LAST TIME OUT

- The Bobcats opened up the home season last Sunday and pulled away with a 52-44 victory over St. Edward's. The 'Cats turned a 14-point deficit through three quarters into an eight-point win with a 28-6 run in the final 10 minutes of play.
- Back-to-back made three pointers by Kaitlin Walla with just under eight minutes to play provided the spark and cut the Hilltopper's double-digit lead to four, putting Texas State right back in the ball game.
- A pair of lay-ups by Taeler Deer as well as one from Ayriel Anderson would be the combination needed to tie up the game and continue to push the momentum in favor of the Bobcats.
- Anderson's lay-up sparked additional momentum for the 'Cats as just seconds earlier she earned her third takeaway of the game in the Bobcat's offensive court.
- Deer (11) and Walla (10) each finished the game with double-digit points for the first time in the 2015-16 season and Ericka May led all Bobcats with nine rebounds.
- Whitney Apari had a day for the 'Cats as she recorded eight points and eight rebounds, both marking career-highs.

REFLECTING ON LAST YEAR

- Texas State returns to action in 2015-16 after its second consecutive trip to the Women's Basketball Invitational, marking the first time in school history the squad has made the postseason in back-to-back seasons.
- The Bobcats finished the regular season with a 16-13 overall record and earned its second tournament win in the Sun Belt Conference, this time against UT Arlington, before falling to Little Rock in the semifinal game.

STRAHAN COLISEUM

Press row for Texas State basketball games is located on the south side concourse level on the baseline. The media entrance to the arena is from the southeast corner of the Coliseum, and the southeast entrance is also used for Will Call pick up of credentials. Parking is located just off the southeast corner of the Coliseum for media with proper credentials.

MEDIA AND PHOTO CREDENTIALS

Credentials for Texas State home basketball games are issued for working media only and must be requested through the sports information office, preferably in advance. Only photographers on assignment from an accredited media agency will be issued credentials. Photographers are required to abide by the guidelines set forth by the NCAA on shooting limitations from the sidelines. Those not complying with the guidelines may be removed.

MEDIA SERVICES

Pregame packets including notes, statistics and gameday programs will be available prior to tip-off. Timeout, halftime, and final statistics, plus a running play-by-play and post game notes will be provided. Final statistics will be distributed via email following the conclusions of the game. To be added to the post game distribution list, call Jen Lawson in the Sports Information office at 512-245-2988.

INTERVIEWS

Immediately after home games, Texas State head coach Zenarae Antoine will conduct a post-game interview with the official broadcast station of Texas State Athletics.

Coach Zenarae Antoine and selected players will then go to the media room to be interviewed by the press after a brief cooling off period. Texas State's locker room will remain closed at all times. Requests for selected players must be submitted to the media relations state by the one-minute mark, with the exception of games being decided in the final minute.

All other interviews with basketball players or staff members must be arranged through Jen Lawson with at least 24 hours notice. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

TELEPHONES/INTERNET

Strahan Coliseum is equipped with wireless internet services. There will be one courtesy line available for visiting team's "official" broadcast station, on the concourse level above the team benches. Stations and writers wishing to have another line installed should make arrangements through Texas State Telcom Services at 512-245-4822.

TXST, NOT 'TSU'

In editorial references to Texas State athletics, media outlets are asked to refrain from the use of the 'TSU' acronym. Print and broadcast outlets are asked to use 'Texas State' and 'Bobcats'. For those using acronyms, please use 'TXST'.

• In conference play last season, the Bobcats turned in an 11-9 record with their most significant win of the season coming against Arkansas State on Senior Day at Strahan Coliseum. Texas State stormed out of the gates against the Red Wolves by outscoring them 42-26 in the first half.

• Despite A-State producing more offense in the second half, Texas State held on to its lead to give head coach Zenarae Antoine her first victory over the Red Wolves.

A LOOK AT THE COMPETITION - NORTH TEXAS

• North Texas, a member of Conference USA, enters the Saturday match-up with a 1-1 record including a victory on the road at No. 17 Oklahoma. The Mean Green had never, in the 1,096 game history of the program, defeated OU by a score of 61-57.

