A Look at the Owls

Rice enters Sunday's matchup with a 2-11 record and Conference USA's lowest percentage from the field. Only two players average double figures for an Owls team that shoots 35.2 percent overall. That group is led by Shani Rainey, who averages a team-high 11.1 ppg to go along with the lead in rebounds (6.6 rpg) and steals (16). Even with two wins, Rice is coming off an overtime victory over conference foe UTSA, and the Owls will be sure to present a challenge to the Mean Green on Sunday. These two squad's last faced off on Feb. 1 in what was ultimately a 58-55 overtime loss for NT from Rice's Tudor Fieldhouse.

The Series Matchup

Heading into the seventh all-time meeting, this series is tied 3-3. North Texas has won both meetings from Denton, but holds a 1-2 mark in games played in Houston. NT dropped the only meeting from a neutral court.

Last Time Out

NT battled relentlessly with a UTEP team that continues to receive votes in the national poll, but three solid quarters weren't enough to overcome costly fourth quarter turnovers and a 14-6 Miner run in the game's final frame. Teadra Jones finished with a career-high 19 points in the 75-67 loss that ultimately pushed North Texas to 6-6 (1-1 C-USA) on the season.

Defensive Mindset

Coach Mitchell came to Denton with a focus on defensive intensity and NT has found a way to improve an impressive D from a season ago. The Mean Green is giving up 60.2 points per game in 2015. That total would be the program's third-lowest average ever and is currently the fourth-best mark in C-USA.

Putting It Into Perspective

The 2015-16 campaign is starting to look a lot like a turnaround from a season ago. Before a loss to UTEP, the Mean Green had a +.500 record through 11 games for the first time since 2011-12, when the squad finished at 15-16 under head coach Karen Aston. Like this year's NT team, Aston's group was coming off a five-win season. NT's three-game win streak was also snapped in the team's last time out, but it was the first such streak for the team as members of C-USA. On top of that, this year's three non-conference wins on the road was also an NT best since Aston's squad had four in 2011-12.

From Deep

North Texas is having one of its most efficient seasons ever from long range. While the Mean Green have shot the fourth-lowest amount of threes in C-USA this year, the team's 58-for-169 (.343) mark from deep is good for fourth in the league (65th nationally). Individually, Kelsey Criner is ninth in C-USA for percentage from downtown (.444), while the team's 34.3 percent clip from behind the 3-point line would be the third-best mark for a single season in team history.

The Progression of TJ

Teadra Jones is coming off arguably the best game in her two-year career at North Texas. The senior's 19 points was a career high, and she also tied previous career bests in assists (3) and 3-pointers (2). Overall, she's shown continued growth from just a season ago.

Season	MPG	PPG	R/G	FG%	FT%
2014-15	12.6	2.8	1.1	.274	.516
2015-16	25.9	8.8	4.8	.344	.698

Transfer Triumph

Transfer junior Kelsey Criner hasn't taken long to turn heads. Against UTSA, she dropped 23 points, the most points scored by any NT player this year. One game prior to that output, Criner dropped a career-high 11 assists to become the first Mean Green player since Erika Bobo in the 2002-03 season to have at least 10 dimes. On the year, the Dallas native is leading NT in assists and steals on the season, all while coming in second for rebounds and points. The point guard has also shown the ability to be clutch, hitting last-minute go-ahead shots in three Mean Green wins this season.

Points	10.8	T-30th
Assists	4.7	3rd
Steals	2.3	5th
3-Point FG Percentage	.444	9th

A.-Tac'ing the Competition

Acheil Tac continues to be a key weapon for North Texas after a solid season last year. She has four double-doubles on the season and is averaging 10.1 points and 8.1 rebounds per game. On the year, the Garland native ranks among the conference's best in a number of categories.

Category	Avg.	C-USA Rank
Field Goal Percentage	.613	1st
Free Throw Percentage	.829	T-6th

Candi Cashing In

Junior Candice Adams is the team's top 3-point threat and rightfully so. In her third season, Adams is approaching NT's career top-10 list.

