MEAN GREEN SPOTLIGHT

#5 CARNAE DILLARD
 Senior | OH | 5-8 | San Antonio, TX

Carnae Dillard is fresh off her first weekly award of the season after being named C-USA Co-Offensive Player of the Week on Tuesday. The senior currently leads the league in kills and points, and she has the most career kills among all active Division-I volleyball players.

INSIDE THE MATCHUPS

BOISE STATE BRONCOS

All-Time Series: Boise St. leads 9-0
 Last Meeting: Boise St. won 3-1 on 9/13/13

Palileo Era: 0-1

Palileo's Career: 1-1

The Broncos enter Friday's contest having never lost to North Texas. Boise State is led by sophomore Sierra Noble, who set Bronco and Mountain West freshman records in kills last season. Noble has continued that momentum, averaging 4.95 k/s in 2015. Middle blockers Maddy O'Donnell and Kaitlyn Oliver will also be worth watching, as they average 2.65 and 2.60 k/s, respectively.

ABILENE CHRISTIAN WILDCATS

All-Time Series: NT leads 4-1
 Last Meeting: NT won 3-1 on 9/12/13

Palileo Era: 2-0

Palileo's Career: 2-0

Head coach Andrew Palileo and the Mean Green have been able to find success against the Wildcats, as North Texas knocked off Abilene Christian in two meetings last year. In 2015, the Wildcats are trying to get on the winning track as they enter the weekend with a 0-7 record. Senior outside hitter Jennifer Loerch leads the team as she is averaging 3.55 k/s this season.

HOUSTON COUGARS

All-Time Series: Houston leads 8-2
 Last Meeting: NT won 3-0 on 9/21/13

Palileo Era: 1-0

Palileo's Career: 1-0

North Texas handled the Cougars in the last meeting between the two teams, but Houston holds the advantage in the all-time series. In 2015, Houston enters the weekend with a 5-1 record on the year, meaning Saturday's contest could be a tight one. Brookah Palmer, a freshman from nearby Carrollton, is averaging 4.78 k/s to lead the team.

Off To A Good Start In C-USA

North Texas is coming off its first home game of the season, a 3-0 win over conference foe UAB. In the win, senior Carnae Dillard posted 19 kills, the most from any C-USA competitor in a three-set match this year. Additionally, junior Amy Henard became the fifth member of North Texas' 2,500 assist club with her very first assist of the day.

Dillard Named Conference USA Co-Offensive Player of the Week

It didn't take long for senior Carnae Dillard to pick up her first weekly award of the season. On Tuesday, the outside hitter was named Conference USA's Co-Offensive Player of the Week. Dillard recorded 81 kills in 16 sets and led the Mean Green to victories over Central Arkansas and an Oklahoma Sooners team that was receiving top-25 votes.

Home Winning Ways

The North Texas Volleyball Center has become an increasingly tough place for visiting teams to play. In fact, the Mean Green has a 24-5 record in home matches under Palileo, dropping only two games in 2013 and three games in 2014. Overall, North Texas has a 79-49 overall record from its home court.

40 Years of North Texas Volleyball

The 2015 campaign marks the 40th season of volleyball for the Mean Green. In that time, North Texas has put together a 509-748-2 overall record, including seven seasons of 20 wins or more.

Dillard Named Preseason C-USA POY

Senior Carnae Dillard was named the 2015 Conference USA Preseason Player of the Year in a poll of the league's coaches in July.

Dillard's selection comes as she looks to defend the conference's top individual honor from a season ago. In 2014, Dillard led C-USA in kills (615) and points (672.5).

Fountain of Youth

With only two upperclassmen, this year's North Texas squad is one of the youngest teams in C-USA. Seven newcomers - made up of six freshmen and a transfer from Texas Tech - join nine letterwinners from a year ago.

Despite the young roster, North Texas brings back 75 percent of its scoring and 76 percent of its kills from 2014.

Climb of the Captains

Team captains Amy Henard and Carnae Dillard are the undoubted leaders for the Mean Green, both on and off the court. That much is clear when taking a look at the North Texas record book. Now in the 2015 campaign, each of the upperclassmen continue to climb the ranks in their respective statistical categories.

Last Woman Standing

Senior Carnae Dillard is the only remaining player or coach from her freshman season in 2012. Since that time, head coach Andrew Palileo & Co. made their way to Denton, and the freshmen that accompanied Dillard during her first year are no longer on the roster.

