Owls Set to Host Mean Green on American Sports Network

The Rice Owls women's basketball team will be looking for their second straight C-USA victory when they host the North Texas Mean Green on Sunday at 2 p.m., which will be televised on the American Sports Network. Both teams will be playing their first game in seven days. The all-time series between the two schools is tied (3-3) with the two squads splitting last year's matchup.

Last Time Out

Rice secured their first C-USA victory of the season in dramatic fashion last Sunday afternoon, defeating the UTSA Roadrunners 49-48 in overtime at Tudor Fieldhouse. Junior guard Maya Hawkins hit the game-tying jumper with 24 seconds left in the extra period and the Owls then secured a defensive rebound and were fouled with one second remaining. Sophomore guard Wendy Knight proceeded to make the game-winning free throw to give the Owls their first home victory of the year. Hawkins led the Owls in scoring with 12 points, followed by 11 points from Knight.

North Texas Scouting Report

The Mean Green is off to a 1-1 start in C-USA play and is coming off a 75-67 home setback to UTEP last Sunday. North Texas has three players averaging double-figure points, led by 11.2 points from junior guard Candice Adams. Junior guard Kelsey Criner and senior forward Acheil Tac average 10.8 and 10.1 points, respectively. Much like the Owls, North Texas is a low-scoring team (59.2) that limits its opponents to just 60.2 points per contest. The Mean Green is led by first-year head coach Jalie Mitchell, who returned to her alma mater to become the eighth head coach in North Texas history.

Stingy Defense

Over the past six games the Owls are surrendering just 56.5 points per game, while limiting their opponents to 38 percent shooting (30 percent from beyond the arc). During the same span the Owls are outrebounding the opposing team 40.2-36.2 and forcing 15 turnovers per game.

Hawkins Dialing Long Distance

Rice junior Maya Hawkins ranks ninth in C-USA with her 1.8 three-point makes per game. The Mansfield, Texas native has made at least one three-pointer in all but two games this season. Hawkins has also dished out 3 or more assists in eight games this year.

What's Next

Rice begins a stretch where they play five of their next seven games on the road with a trip to WKU on Thursday, Jan. 14. The Owls next home game will be Jan. 21 vs. UAB.

Langley Announces Signing of Two Future Owls

Rice women's basketball head coach Tina Langley announced the signing of two student-athletes to National Letters of Intent on Nov. 11. Tayler Bennett (Long Beach, Calif./St. Anthony High School) and Kendall Ellig (Argyle, Texas/Liberty Christian School) are set to enroll in school and join the Owls in 2016-17.

"We are very excited to welcome Tayler Bennett and Kendall Ellig to Rice University and our basketball program," Rice head coach Tina Langley said. "Tayler and Kendall are exceptional student-athletes. They are from wonderful families that have instilled the character and work ethic necessary to be successful at the highest level."

"Tayler and Kendall are winners on and off the court. They both come from power high school and AAU programs, and understand what it takes to win championships. From a basketball standpoint, both are very skilled scorers that have the ability to play multiple positions, which is important for the style of play we intend to implement."

Bennett averaged 13.4 points per game as a junior for head coach James Anderson at St. Anthony HS in Long Beach, Calif. A two-time All-Santa Cruz League selection, Bennett was named to the All-State Team in 2014-15 and was also the Santa Cruz League MVP.

Last year Bennett also earned All-Del Rey League honors and is a two-time Press Telegram Dream Team selection. In 2014-15, Bennett was named to the Second Team All CIF and was a CIF Southern Section Champion for Character Award honoree. Bennett also played for the nationally respected Nike sponsored Cal Sparks AAU program and head coach Elbert Kennebrew.

Ellig is coming off a stellar 2014-15 campaign under head coach Ken Burroughs at Liberty Christian School leading the Warriors to a 39-2 record and a State Championship (TAPPS 6A-1). During her junior season, Ellig averaged 13.0 points per game and 9.5 rebounds per game. Ellig was an All-State and All-District selection in 2015 and has been a standout in jumps (triple jump, long jump, high jump) in track and field, winning the individual state title in the triple jump last season.

Lang Nominated for WBCA Good Works Team

Rice senior forward Alyssa Lang has been nominated for the Allstate WBCA Good Works Team, the Women's Basketball Coaches Association and Allstate Insurance Agency announced Wednesday. In its fourth year, the Allstate WBCA and NABC Good Works Teams® recognize players at all levels of college basketball who have made outstanding contributions in the areas of volunteerism and civic involvement. Lang is an active leader in FCA, volunteers at the Nehemiah Center, and also spends time at the Texas Children's Hospital interacting with children.