Terra's Time

Junior Terra Ellison has emerged as an offensive option on the Mean Green roster this season. After averaging only 5.5 points per game last year, the guard is chipping in 9.4 ppg for North Texas. Her 34.0 minutes per game is tops on the NT roster and sixth in C-USA.

NOTES (CONT'D)

Nail-Biter Central

NT's -1.0 scoring margin surely isn't one of Coach Mitchell's favorite stats, but it shows just how close each Mean Green game really is. Through 12 contests on the season, five games have been decided by five points or less, while all but one contest ended with a scoring margin of 10 points or less. Win or lose, you can count on a close one.

Added to the Mix

Coach Mitchell and staff added walk-on freshman Orianna Shillow to the roster on Nov. 21 against Texas State. Shillow was a first-team all-district pick for Stony Point High during her senior season while finishing second in team history for three-pointers made in a season (75). She saw her first action against Weber State, getting two minutes of playing time.

Full of Firsts

By the year's end, North Texas will have played three teams for the first time: Incarnate Word, Iona and IUPUI. A previously scheduled game against Oklahoma Panhandle State (Dec. 29) also would've been a first-time matchup, but that contest was called off due to weather-related travel concerns throughout the panhandle.

Roster Re-do

A new coaching staff meant a retooled Mean Green roster for the 2015-16 season. In fact, only seven letterwinners remain from a year ago. Among the first moves made by Mitchell & Co. was the addition of four transfer student-athletes that must sit out for the year due to NCAA regulations: Tyara Warren from West Virginia, Terriell Bradley from Kansas and Stabresa McDaniel from Minnesota. North Texas has also lost two players to injury.

Player	Reason for Absence
Tyara Warren	NCAA transfer regulations
Terriell Bradley	NCAA transfer regulations
Stabresa McDaniel	NCAA transfer regulations
Taylor Roof	Redshirt - Injury
Kiara Davis	Medical Hardship - Injury

Close Call Conference

Despite the team's 5-24 record last season, North Texas was able to consistently compete in a tough C-USA slate. In fact, four of the Mean Green's wins came in conference games, and the team lost seven C-USA games by 10 or less points. Of those four league wins a season ago, each one came within the confines of the Super Pit.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Media Policies

Media interviews conducted with North Texas players, coaches or supporting staff will take place in conjunction with practices and games. To arrange an interview, please contact T.C. Greene of the North Texas Sports Information office. North Texas Athletics supports the privacy of its student-athletes, and it will not give out any contact information.

2010-11	UNC-Wilmington	Asst. Coach
2011-12	North Texas	Asst. Coach
2012-15	Texas	Asst. Coach
2015-pres.	North Texas	Head Coach

PLAYING CAREER

- 2002 Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year
- Program's All-Time Leading Scorer (1,764 pts.)
- Part of a 2002 team that set a school record with 21 wins and went to back-to-back WNITs
- Only 4-time all-conference player in team history
- Her No. 44 is one of two jerseys retired at NT
- North Texas Hall-of-Fame inductee in 2007

For years, Jalie Mitchell has topped the record books at North Texas. Now, North Texas is at the top of her resume.

On April 9, 2015, Mitchell returned to her alma mater to become the eighth head coach in Mean Green women's basketball program history. It is her first-career head coaching position and a dream job for the best player in school history.

Mitchell boasts numerous records as a four-year letterwinner on the North Texas women's basketball team from 1999-02. She finished as the Mean Green's all-time leading scorer with 1,764 points and tops the list of career free throws made and attempted. In 2002, Mitchell was named Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year when she averaged 19.4 points per game.

She earned all-conference honors all four years at North Texas and was a part of the winningest senior class in program history, compiling a 77-39 record -- including a 42-4 mark at the Super Pit -- and making back-to-back WNIT appearances in 2001 and 2002.

Mitchell's No. 44 is one of two numbers that has been retired by the Mean Green, and her spectacular playing career culminated in 2007 when she was inducted into the North Texas Hall of Fame.