North Texas Picked Fourth In C-USA

NT was picked to finish fourth in Conference USA for the third consecutive year, according to the 13-team poll of league coaches.

The Mean Green is picked to end the year behind WKU, UTSA and Rice, while a fifth-ranked Florida Atlantic rounds out the top five.

Pali's Progress

In only two full seasons at the helm, head coach Andrew Palileo has established himself as one of the most effective coaches in North Texas history.

Coaching Changes in 2015

Head Coach Andrew Palileo is joined by two new faces on the coaching staff. Vinh Nguyen was named associate head coach in July after volunteering with the team for part of the 2014 season. He brings 20+ years of volleyball experience from the West Coast. Also joining the staff is assistant coach Rachel Todorovich, a former player for Palileo during her freshman and sophomore seasons at Washington State.

Dillard's March For Marginas

Through three seasons, Carnae Dillard has separated herself as one of the best players in North Texas volleyball history. But there's still one Mean Green player that even Dillard has yet to catch in the record books.

Corina Marginas, an outside hitter from 2000 to 2003, is volleyball's only current representative in the NT Hall of Fame. In her career, Marginas earned first-team all-conference honors each season, was the 2003 Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year and still holds the all-time records for kills and attacks.

So where does Dillard come in? Entering her final year in a Mean Green jersey, the senior has seemingly matched Marginas in every category, including consecutive first-team all-conference selections and a conference POY nod. But there's still one accolade that Dillard hopes to pick up in her senior year to join Marginas as the best to ever play for North Texas - a spot on the AVCA All-American team.

Head coach Andrew Palileo (paw-leh-lay-oh) continues to develop what has been a young and exciting North Texas volleyball team.

In his second year at the helm, Palileo guided the Mean Green to one of the best seasons in school history. Led by eventual Conference USA Player of the Year Carnae Dillard, Palileo & Co. racked up a 21-9 record entering the postseason, the second-best regular season win total in North Texas history. With momentum on its side and riding a program-best 10-match win streak, North Texas would make it to the C-USA semifinal round before falling to eventual conference champion WKU. The team's individual talent was recognized as Dillard took all-conference first team honors, senior Hanna Forst was named to the second team, and Amanda Chamberlain was placed on the conference's all-freshman squad.

In his first year at North Texas, Palileo led the Mean Green through its initial year in C-USA and accumulated a 17-15 record that came within a few points of the conference's semi-final round. Two players, sophomore Carnae Dillard and senior Karissa Flack, were named to the C-USA all-conference team while setter Amy Henard was an all-freshmen selection..

Palileo arrived in Denton from Ohio State where he was an assistant coach for two years bringing an extensive resume of experience at the Big-10 and Pac-12 levels to the Mean Green. His most recent head coaching position was at Washington State from 2008-2010. While in Pullman, Wash., Palileo took the Cougars to the NCAA tournament in 2009, their first trip in seven years. He also received the Pac-12 Coach of the Year award that same season.

Before heading to Washington State, Palileo was head coach for seven years at South Dakota State where he gathered 154 wins and 86 losses. He was named the 2007 Summit League Coach of the Year, when the South Dakota State Jacks were the Summit League regular season and tournament champions and made the first trip in school history to the NCAA Championship Tournament that fall. Palileo's crew broke or tied 23 team or individual records during 2007.

Prior to South Dakota State, Palileo was the head volleyball coach at Bethel University (St. Paul, Minn.), where he had an 85-53 record in four seasons, the best four-year mark in school history. While at Bethel, he produced eight first-team All-Conference players, a first-team All-American and two academic All-Americans.

Palileo also coached the Club SoDa 18s volleyball team in Brookings, S.D., from 2002-2008, and was the Heartland Adidas Select Volleyball Program 18s head coach for five years in Minneapolis, Minn. He served as the director of the Crosstown Junior Olympics at Edina High (Minn.) from 1993-97, and he was the JV coach at Waconia (Minn.) High from 1986-90. A highly-regarded clinician, Palileo has also been the head coach of the Midwest Volleyball Instructor Elite Camps since 1997.

A graduate of Crown College (St. Bonifacius, Minn.), Palileo received his bachelor of arts degree in missiology in 1991 and a bachelor of arts degree in social science/secondary education in 1995. He went on to earn a master's degree in educational leadership from Bethel University (St. Paul, Minn.) in 2000.

Palileo and his wife, Wendy, have three sons, Ashton, Austin and A.J., and one daughter, Alyvia.