• Four players for the Mean Green finished the night in double figured in Teadra Jones (11 points), Acheil Tac (12 points), Kelsey Criner (10 points), and Terra Ellison (15 points).

• North Texas's non-conference schedule, in addition to the Oklahoma contest, features a home game against Arizona and SMU. Weber State also goes to The Super Pit along with IUPUI. The Mean Green were picked to finish 14th in Conference USA.

• The Mean Green are under the direction of Jalie Mitchell who has been coined the best player in North Texas history. She was named the head coach on April 9, 2015.

THE LAST TIME OUT

• The last time that the Bobcats and the Mean Green played against each other it was back in 2012. Texas State defeated North Texas by a score of 88-83.

• All-time against the Mean Green, Texas State possesses a 20-11 advantage.

NEW FACES, NEW LOOKS

• There are many new faces on the Texas State women's basketball team, both on the bench in terms of coaching staff as well as players.

• The Bobcats welcome several new faces on their coaching staff, including the return of coach Chandra Dorsey. Dorsey spent the first three years of Coach Z's tenure at Texas State as an assistant coach before a one-year stint at Wichita State. She returns to San Marcos as the associate head coach.

• Assistant coaches Laura Terry and Addie Lees are also new to the program. Terry comes from Weber State where she spent a year as an assistant and Lees becomes a Bobcat after being the head coach of Clarendon College last year.

• Texas State brings to the table four freshman this season in Toshua Leavitt, Devin Gray, Kiani Lurry, and De'Jionae Calloway.

• Toshua Leavitt, a freshman from Nixa, Mo., set a school record for threes in a season as well as threes in her career. She scored a career-high 51 points as a senior.

• Devin Gray, another three-point shooter who comes from Wellington, Fla., set a school record with nine made three's in a game at Oxbridge Academy.

• De'Jionae Calloway was named to the MBCA Class 5 Girls All-State team as a senior. She averaged 13.1 points and 7.8 rebounds that year.

• Kiani Lurry, a freshman from Miami, Fla., was named First-Team All-County by the Miami Herald in 2013 and 2015.

• Transfer McKinley Bostad, who played her freshman campaign at Arkansas, will have to sit out this season due to the NCAA transfer rules. Bostad was named SEC Freshman of the Week while at Arkansas.

• Another transfer, Amber Jones, is expected to make some noise in her junior season as she came to Texas State after earning back-to-back All-Conference honors at Florida State College at Jacksonville.

LOOKING AT THE RETURNERS

• This season, the Bobcats are going to have to figure out how to work without Second-Team All-Sun Belt Conference selection in Erin Peoples, as Peoples will sit out due to an ACL injury earlier in the preseason. Peoples has scored over 1,000 points for Texas State and led the team last year with 13.5 points per contest.

• Texas State does, however, return senior guard Ayriel Anderson, one of the most exciting players to watch in the Sun Belt Conference. Anderson is a Preseason All-Sun Belt Conference Second-Team pick and was second last season in total points scored with 10.9 per game.

• Senior guard Raven Burns returns to Texas State for her final collegiate season. Burns recorded a career-high 24 made three-pointers last season.

• Anderson currently sits just 95 points away from cracking 1,000 points in her career and is also just 61 three's away from being all-time leader for career three-pointers at Texas State.

• The Bobcats will also return Kaitlin Walla and Ti'Aira Pitts as last year, ACL injuries sidelined both of them.

• Kaitlin Walla, before her injury, shot over 53 percent from beyond the arc and 49 percent from the floor. She only played in eight games last season for Texas State.

• The Bobcats also return sophomores Erica May, Taeler Deer and Whitney Apari. May played in all 32 games for Texas State and recorded a career-high 12 rebounds in the Women's Basketball Invitational game against Oral Roberts.

• Taeler Deer was just two rebounds shy of recording the only triple-double of the season last year against UL Monroe. Deer also tallied a career-high 23 points last year in conference play against Appalachian State.