2015-16 CONFERENCE USA CHAMPIONSHIP

The 2016 Conference USA Basketball Championships returns to Birmingham, Ala. and for the first time will feature all 14 league members. The tournament is scheduled to run from Tuesday, March 8 to Saturday, March 12.

Games will be held at the Birmingham-Jefferson Civic Center and Bartow Arena on the campus of UAB. The Blazers will play host to the tournament for the second straight season.

DENTON - The North Texas women's basketball team fought back from a double digit deficit to take a fourth quarter lead but couldn't perform well enough down the stretch as San Francisco defeated the Mean Green on Friday, 69-61.

"We definitely did not play our best basketball tonight," head coach Jalie Mitchell said following her first regular season game on the Mean Green bench. "I think our mistakes are fixable and I'm encouraged by that fact. We have to capitalize on the opportunities we're given."

North Texas (0-1) went nearly five minutes without scoring a point in the first quarter, setting the team back 10 points from the onset. That deficit increased to 16 points before the Mean Green started to climb back into the game.

The Mean Green used six points from junior Terra Ellison and a perfect 4-of-4 mark at the free throw line to cut the Dons lead to eight, but it was the third quarter where the home team jumped on top.

Sparked by a trio of three-pointers from junior guard Candice Adams, the Mean Green took its first lead of the game with 1:09 to go in the third. She finished the night with a career-high four field goals from distance and tied the highest scoring output of her career with 16 points.

North Texas entered the fourth with a two point advantage, which unfortunately was the team's biggest lead of the day. A three-minute scoring drought in the final quarter put a stamp on the team's fate, and eight fouls in the period led to a barrage of made free throws for San Francisco.

NORMAN, Okla. - In the 1,096-game history of North Texas women's basketball, no squad had ever trumped a top-25 opponent. That is, until the Mean Green rolled into the Lloyd Noble Center on Monday night.

North Texas never trailed and seemed to have all the right answers for the No. 17 Oklahoma Sooners, as the team took a 61-57 win to earn the biggest upset victory in the program's history.

"It's hard to contain myself right here," an emotional Jalie Mitchell said moments after the win. "I'm so proud of our young ladies. They were extremely resilient tonight and gave me everything they had."

Defense, especially on the interior, was key in what turned out to be a low-scoring game from Norman, Oklahoma. From the onset, North Texas honed in on All-Big 12 Second Team selection Kaylon Williams. The 6-3 redshirt senior made only 20 percent of her shots on the night and her failed attempts early in the game allowed the Mean Green to get off to a seven-point lead before the Sooners put points on the board.

North Texas (1-1) kept its foot on the pedal throughout the game, but - as can happen with only nine bodies to play - Mean Green fouls started to take their toll.

Still holding onto a slim lead, North Texas found itself without each of its lengthy post players in the fourth quarter as Acheil Tac, Bria Frierson and Tosin Mabodu all took a seat on the bench with five fouls.

From there, it was up to a small North Texas lineup to close out the game against the height of a Big 12 opponent. Luckily for the Mean Green, junior Terra Ellison wasn't going anywhere. The Colony, Texas, native poured in 15 points on Monday night, leading the team and consistently responding to a Sooner offense that continued to creep its way back into the game.

But the defining moment of the contest came with only 30 seconds remaining in regulation, when junior Kelsey Criner shimmed her way through the lane to bank home a left-handed layup, breaking a 57-57 tie and giving the lead back to the Mean Green. She then added a quick steal and got herself to the free throw line, where she virtually sealed the upset by pushing the lead to four points with only three seconds to play.

"I couldn't have drawn up a better start or finish for our girls," Mitchell said of her group's fight. "It was a team effort, we needed all nine people and they gave us everything they had."

SAN MARCOS, Texas — Senior forward Acheil Tac recorded her first double-double of the season and senior guard Teadra Jones added a career-high 16 points, but North Texas fell in the closing seconds at Texas State on Saturday afternoon, 64-62.

Texas State (2-1) put together a 62-58 lead on a three-point play with 2:11 left. North Texas (1-2) battled back to tie the game at 62-62 after a key four-point swing with just over a minute left to play, which included a lay-up by junior guard Kelsey Criner and then an offensive rebound and put-back by Jones off a missed free throw.