New Faces All Around

In addition to the new coaching staff, the Rice roster also features five new faces, including four true freshmen (Lexie Ducat, Lauren Grigsby, Gabrielle Stanton, Jazz Taylor). Arizona St. transfer Nicole Iademarco (redshirt freshman) is another new addition and will sit out the 2015-16 campaign. In total, the roster is comprised of eight underclassmen.

Tina Langley

Head Coach (First Season at Rice)

Tina Langley, who helped develop Maryland into a Final Four program over the past seven seasons, was named the fifth head coach in Rice University women's basketball history, director of athletics Joe Karlgaard announced on April 7, 2015.

"Tina Langley is a winner," Karlgaard said. "She's an enthusiastic, demanding, and caring coach who develops young women into great players, students, and citizens. I'm ecstatic that she's agreed to lead our women's basketball program."

Langley spent the last seven seasons serving as Maryland's associate head coach, compiling a 195-49 record during that time. The Terrapins are coming off a 2014-15 campaign in which Langley helped guide the team to their second consecutive Final Four appearance and a 34-3 record, climbing as high No. 3 in the USA Today Coaches Poll.

"First and foremost I would like to thank President David Leebron, Dr. Joe Karlgaard, and Stacy Mosely for giving me this opportunity," Langley said. "Throughout the interview process, it was clear to me that this administration is passionate about helping the women's basketball program succeed at the highest level. I am also grateful to Coach Mike Rhoades for making time to share his vision for Rice basketball. I am excited for what the future holds at Rice."

Maryland went 18-0 in league play in their first year in the Big Ten to win the regular season title and followed with a conference tournament title. The Terrapins set a school record by winning 28-straight games and the 34 overall victories tied for the most in school history.

As head coach Brenda Frese's top assistant, Langley's responsibilities included coordinating the Terps' recruiting efforts, assisting in player development, scouting, and on-court coaching.

"This is a terrific move by Rice," Frese said. "Tina is a star in this business. I know from firsthand experience that Tina will bring a work ethic and passion that is second to none. During Tina's time at Maryland we won championships, made Final Fours and helped a lot of players achieve their dreams athletically, socially and academically. She made a huge impact on our program. I can't thank her enough for what she has meant to our team and personally to our family."

In 17 years on the sidelines, Langley has coached 34 All-Conference players, led her teams to 11 postseason appearances (11 conference championships in Big Ten, ACC and MAC), and has developed 14 professional players, including six WNBA draft picks. She's helped to bring in nine ranked recruiting classes among her stops and three have been ranked as top-10 classes.

Prior to arriving in College Park in 2008, Langley served as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at both Georgia (2005) and Clemson (2003-05).

While at Clemson, Langley worked under legendary head coach Jim Davis. In her two years with the Tigers, the team advanced to the 2004 Women's Basketball Invitational (WNIT) while also orchestrating a Clemson-record six-signee class, which was ranked in the top 30 nationally in her first season.

Langley spent five seasons at the University of Toledo (1998-03). She began her coaching career with the Rockets as a graduate assistant coach in 1998-99, before moving up to recruiting coordinator and then associate head coach during the 2002-03 campaign. She helped the Rockets reach the postseason three times, including two NCAA Tournament appearances. During her tenure, Toledo also won three Mid-American Conference regular season titles (1999, 2001 and 2003) and two conference tournament crowns (1999 and 2001).

Langley played basketball and volleyball collegiately for two seasons at Belvill State Junior College before transferring to the University of West Alabama, where she lettered twice in basketball. She graduated from UWA with a degree in special education in 1996, and earned her first master's degree in Recreation and Leisure with an emphasis in recreation administration from the University of Toledo. Langley would later earn a master of arts in community counseling at the University of Alabama in 2008.

"Rice University has a rich tradition of excellence in the classroom and in athletics," Langley said. "There are only a handful of universities that afford student-athletes the opportunity to excel in both areas at the national level. That is what makes Rice such a special place. I feel fortunate that I can walk into the home of a high school student and promise her and her parents that their academic goals will be valued every bit as much as their basketball goals, and that both can be achieved at the highest level at Rice."
