Jeff Mitchell

Head Coach

► Fourth Year

Jeff Mitchell enters his fourth season as the head coach of the North Texas women's golf team. In his time with North Texas, he has reshaped the program as it climbs towards the top of the Sun Belt Conference. The 2010-11 season will go down as the most memorable and successful season in women's golf history at North Texas, thanks to Mitchell's leadership.

The Mean Green advanced to the NCAA Tournament last season for the first time in school history, won a school record four tournaments during the year, had a school-record four players named to the all-conference team, and Mitchell was named the 2010-11 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year.

Mitchell is the first coach in women's golf history at North Texas to win Coach of the Year honors. He also led North Texas as a team to another first in school history, a national ranking. The Mean Green for the first time was ranked in the top-50 nationally last season.

It did not end there. The Mean Green set a school record last season for the lowest team score at 872 as they won the Worldlink North Texas Fall Classic. Individually Kelsey Kipp shot the lowest 54-hole score at 211 in school history, while Chaslyn Chrimer had the lowest freshman stroke average in over 15 years at North Texas. Chrimer also recorded the second-lowest round of golf in school history last season.

As a team, the Mean Green had the lowest stroke average in school history, rewriting the old record that stood for only one season.

In 2009, Mitchell, a former PGA star, guided North Texas to its first tournament team championship since 2006. Along the way Jordan Rose captured the individual title of the Shocker Invitational. The Mean Green recorded four top five finishes and shot a 293 twice, which is just one shot off the school record for lowest round.

In his first season at North Texas, Mitchell's experience paid dividends for the North Texas golf program. He guided true freshman Addison Long to three top 25 finishes in the fall of 2008. She was the first Mean Green freshman player to record such a start to a career in four seasons.

Mitchell was the head coach of the men's golf team at Stanford from 2000-2004 and the director of golf at Texas Tech from 1998-2000 and the head women's coach from 1990-2000. Most recently he was a teaching professional at the TPC Craig Ranch in McKinney.

At Stanford, Mitchell coached three all-conference players, one All-American, and nine scholar athletes. In 2002, he coached Jim Seki to the Pac-10 conference title, the first individual at Stanford to win a conference title since Tiger Woods.

Mitchell spent 10 years as the head women's golf coach at Texas Tech, and in 1998, he became the director of golf for both the men's and women's programs. He was named District Coach of the Year in 1993 and '96 and the Southwest Conference Coach of the Year in 1994 and '96. In 2000 he was inducted into the Texas Tech Hall of Fame.

As a player Mitchell had a wildly successful career on the PGA Tour starting in 1976. He competed from 1976-84, playing in an average of 30 tournaments a year. He won the Phoenix Open in 1980 and had 13 top-10 finishes and made 111 career cuts on the PGA Tour. He competed in over 200 pro-amateur events and participated in over 100 clinics.

Along with his win at the Phoenix Open, Mitchell won the 1978 Texas State Open at Horseshoe Bay. He was named to the All-Southwest Conference team in 1976 and an honorable mention All-American as he was a three-year letterman from 1974-76. He graduated from Texas Tech in 1989 with a degree in physical education.

Prior to his coaching career, Mitchell was a member of the graduate faculty at Texas Tech and a teaching assistant, working as an instructor and camp director as well as teaching activity classes in golf, tennis and volleyball.

From 1986-87, Mitchell was the head golf professional at Golden Eagle Golf Course in Tallahassee, FL where he was responsible for arranging tee times, tournaments, all shop purchases, teaching, assistant professional training and golf course set-up.

Prior to Golden Eagle, he spent a year as the Assistant Professional at Royal Oaks Country Club in Dallas, TX.

Mitchell has been a member of the National Golf Coaches Association, and he's been involved with the Golf Coaches Association of America since 1998. He served as the first vice president for the NGCA from 1997-99, and was the legislative chairman from 1992-

Sandra Palmer

North Texas '64

Perhaps the greatest woman golfer to ever come from North Texas never actually struck a drive or made a putt for the Mean Green.