But the Bobcats had one final answer, a drive and lay-up by Texas State guard Taeler Deer, who led all scorers with 32 points, with 5.4 seconds left that proved to be the game-winner for the Bobcats.

"I'm very disappointed in the game as a whole," head coach Jalie Mitchell said. "You saw a totally different team Monday night, so I'm disappointed in the way that we showed up and played for most of the game. I told them that the game does not reward you for just a few good minutes of play."

Led by Tac and Jones, all five starters for North Texas scored eight or more points in the contest. As a team, the Mean Green shot 59.5 percent (25-of-42) from the floor and 9-of-11 from the free-throw line. The team also won the rebounding battle, 32-18, but it was unable to make enough plays down the stretch to overcome 25 turnovers.

North Texas made each of its first six shots of the game on the way to a 14-8 lead, which included a 7-2 run to start the contest. Texas State tied the game at 14-14 with 2:03 left in the first quarter and then, after a 12-0 run, grabbed a 28-20 lead with 6:13 left in the second quarter. The Mean Green pulled to within four at 30-26 with 2:26 left after a pair of free throws by Jones, but they went into halftime trailing 36-28.

Similar to the first half, North Texas started the second half strong, using a 10-2 run to tie the game at 38-38 with 5:26 left in the third quarter. Texas State pushed its lead back to 46-40 with 2:38 left, before Tac scored the last four points of the third quarter to help spur a late push for North Texas. Sparked by Tac's final four points of the third quarter, North Texas went on a 12-0 run to take a 56-49 lead with 6:51 left in the game and led as late as the 3:16 mark of the fourth quarter, but it was Texas State that made enough plays to close out the win.

DENTON — Three players scored in double figures, but North Texas was unable to close out what would have been the first home win of Jalie Mitchell's coaching career and the second win over a Power 5 opponent in as many opportunities this season.

Arizona held North Texas to a season-low scoring output and outlasted the Mean Green by a score of 49-44 on Friday afternoon at the Super Pit. Defensively, Arizona limited North Texas to 38 percent shooting and forced 26 North Texas turnovers, a season-high for the Mean Green. The Wildcats also turned that defense into offense, scoring 24 points off the North Texas miscues.

"A couple of things stand out, looking at the stat sheet," Mitchell said. "Our turnovers hurt us a lot today. It was the same story for us last game as well. We have to learn how to take care of the ball better because you miss out on some opportunities to score and put points on the board when you don't take care of the ball. And then free throws. We had 16 opportunities and only took advantage of seven. That's huge. You miss nine and lose by seven."

For North Texas (1-3), junior guard Candice Adams led the way with 12 points, followed by fellow junior guards Terra Ellison and Kelsey Criner who finished with 11 points and 10 points, respectively. Senior forward Acheil Tac also finished two points shy of her second double-double of the season, scoring eight points and grabbing 12 rebounds in the contest.

Sparked by back-to-back 3-pointers by Adams to start the game, North Texas took a 13-5 lead into the media timeout of the first quarter with 4:39 left. The Mean Green led for 27:17 of the game and did not trail until the 9:29 mark in the fourth quarter.

Arizona (4-1) chipped away at the North Texas lead in the second and third quarters, after trailing 18-11 heading to the second frame. In a third quarter that featured a combined 12 points, 5-of-18 shooting and 15 turnovers, Arizona battled back to tie the game at 28-28 with 6:55 left, and the teams went to the fourth quarter tied at 32-32.

The Wildcats then grabbed their first lead of the game, a 34-32 advantage, as part of a 10-0 run on a layup by junior forward Breanna Workman with 9:29 left in the game.

Arizona took its largest lead of the game, 43-35, with 3:38 left after a 5-0 run, all the points courtesy of Workman, who finished with 13 points. North Texas pulled to within four at 47-43 with 1:15 left on a banked-in 3-pointer by senior guard Kasiney Williams, but that was as close as the Mean Green would get the rest of the way.

