MEAN GREEN SPOTLIGHT

#9 HANNAH SHAW

Freshman | OH | 6-0 | Joshua, TX

All season long, the North Texas coaching staff has been hunting for an offensive weapon to complement Carnae Dillard. Through 12 matches, it appears that Hannah Shaw is the player to fill that role. North Texas has won every match in which Shaw has hit at least .200. Likewise, the Mean Green has dropped every match in which Shaw has hit below that mark.

INSIDE THE MATCHUP

HOUSTON BAPTIST HUSKIES

All-Time Series: North Texas leads 5-1

Palileo Era: First Meeting

Last Meeting: North Texas won 3-0 on 8/25/12

Palileo's Career: First Meeting

Coach Andrew Palileo will matchup against the Huskies for the first time of his career on Friday night. Houston Baptist is guided by junior outside hitter Jessica Wooten, who averages 3.20 kills per set. So far this season, HBU has put together a 7-4 record while leading North Texas in attack percentage, blocks per set and service aces per set.

ORAL ROBERTS GOLDEN EAGLES

All-Time Series: ORU leads 16-5

Palileo Era: First Meeting

Last Meeting: ORU won 3-0 on 9/6/08

Palileo's Career: 1-1

North Texas hasn't defeated ORU since 2003, but that's not keeping this year's squad from feeling confident. The Mean Green will have to find a way to slow sophomore outside hitter Laura Milos, a Croatia native who averages 4.77 kills per set. Milos has led ORU to a 5-4 record to this point in the season as Saturday's contest will prove to be competitive.

TULSA GOLDEN HURRICANE

All-Time Series: Tulsa leads 14-5

Palileo Era: 0-1

Last Meeting: Tulsa 3-1 on 10/6/13

Palileo's Career: 0-2

NT will match up with former C-USA counterpart Tulsa in the final match of the weekend. The Golden Hurricane is sitting on a 3-6 record on the year. Junior OH Erica Bohannon has tallied 3.53 k/s to lead Tulsa to wins over Grand Canyon, Charleston and SEC-member Alabama.

When Carnae Attacks...

North Texas picked up a 3-0 win over SFA in Wednesday's mid-week matchup. In addition to the team earning its second sweep of the year, the match was huge for senior Carnae Dillard as she officially became the program's all-time leading attacker. Now with 4,935 career attacks, Dillard will likely surpass the 5,000 attacks mark this weekend.

Off To A Good Start In C-USA

Coming irregularly early in the season, North Texas's first C-USA match of 2015 served as the team's home-opener. The Mean Green picked up a 3-0 win over conference foe UAB in the Sept. 7 matchup. In the win, senior Carnae Dillard posted 19 kills, the most from any C-USA competitor in a three-set match this year. Additionally, junior Amy Henard became the fifth member of North Texas' 2,500 assist club.

Home Winning Ways

Over the last few seasons, the North Texas Volleyball Center has been an increasingly tough place for visiting teams to play. In fact, the Mean Green has a 26-7 record in home matches under Palileo, dropping only two games in 2013, three games in 2014 and two matches this season. Overall, North Texas has an 81-51 overall record from its home court.

40 Years of North Texas Volleyball

The 2015 campaign marks the 40th season of volleyball for the Mean Green. In that time, North Texas has put together a 511-750-2 overall record, including seven seasons of 20 wins or more.

Dillard Named Preseason C-USA POY

Senior Carnae Dillard was named the 2015 Conference USA Preseason Player of the Year in a poll of the league's coaches in July. Dillard's selection comes as she looks to defend the conference's top individual honor from a season ago. In 2014, Dillard led C-USA in kills (615) and points (672.5).

Fountain of Youth

With only two upperclassmen, this year's North Texas squad is one of the youngest teams in C-USA. Seven newcomers - made up of six freshmen and a transfer from Texas Tech - join nine letterwinners from a year ago. Despite the young roster, North Texas brings back 75 percent of its scoring and 76 percent of its kills from 2014.

Climb of the Captains

Team captains Amy Henard and Carnae Dillard are the undoubted leaders for the Mean Green, both on and off the court. That much is clear when taking a look at the North Texas record book. Now in the 2015 campaign, each of the upperclassmen continue to climb the ranks in their respective statistical categories.

Last Woman Standing

Senior Carnae Dillard is the only remaining player or coach from her freshman season in 2012. Since that time, head coach Andrew Palileo & Co. made their way to Denton, and the freshmen that accompanied Dillard during her first year are no longer on the roster.