NEW RULES TO LOOK OUT FOR

• This season, the NCAA has implemented many new rule changes for both the men and the women.

• Several of the rule changes include the women moving to a four-quarter format versus the two halves in previous seasons. Each coach will now receive three 30-second timeouts and one full timeout over the span of the contest. The full timeout can be used at any time and if there is not a timeout used in the first half, one is deducted from the second half.

• An addition change that fans will notice deals with the pep band and any amplified music during the game. Now, bands and amplified music may be played during any dead ball period.

• Another rule change is the bonus free throw change. With the move from halves to quarters, a team is awarded two free throws for each common foul beginning with the fifth team foul in a period.

• During the last 59.9 seconds of the game (fourth period or any extra period) when the team in control of the ball, or the team who is to be awarded a throw-in in their backcourt, is granted a timeout, the team will have the option to move the throw-in sport to the 28-foot line in the frontcourt on the same side of the playing court as the scorers' table.

THE BOBCATS 2015-16 SCHEDULE

• The Texas State women's basketball schedule features 20 conference match-ups as well as 10 non-conference games. This marks the first season since joining the Sun Belt Conference where the Bobcats have had the same competitors in back-to-back seasons.

• The Bobcats non-conference schedule is one that is sure to help prepare the 'Cats for Sun Belt Conference play. The non-conference slate features several Power Five Conference opponents including Texas A&M, Iowa State, Duke, and Missouri.

• In the preseason poll, Duke and Texas A&M each found the list. Duke was ranked No. 12 and The Aggies came in at No. 16.

ZENARAE ANTOINE

HEAD COACH
FIFTH SEASON AT TEXAS STATE

COLORADO STATE, 1998
2014, 2015 WBI TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES

Zenarae Antoine is in her fifth season as the head coach at Texas State. In her first season, she led one of the best turnarounds in school history, taking a 9-20 team the year before, to 17-14 including the school's first conference tournament win since 2003. Since, she has led the team to back-to-back appearances in the WBI Tournament in 2014 and 2015.

In the 2013-14 season, Antoine led the Bobcats to their first postseason appearance since the 2008 WNIT with an invitation to the WBI Tournament. Texas State earned the invitation after posting a 12-6 Sun Belt Conference record and winning the Sun Belt Tournament quarterfinal game against Georgia State by a score of 78-44. Texas State then duplicated its postseason run in 2015 with its second-straight WBI Tournament appearance after finishing 11-9 in SBC play and a victory against UT Arlington in the SBC Tournament quarterfinal game.

In the 2014 and 2015 SBC Tournament, Texas State was one of just three teams to make it to the semifinal game each season. While competing in the 2015 semifinal contest, junior guard Erin Peoples became the 15th player in school history and third under Coach Z to reach the 1,000-point mark.

In its first season in the Sun Belt in 2013-14, Texas State went above and beyond preseason expectations. The Bobcats finished tied for third place after being chosen ninth in the SBC preseason poll. The Bobcats finished the season with a 16-16 record, the second most wins for Antoine since arriving in San Marcos in 2011.

During the 2013-14 season, Ashley Ezeh became the 14th player in school history to reach the 1,000-point plateau. Ezeh finished the season in four different top-10 charts including ninth in points with 1,310, seventh in rebounds with 711, third in blocked shots with 62, and seventh in free throws made with 276. Ezeh was named Second-Team All-SBC, her second all-conference recognition after earning Southland Conference Third-Team honors in 2011-12.

As a member of the WAC in 2012-13, Texas State won its first game against a Big 12 opponent since 2005, after beating TCU, 91-80, at Strahan Coliseum. Earlier in the year, the Bobcats won their first game against a Sun Belt opponent since 2005, defeating North Texas, 86-84, in Denton.

Antoine's high scoring style is evident as the Bobcats led the WAC for the majority of the year in scoring offense, finishing the year 40th in the country with an average of 69.7 points per game. That total was in part due to the team's 100-67 win against San Jose State in the regular season finale, marking the first time since 1988 the Bobcats scored 100 points against a Division I opponent.