DENTON - North Texas controlled 34 minutes of Tuesday night's game against Metroplex rival SMU at the Super Pit. But getting first-year head coach Jalie Mitchell her first home victory was not going to be that easy.

The Mean Green women, up by as many as 14 points in the second half, saw their lead wiped out by a frantic SMU rally that put the Mustangs on top, 55-53, with 3:16 to play, forcing a Mean Green timeout.

"I told them we were playing not to lose instead of playing to win," Mitchell said. "We had to do what got us that lead. I think they got themselves pumped up after that, and figured it out. This team has been working on overcoming adversity, on taking a punch and being able to punch right back."

Coming out of the timeout, North Texas stung the Mustangs with a flurry of blows that turned the momentum in the Mean Green's favor. A clutch 12-foot jumper by Candice Adams stopped the bleeding and tied the game, a dagger of a three-point field goal by Kelsey Criner at the end of the shot clock put North Texas back on top, and two free throws by Terra Ellison with 12.7 seconds left iced an emotional 60-57 North Texas win.

And throughout those final three minutes, the Mean Green defense, which had played so well in building the original lead, held the Mustangs scoreless until 1.3 seconds play and forced three turnovers. For the game, NT allowed SMU to make just 38.6 percent of its field-goal attempts and harried the Mustangs into 19 turnovers.

The victory lifts NT to 2-3 on the year and snaps a four-game losing streak against SMU (3-3).

"I love that," Mitchell said of besting the Mustangs. "I have to admit."

Criner, the junior guard from Dallas by way of New Mexico Junior College, led all scorers with 17 points and added a team-high eight rebounds.

"I like our team with the ball in Kelsey's hands," Mitchell said. "She makes really great decisions, and she's tough to guard."

Adams had 12 points, Bria Frierson had 10 and Ellison had nine. Frierson also had a big game defensively, limiting SMU's 6-5 post Stephanie Collins to 10 points, her second lowest output of the season.

DENTON - The North Texas women have been working on dealing with adversity this year, but they also need to work on handling success.

For the second time this year, the Mean Green followed up a big win with a disappointing loss. On the heels of Tuesday's victory over SMU, North Texas turned in its worst outing of the season Friday night in a 45-38 loss to Weber State in the first night of the Hospitality Hill Challenge at the Super Pit.

In a drought that would turn a rain forest into a desert, the North Texas offense plunged to season lows in scoring and field-goal percentage which, combined with 24 turnovers, turned a nine-point first quarter lead into a 15-point fourth-quarter deficit. The Mean Green made just 34.1 percent of its field-goal attempts and scored just 11 points combined in the second and third periods.

North Texas rallied in the fourth, getting big stops from its defense, including forcing three shot-clock violations, to close within three with 2:23 to play, but the offensive woes and turnovers continued and would not allow the Mean Green to complete the rally. The loss drops NT to 2-4 on the year.

"I'm extremely disappointed," North Texas coach Jalie Mitchell said. "We gave that team 10 minutes of North Texas basketball, all in the fourth quarter. That's not enough. I had one starter show up to play today."

That was Acheil Tac, who was limited by foul trouble Tuesday to two points and one rebound. She bounced back with a double-double Friday, topping her Tuesday totals by the first timeout Friday and finished with 13 points and 10 rebounds.

In a ragged, mistake-filled, low-scoring first half, Tac's nine points North Texas took a 13-4 lead in the first quarter. But that was the high-water mark for North Texas for the next two quarters. Despite scoring just four points in the second quarter, matching a season low, NT kept the lead to intermission, holding Weber State to 15.8 percent shooting, making three field goals in 19 attempts.

However, Weber State (5-1) heated up in the third quarter, opening the second half with a 12-0 run. From the end of the first quarter until the Wildcats opened their 14-point advantage at 39-24, Weber State out-scored North Texas 35-12.

DENTON -- North Texas trailed by as many as 20, but the Mean Green rode a second-half surge to a thrilling 68-67 win over IUPUI on Saturday afternoon at the Super Pit. North Texas (3-4) led for just 43 seconds, taking their only lead of the game on a corner 3-pointer by junior guard Kelsey Criner.

