to second all-time in Lady Monarchs history for most points in a single game by scoring 45 in ODU's 80-67 victory at FIU. On Feb. 9, 2015, ODU picked up the program's first ever win at LA Tech in a 72-71 thrilling victory on national television. As a team in 2014-15, the Lady Monarchs led the C-USA in field-goal percentage defense (.377) and defensive rebounds per contest (29.0), while ranking second in the conference for rebounding margin (+3.1) and average attendance (2,623).

The fourth annual Education Day game on Dec. 3, 2014, marked the first ever sellout at the Ted Constant Center for the Old Dominion women's basketball team, a game that the Lady Monarchs cruised past Howard by a score of 75-54. The crowd of 8,472 is the seventh highest attendance ever in the state of Virginia to watch a regular season college women's basketball game. The attendance was also the second largest for a Lady Monarchs regular season game ever.

Shae Kelley, a former Barefoot recruit, was selected No. 35 overall in the 2015 WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx and helped lead the team to the 2015 WNBA Championship. Kelley played two seasons under Barefoot at ODU and became one of just five players in the school's illustrious history to surpass 1,000 points scored in a player's first two seasons at the school.

In 2013-14, Barefoot coached the Lady Monarchs to an 18-16 record including a trip to the second round of the WNIT. Barefoot led the squad to a first-round bye in the C-USA tournament in the school's first season within the conference and garnered her 250th career win in a thrilling overtime comeback victory over Marshall (2/1). Barefoot helped Shae Kelley land 2014 All-Conference USA First Team honors, as well as guided the Lady Monarchs to attaining a cumulative team GPA over 3.0 and had six players named to the C-USA Academic Honor Roll, including two Academic Medal recipients. Barefoot and company reeled in the No. 43 recruiting class in the nation, which was the highest-ranked class in Conference USA. Under her leadership.

In year two, Barefoot guided ODU to a 9-3 start in non-conference action which was the best start since the 1998-99 season for the Lady Monarchs. The team tallied 19 wins, an eight-win turnaround from the 2011-12 season, which was tied for 14th best nationally and earned a spot in the WNIT. Old Dominion finished in fourth place in the CAA and defeated eventual WNIT champion Drexel at home while compiling a 12-5 overall record at the Ted. Earning All-CAA Second Team honors was Shae Kelley, who was the only underclassmen to be named to any of the three teams. Jackie Cook became the 30th player in ODU history to score 1,000 points and was named All-CAA Third Team while Galaisha Goodhope earned a spot on the CAA All-Rookie Team. Barefoot also helped the Lady Monarchs succeed in the classroom as Mairi Buchan earned All-CAA Academic First Team honors, while Ashley Betz-White was honorable mention. Buchan also earned CoSIDA First-Team All-Academic for the second consecutive year.

Barefoot originally came to Old Dominion after serving as the head coach at Elon from 2008-2011. She helped Elon reach new heights in 2010-11, as the Phoenix finished the season with a 20-13 record - the program's best season at the Division I level and only the fifth team in program history to reach the 20-win plateau. The Phoenix 11 home victories marked the most home wins in a single season in the Division I era, while the team's postseason appearance in the Women's Basketball Invitational was the first since joining Division I.

Prior to coming to Elon, Barefoot was an assistant coach at Old Dominion, where the team compiled a 77-23 record, won three CAA Championships and was a perennial top-25 program. While at Lenoir-Rhyne, Barefoot captured the first South Atlantic Conference regular season title in school history in 2003-04 en route to claiming league Coach of the Year honors. Under her leadership, the team also grabbed the first SAC Tournament championship in school history in 2002-03 and its first-ever trip to the NCAA Division II National Tournament. In her first year at Lenoir-Rhyne, she led the program to its best record in 15 years, going 19-9 Barefoot coached Lenoir-Rhyne's first NCAA First Team All-American, South Atlantic Player of the Year and SAC Tournament Most Valuable Player in Crystal Clary.

A 1995 graduate of Christopher Newport University, Barefoot led the Captains to three NCAA tournaments, including a Sweet 16 run as a freshman. During her career, she posted a 73-34 overall record and 35-9 mark in conference play, leading the team to three regular season titles and a conference tournament trophy. Individually, she earned three Kodak/WBCA All-America honors and was a three-time All-Region selection. She also earned First Team All-Conference honors all four years and was named the leagues Player of the Year on two occasions. Barefoot holds the recognition of being the first player in NCAA history, male or female, to score over 2,000 points and accumulate 1,000 assists during her career. The standout guard posted 1,002 assists, leading the nation all four years. She was recognized as one of Christopher Newport University's 50th Anniversary Distinguished Alumni and was inducted in the CNU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1999.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT BAREFOOT

"ODU is back where it belongs, winning and playing the game at a high level. It's exciting to see what's happening with our program. Our player's passion is matched by Karen and her staff. So proud!"

- Nancy Lieberman (Lady Monarchs Alumni/Sacramento Kings Assistant Coach)

"ODU women's basketball has a history and tradition of academic commitment and athletic excellence. It's a joy to watch the 'Barefoot Bunch' embrace and continue that with such passion and tenacity."

- Jay Harris (ESPN Sportscaster)

"Coach Barefoot is one of the most inspiring coaches in the game of basketball today. She has an authentic teaching style that is fitting for today's ball player. She inspires and motivates like no one else."

- Gannon Baker (Nike Skills Development Trainer)

"Karen has proven herself to be a consummate leader both on and off the court. Karen has been able to grow fundraising at ODU in several directions. She has been instrumental in cultivating large donors not only for the women's basketball program, but also for broad-based University athletics needs such as the Bernett and Blanche Mitchum Basketball Performance Center. She has provided motivational speeches at scores of business settings where she has promoted ODU academically and athletically with outstanding success. Karen is the face of Old Dominion women's basketball and a major contributor to the ODU family."

- Judy Bowman (Assistant Vice President for Undergraduate Studies)