Also during the 2012-13 season, Diamond Ford set the school single season scoring record under the direction of Antoine with 644 points, including 27 in the final game of her collegiate career. Erin Peoples was named to the WAC All-Freshman team and Ayriel Anderson was the best three-point shooter in the WAC at 43 percent in conference play.

In 2011-12, she coached two players to earn all-conference honors; the first time since 2008 the school had two players on the postseason team. Known for offense, Antoine led the team to the highest scoring average in the league and had one of her players, Diamond Ford, become the 13th player in school history to eclipse the 1,000 career point mark as well as finishing fourth in single season history in points. She also led the Bobcats to their first conference tournament appearance in four years during her inaugural season. The team reached the Southland Conference Tournament, and recorded its first win at the event since 2003 after beating Sam Houston State in the quarterfinals.

2015-16 TEXAS STATE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Antoine came to San Marcos after serving four seasons as an assistant coach at Arkansas. Including Arkansas, Coach Antoine has been at numerous Division I programs, including Louisville, Ohio and College of Charleston. In 2010-11 Arkansas went 22-12, including a berth to the WNIT, where it advanced to the quarterfinals. In the first game of the WNIT, the Razorbacks beat Southland Conference opponent Lamar, 91-65.

During her time with the Razorbacks, she served as the recruiting coordinator. She helped the Razorback's sign back-to-back nationally-ranked recruiting classes that included two players who earned All-Southeastern Conference recognition as freshmen (Lyndsay Harris and C'eira Ricketts).

In addition to managing the Razorbacks' extensive recruiting data base as the staff's recruiting coordinator, Antoine also worked with the wing guards and small forwards and served as the coaching staff's liaison with the Razorback academic staff.

Prior to Arkansas, Antoine was the recruiting coordinator at Louisville, and guided the Cardinals to nationally-ranked recruiting classes her four seasons at Louisville. Her last two recruiting classes were No. 26 for 2006 and No. 25 for 2007. Among the most notable signees for the Cardinals were Kodak All-American and 2007 Big East Player of the Year Angel McCoughtry and Kodak Junior College All-American Helen Johnson.

Antoine went to Louisville after spending two seasons as an assistant at Ohio University, her second stint at the school. While at Ohio, whose mascot is also the Bobcats, she coached both the guards and the posts, and was in charge of scouting opponents.

shots and seventh in rebounding. She also ranks high for single season rebounds and blocked shots. During her career, CSU won two league titles and made two NCAA appearances. As a coach, Antoine has reached the postseason a total of seven times, going twice to the NCAA Tournament (2005, 2006) along with three WNIT appearances (2004, 2009, 2011) and two WBI Tournament appearances (2014, 2015). Including her playing career, her total is nine, after making the second-round of the NCAA Tournament twice during her days at Colorado State.

Overall, she has had five recruiting classes receive national recognition. One of her most notable signings was Angel McCoughtry, a three-time WBCA/State Farm All-American and 2009 WNBA Draft Number One pick and Rookie of the Year. She has developed 10 All-Conference players.

Antoine is married to Ronald Antoine who is the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Fresno State Coach Z with her children, Zachary, Xavier, and Zayden, her husband Ronald and Boko during the Coach Z Basketball Camp in 2015.

Between stints at Ohio, Antoine spent a season as an assistant coach for the College of Charleston, where she served as the lead recruiter for the southern region and also coached posts. Her administrative duties included coordinating travel, academics and community service.

Antoine received her master's degree from Ohio in 2000 where her coaching career began as a graduate assistant. She coached post players and helped out with academics.

Antoine played at Colorado State where she was a three-year starter for the Rams. She played her senior season for head coach Tom Collen, with whom she would work later at Louisville and Arkansas, as CSU went 24-6 and reached the NCAA second round during his first season as head coach.