"We had a group that made a decision that the way we had been playing is not who we were going to be," head coach Jalie Mitchell said. "Offensively, we got extremely aggressive, which we hadn't been for the third quarters, and it changed the game. It also gave us some confidence in that we saw that they couldn't guard the things that we were running as long as we executed and stayed in attack mode."

Junior guard Candice Adams led the way with a game-high 18 points on 8-of-16 shooting, including a game-tying 3-pointer with 1:56 left in the game. Senior forward Acheil Tac added 12 points and eight rebounds, while Criner finished with 10 points, none bigger than her go-ahead 3-pointer, which proved to be the difference in the game.

North Texas shot 50 percent (30-of-60) from the floor and 6-of-11 from 3-point range. In the second half, when the Mean Green outscored IUPUI (6-2) by a score of 42-26, they shot 58.1 percent (18-of-31) from the floor and a perfect 5-of-5 from 3-point range. They also committed a season-low 11 turnovers for the game.

IUPUI led wire to wire in the first half, taking a 41-26 lead into halftime, tied for its largest lead of the half. The Jaguars shot 48 percent (16-of-33) from the floor, including 5-of-15 from 3-point range, and committed just three turnovers in the half. North Texas outscored IUPUI 18-16 in the third quarter to head to the fourth quarter trailing 57-44. The stretch included a 7-0 run late in the quarter that erased a 20-point IUPUI lead, their largest of the game.

The Mean Green carried that momentum into the fourth quarter, becoming more aggressive on offense and storming back to make it a 63-62 game with 2:42 left after an offensive rebound and put-back by junior guard Terra Ellison.

North Texas completed the comeback, first tying the game at 65-65 before taking a 68-67 lead in the final minutes of the contest, behind big scoring plays from Adams and Criner. Down by a point, IUPUI had two looks at the basket in the final minute, including a lay-up in the closing seconds that rimmed out, but North Texas held on for the win.

"To come back from down 20, you have to have something about you," Mitchell said. "There was a lot of excitement on the bench, so I thought that everybody played a part in that comeback victory."

NEW ROCHELLE, New York — Sunday afternoon's game against Iona was supposed to be the second win of a streak that North Texas women's basketball hoped would lead into conference play. Instead, a lackluster first half put the Mean Green in a hole it couldn't dig itself out of in a 62-51 loss to the Gaels.

North Texas made just four shots in the game's first 20 minutes to score a season-low 14 points. Sadly, that point total nearly matched the team's shooting percentage for the half - 14.8 percent. By halftime, the Mean Green found themselves down by 22 points - their largest deficit of the season - before a second half surge made things interesting.

As has been the case on many occasions early in the season, North Texas came out strong at both ends of the court in the third quarter, outscoring the Gaels 21-5 and forcing 11 turnovers to get the team back in it. That resurgence was due in large part to junior guard Kelsey Criner, who had 16 of her career- and team-high 19 points in the second half.

Early in the fourth, a Criner steal-turned-layup cut the Iona lead to only four points, 41-37, before an 8-0 run for the Gaels gave them the space they needed to get away with the win.

Rebounding played a large role in Iona's ability to develop and sustain a lead. Led by senior Joy Adams's 19 rebounds, the Gaels outnumbered the Mean Green 49-40 on the glass, including 20 offensive rebounds that contributed to 15 second-chance points.

North Texas was able to contain Iona's leading scorer, guard Marina Lizarazu, to only two points in the contest, but her limited output was compensated by a dominant 31-2 advantage in bench points. Most of those came from freshman Alexis Lewis who led the Gaels with 22 points, including a perfect 4-of-4 mark from three-point range.

In addition to Criner's strong play, North Texas got a solid effort out of senior guard Teadra Jones. She was perhaps the team's most consistent performer from start to finish, as she ended the day with 13 points and six boards. Additionally, sophomore Bria Frierson finished a point away from her first career double-double with nine points and 12 rebounds.

Still, head coach Jalie Mitchell knows that she needs more from her team, and she shared that message after Sunday's loss.