North Texas Picked Fourth In C-USA

NT was picked to finish fourth in Conference USA for the third consecutive year, according to the 13-team poll of league coaches.

The Mean Green is picked to end the year behind WKU, UTSA and Rice, while a fifth-ranked Florida Atlantic rounds out the top five.

Pali's Progress

In only two full seasons at the helm, head coach Andrew Palileo has established himself as one of the most effective coaches in North Texas history.

Coaching Changes in 2015

Head Coach Andrew Palileo is joined by two new faces on the coaching staff. Vinh Nguyen was named associate head coach in July after volunteering with the team for part of the 2014 season. He brings 20+ years of volleyball experience from the West Coast. Also joining the staff is assistant coach Rachel Todorovich, a former player for Palileo during her freshman and sophomore seasons at Washington State.

Dillard's March For Marginas

Through three seasons, Carnae Dillard has separated herself as one of the best players in North Texas volleyball history. But there's still one Mean Green player that even Dillard has yet to catch in the record books.

Corina Marginas, an outside hitter from 2000 to 2003, is volleyball's only current representative in the NT Hall of Fame. In her career, Marginas earned first-team all-conference honors each season, was the 2003 Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year and still holds the all-time records for kills and attacks.

So where does Dillard come in? Entering her final year in a Mean Green jersey, the senior has seemingly matched Marginas in every category, including consecutive first-team all-conference selections and a conference POY nod. But there's still one accolade that Dillard hopes to pick up in her senior year to join Marginas as the best to ever play for North Texas - a spot on the AVCA All-American team.

Head coach Andrew Palileo (paw-leh-lay-oh) continues to develop what has been a young and exciting North Texas volleyball team.

In his second year at the helm, Palileo guided the Mean Green to one of the best seasons in school history. Led by eventual Conference USA Player of the Year Carnae Dillard, Palileo & Co. racked up a 21-9 record entering the postseason, the second-best regular season win total in North Texas history. With momentum on its side and riding a program-best 10-match win streak, North Texas would make it to the C-USA semifinal round before falling to eventual conference champion WKU. The team's individual talent was recognized as Dillard took all-conference first team honors, senior Hanna Forst was named to the second team, and Amanda Chamberlain was placed on the conference's all-freshman squad.

In his first year at North Texas, Palileo led the Mean Green through its initial year in C-USA and accumulated a 17-15 record that came within a few points of the conference's semi-final round. Two players, sophomore Carnae Dillard and senior Karissa Flack, were named to the C-USA all-conference team while setter Amy Henard was an all-freshmen selection..

Palileo arrived in Denton from Ohio State where he was an assistant coach for two years bringing an extensive resume of experience at the Big-10 and Pac-12 levels to the Mean Green. His most recent head coaching position was at Washington State from 2008-2010. While in Pullman, Wash., Palileo took the Cougars to the NCAA tournament in 2009, their first trip in seven years. He also received the Pac-12 Coach of the Year award that same season.

Before heading to Washington State, Palileo was head coach for seven years at South Dakota State where he gathered 154 wins and 86 losses. He was named the 2007 Summit League Coach of the Year, when the South Dakota State Jacks were the Summit League regular season and tournament champions and made the first trip in school history to the NCAA Championship Tournament that fall. Palileo's crew broke or tied 23 team or individual records during 2007.

Prior to South Dakota State, Palileo was the head volleyball coach at Bethel University (St. Paul, Minn.), where he had an 85-53 record in four seasons, the best four-year mark in school history. While at Bethel, he produced eight first-team All-Conference players, a first-team All-American and two academic All-Americans.

Palileo also coached the Club SoDa 18s volleyball team in Brookings, S.D., from 2002-2008, and was the Heartland Adidas Select Volleyball Program 18s head coach for five years in Minneapolis, Minn. He served as the director of the Crosstown Junior Olympics at Edina High (Minn.) from 1993-97, and he was the JV coach at Waconia (Minn.) High from 1986-90. A highly-regarded clinician, Palileo has also been the head coach of the Midwest Volleyball Instructor Elite Camps since 1997.

A graduate of Crown College (St. Bonifacius, Minn.), Palileo received his bachelor of arts degree in missiology in 1991 and a bachelor of arts degree in social science/secondary education in 1995. He went on to earn a master's degree in educational leadership from Bethel University (St. Paul, Minn.) in 2000.

Palileo and his wife, Wendy, have three sons, Ashton, Austin and A.J., and one daughter, Alyvia.