Before working with posts and guards during her coaching career, Antoine was an anchor in the middle for CSU as a player. She finished her career ranked third in career blocked University. Antoine graduated from James E. Taylor High School in Katy, Texas and earned her bachelor's degree in physical science with minors in geology and statistics at Colorado State in 1998. In 2000, she received her master's in athletic administration at Ohio University. Antoine is a member of the WBCA, the AFCWA, and a 2002 graduate, the inaugural class, of the former Women's Coaches Academy and now Alliance of Women's Coaches. She is also the Sun Belt Conference Captain for the WBCA, the Women's Basketball representative for the Sun Belt Conference Sport Committee and is in the second of a three-year appointment as a voter on the WBCA Coaches Poll. The Antoine's have twin sons, Xavier and Zachary, and a one-year old, Zayden.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas – The size of the No. 13 Texas A&M Aggies proved to be too much Friday evening as the Texas State women's basketball team fell in the season opener by a score of 87-50. The defeat marks the first loss in a season opener since head coach Zenarae Antoine has been at the helm of the Bobcat program.

With ball handling struggles early on the in the contest, the Bobcats collected themselves and outscored the Aggies, 18-16, in the final 10 minutes of play with Aggie starters remaining in the game. The Bobcats shot 7-for-11 from the field in the fourth quarter and a perfect 3-for-3 from beyond the arc.

"What I appreciate about the game is that the team was able to step up there toward the end and show poise," stated Antoine. "One thing I was clear about going into the fourth quarter is to win the next quarter and continue to go with our principles of what we've been preaching."

Texas A&M took an early lead over the Bobcats and capitalized on Texas State turnovers throughout the evening. In the first half, Texas State recorded 16 turnovers of which the Aggies converted into 16 points. Texas State improved in the second half of play with just eight turnovers, seven of which were in the third quarter.

Two freshman, Toshua Leavitt and Devin Gray, had impactful games for their first collegiate contests as combined they made four of the Bobcats eight made three-pointers. Leavitt finished the game with six points, three boards, three assists and just one turnover. Gray came in in the fourth quarter and in just nine minutes of play, the Wellington, Fla. native went 2-for-3 from the floor and a perfect 2-for-2 from long range.

Taeler Deer and Kaitlin Walla led the Bobcats Friday evening with seven points apiece. Walla, in her first game back since December 2014, went 3-for-7 from the floor with three rebounds in 20 minutes of play.

Freshman Kiani Lurry and sophomore Ericka May led Texas State with six boards apiece.

SAN MARCOS, Texas – Down 14 with the fourth quarter to play, the Texas State women's basketball team rallied with a 28-6 run in the final 10 minutes to earn a 52-44 victory over St. Edward's in the home opener Sunday afternoon. The victory marks the first win of the season for the 'Cats as they improve to 1-1 on the year.

Back-to-back made three pointers by Kaitlin Walla with just under eight minutes to play provided the spark and cut the Hilltopper's double-digit lead to four, putting Texas State right back in the ball game. A pair of lay-ups by Taeler Deer as well as one from Ayriell Anderson would be the combination needed to tie up the game and continue to push the momentum in favor of the Bobcats.

Anderson's lay-up sparked additional momentum for the 'Cats as just seconds earlier she earned her third takeaway of the game in the Bobcat's offensive court.

Texas State finished the final three minutes of play on a 12-4 run including six straight free throws by Walla and Anderson to send St. Edward's, who led for all but three and a half minutes of the game, home with a loss.

The Bobcats got off to a slow start with just five points in the first quarter of play. Tempo picked up as the second quarter progressed, but quickly slowed down for the 'Cats in the third. With just 24 points through three quarters, the Bobcats more than doubled their score to go ahead of the Hilltoppers for the victory.

Deer (11) and Walla (10) each finished the game with double-digit points for the first time in the 2015-16 season and Ericka May led all Bobcats with nine rebounds. The 'Cats finished the game shooting 30.8 percent from beyond the arc while holding the Hilltoppers scoreless from three. From the line, Texas State went 14-for-19 at a clip of 73.7 percent.