"Honestly, I told the team that we need to care more," the first-year playcaller said. "We've only got 10 players and we need everybody to show up, play and give effort. When we have one, two or three that aren't doing that, it affects us. That much is obvious."

PHILADELPHIA — After falling flat three days ago, the Mean Green women's basketball team needed a big output from its offense in a matchup against La Salle. That's exactly what North Texas head coach Jalie Mitchell got, as the team put together its best scoring output of the season en route to a 69-63 win on Wednesday evening.

Acheil Tac had 21 points and 11 rebounds to earn her third double-double of the year, leading a North Texas team that had three players in double digits. Tac's strong performance was especially crucial after failing to muster even a point in Sunday's loss at Iona.

"I thought [Acheil] was focused and ready to make a difference today," Mitchell said. "I don't think she was happy with her last outing at all. She had a point to prove and did that tonight."

Tac may have been the headline, but the Garland, Texas, native wasn't the only Mean Green player that came to play. Juniors Terra Ellison and Teadra Jones each closed in on double-doubles of their own; Ellison finished the game with 11 points and eight rebounds while Jones dropped 16 points to go along with nine boards.

North Texas shot only 37 percent on the day but gave itself plenty of opportunities for baskets thanks to a strong effort on the glass. The Mean Green dominated the game in the rebounding category, ultimately outnumbering the Explorers 50-27 on the boards.

Despite a dominant offensive display, the win wasn't decided until the final moments of Wednesday's matchup. North Texas went 17-of-17 from the charity stripe in the final 13:47 of play, ultimately deciding a game that was separated by only six points. Six of those free throws came in the last 1:05 of regulation, as a slim 63-61 lead for the Mean Green grew thanks to six made free throws in those final 65 seconds.

Like usual, starting juniors Kelsey Criner and Candice Adams found a way to make their mark on the game. Criner had a career-best 10 rebounds - all in the first half - and added six points, six assists and two steals on the day. Adams was hampered by foul trouble for the duration of Wednesday's game, but the guard still found a way to knock down pivotal three-pointers in what turned out to be a close game.

North Texas now revisits the idea of stringing wins together for the first time this year. With two contests to go until conference play begins on New Year's Day, the Mean Green skipper is looking forward to the chance that lies ahead.

"We still haven't gotten the back-to-back win thing down, but we've got another opportunity," Mitchell said. "We'll be on the road so we've got to bring the same hustle, energy and rebounding. We've got to bring it."

SAN ANTONIO — For three quarters the North Texas women's basketball team seemed out of place on the court of the McDermott Convocation Center, but - down by 11 points with less than 10 minutes remaining - the Mean Green orchestrated another fourth quarter rally to take a 62-55 win over Incarnate Word on Monday afternoon.

North Texas (5-5) outscored the Cardinals 27-12 in the final frame to clinch a victory after what had been three quarters of disorganized basketball from both squads, picking up the team's fifth win of the season and matching the program's overall win total from a season ago.

"Our team wanted this win but we didn't look hungry enough or motivated enough to go get it," head coach Jalie Mitchell said on her message to the team during gametime. "It's about backing up what you say. I told them that we couldn't let what was happening offensively dictate what we did defensively. The D still had to be solid so that the defense could turn into offense."

Mitchell's troops must have been listening because a stifling Mean Green defense came out to start the final quarter. North Texas turned five UIW turnovers into six points in the fourth frame alone as guard Kelsey Criner led the way for what quickly became a pesky defensive unit. The junior had two steals and six assists in the final 10 minutes of action before finishing the day with nine points, 11 dimes and three steals.

Senior Acheil Tac and junior Candice Adams were the players at the receiving end of many of those precise passes, and each came through for the visiting team in the game's clutch moments. The starting duo cashed in for nine points each in the fourth frame, giving North Texas the space it needed to close out the win.

UIW (3-8) led for almost 25 minutes of the game thanks to a zone defensive scheme that had North Texas on their heels. The Mean Green shot only 31.1 percent in the first three quarters while turning the ball over 13 times. By the game's finale, the Mean Green had connected on 40.7 percent of its shots.