That's because when Sandra Palmer -- a winner of 21 career LPGA Tour victories and a National Collegiate Hall of Famer -- went to North Texas, the school did not sponsor women's golf as a varsity sport.

Palmer was an accomplished golfer by the time she attended North Texas from 1959-63, where she showed her enthusiasm for athletics by serving as a cheerleader and becoming a member of the Green Jacket booster club. After she graduated from North Texas in 1964 with a bachelor of science degree in education, Palmer joined the LPGA Tour. As a professional, she captured 21 LPGA Tour wins and surpassed the $1 million mark in career earnings.

Palmer, a 1994 inductee into the North Texas Athletic Hall of Fame, took up the game of golf at the age of 13 and counts the legendary Harvey Penick as one of the teachers who greatly influenced her career.

She won the West Texas Amateur Champion four times and while at North Texas Palmer was a runner-up at the 1961 National Collegiate Championship and winner of the Texas State Amateur in 1963.

After joining the LPGA in 1964, Palmer failed to win a tournament her first seven years on the tour. However, she won at least one LPGA tournament in each of the next seven seasons. She won a career-high four tournaments in 1973 and in 1975 she claimed three titles, including a U.S. Women's Open championship that helped earn her LPGA Player of the Year honors. She narrowly lost the 1976 Open title in an 18-hole playoff to JoAnne Carner.

In 1986 Palmer won the final event of her career -- the Mayflower Classic -- in a sudden-death playoff. She later went on to win the Sprint Senior Challenge from 1991-95.

Palmer, who was named North Texas Alumnus of the Year in 1977, was recognized as one of the LPGA's top 50 players and teachers in 2000 when the LPGA celebrated its 50th anniversary.

Nina Reis

Ladies European Tour
LPGA Tour

Former University of North Texas women's golf star Nina Reis has played professionally for the last nine years, including two years on the LPGA Tour and currently with the Ladies European Tour.

On the Ladies European Tour, Reis has played in 58 tournaments and posted eight top 10 finishes over the last nine years. She posted a seventh-place finish at the Tenerife Ladies Open during the 2010 season. She finished 78th on the Henderson Money List with (Euro) 22,285 in season's earnings.

In 2009, Reis played in 16 tournaments on the Ladies European Tour with her best finish a tie for 18th at the Tenerife Ladies Open, followed by a tie for 19th at the Randstad Open de France Dames.

In 2008, Reis played in 16 tournaments on the Ladies European Tour after earning her full card by finishing 28th at the Final Qualifying School. She finished 20th in the 2008 final exemption rankings and 22nd in the New Star MoneyList for 2008. Reis posted four Top 10 finishes in 2008, including two second-place results.

Reis earned her LPGA Tour card for the 2006 season after finishing 18th at the LPGA Qualifying School, earning one of 24 tour cards handed out. She played two full seasons on the LPGA tour and was a non-exempt player for the 2008 season.

"I was very excited to play on the LPGA-tour in 2006," said Reis. "It has been a dream of mine since I was a kid. I was so glad when I made the card, I jumped up and down. Q-school is a long and intense week and after making it through there I was very proud of myself."

Reis was a two-time all-conference selection while at North Texas in 2000 and 2001. In 2001 she led the team in stroke average and was named to the All-Sun Belt Conference team. In 2000, Reis was named to the first-team All-Big West squad. Reis had six top-10 finishes her freshman season and finished tied for fifth at the Big West Conference Championship.

In 2005, Reis won three events on the Telia Tour en route to winning the Tour's Order of Merit. She finished fifth at the OTP Bank Ladies Central European Open, an event on the Ladies European Tour. She tied for 16th at the LPGA Qualifying Tournament to earn exempt status for the 2006 LPGA Tour season.

Reis was a Swedish National Team member from 1997-2002. In 2001, she was the Ladies European Team Champion.