Now with a .500 record through 10 games for the first time since the 2013-14 season, Mitchell made it known that there is still work to be done.

"We're not where we wanted to be but I'm okay with where we are," the first-year coach said. "Our team is taking strides. As long as we move forward, I'm good with that. We're looking forward to doing more."

DENTON -- The North Texas women's basketball team started the New Year by opening Conference USA play with a strong offensive performance. The Mean Green defeated UTSA, 68-58, on Friday afternoon in the Super Pit.

The win improved the Mean Green's overall record to 6-5, its first winning record in over two years. The victory was the first conference win for head coach Jalie Mitchell. She improves her overall career coaching record to 6-5.

"I think the big start was huge for our team," said Mitchell. "If you can start and finish well, you can win a game. This was probably our most consistent game."

North Texas used 60 percent shooting in the first period to build a lead that it extended to double-digits in the second quarter. UTSA went on a run at the start of the fourth quarter, but the Mean Green was able to withstand the storm with its big lead.

Kelsey Criner had a career day with a personal-best 23 points. The junior transfer was a force right from the start of the game. In the opening five minutes, she scored six points, recorded two steals and dished out an assist. With her first 3-pointer of the game, she gave North Texas a 27-12 advantage with 6:11 left in the second quarter. The 3-pointer gave her 12 points, the same number of points as the entire UTSA team.

The Mean Green made six of its first eight shots, jumping out to 13-8 lead and the home team did not look back. North Texas continued its hot hand in the second quarter, starting the period with an 11-0 run. UTSA was held to just six points in the second quarter.

Down 20 points at the start of the fourth quarter, UTSA cut into the lead with a 12-3 run to start off the final period. Candice Adams fueled the Mean Green offense, scoring six straight points for the Mean Green to keep NT ahead by double-digits. UTSA cut the advantage down to 10 points with 30 second left on the clock, but the Roadrunners ran out of time.

"We definitely had to keep doing the things that gave us the lead in the first place," said Mitchell. "Give UTSA credit for continuing to fight."

DENTON -- The Mean Green women's basketball team was not intimidated by UTEP, one of Conference USA's hottest teams. North Texas went toe-to-toe with the Miners but came up just short in the final minutes in a 75-67 loss on Sunday afternoon at the Super Pit.

North Texas held multiple leads in the third and fourth quarters but costly turnovers and a 14-6 run by the Miners in the final four minutes proved to be the difference. Starr Breedlove was a thorn in the Mean Green's side, scoring a game-high 25 points.

The pivotal point of the game came after Candice Adams gave North Texas its final lead, 61-60, with 3:55 left on the clock. Breedlove forced a turnover and then completed a 3-point play following a foul by Adams. Another layup by Breedlove put the Miners ahead by four points, 65-61, and the Mean Green did not have enough time to recover.

The Mean Green offense was led by Teadra Jones and Bria Frierson who both posted career highs. Jones recorded 19 points, including two 3-pointers, and Frierson recorded 13 points on 4-of-5 shooting from the field.

UTEP had a fast start, hitting its first four baskets to jump out to 15-7 lead. That start and turnovers by the Mean Green had the home team playing catch up for most of the first two periods.

North Texas, however, would not let UTEP take a large lead. The Miners held a double-digit lead three times in the second quarter, but North Texas always had an answer. Breedlove hit back-to-back layups at the start of the second period to put UTEP ahead, 25-14, and North Texas responded with a layup and 3-pointer cut the advantage to six points, 25-19 at 7:50.

North Texas opened the third period with an 11-2 run to take a five-point lead, 46-41. Jones and Kelsey Criner each had four points in the run, and Frierson had three.

A 14-5 run by UTEP gave the Miners back the lead but North Texas stayed within four points of the lead for the rest of the game.

North Texas held brief leads midway in the fourth quarter. A basket by Jones put North Texas ahead by one point, 59-58, at 5:03. Following a UTEP basket, Adams put North Texas back ahead for the final time with a short jumper, 61-60, with 3:55 on the clock.
