Up Next:

American Athletic Conference play begins for Tulsa, Sept. 25-37, where they will travel to Tulane and Houston. TU plays Tulane at 7 p.m. on Friday, and Houston at 1 p.m. on Saturday.

Home Record:

Dating back to the 2005 season, Tulsa has posted a 98-22 record at the Donald W. Reynolds Center. That time period (2005-present) has been the winningest era in program history. In 2010, the Hurricane finished with a perfect home record of 11-0. The following year, 2011, Tulsa ended with a 9-1 record at home.

Approaching league play:

The Hurricane wraps up its non-conference portion of its schedule this weekend as it plays host to the Tulsa Invitational. The following weekend Tulsa takes the road to start league play, and the conference has a whole has been successful in non-conference play. Last weekend the conference posted a 17-16 record.

Climbing the career ladder:

Junior outside hitter Erica Bohannon has 887 career kills. She is 200 kills from matching fifth-place Kassiana Urnau (2003-06) for fifth place on the TU career kills list.

Junior libero Brooke Berryhill has 1,284 career digs, ranking fifth on the school's all time dig list. Last weekend, she surpassed Kelsey Wood who recorded 1,236 digs from 2005-08. She needs 13 digs to match Kristien Van Lierop (1997-00) for fourth place.

Prep Volleyball Preseason Ranking:

The Tulsa volleyball team came in at no. 49 in prepvolleyball.com's inaugural College Preseason Top 50. Prepvolleyball.com published preseason collegiate rankings for the first time, including the Golden Hurricane, which went 22-9 last year. Tulsa returns 11 players, including seven juniors and seniors, and six newcomers.

HEAD COACH RYAN WILLS (2nd Season)

Ryan Wills is in his second season as head volleyball coach at The University of Tulsa.

He led the Golden Hurricane to 22 wins in his first year as head coach, the program's 10th straight 20-win season. The Hurricane posted a 22-9 overall record and a 14-6 mark in his first season in the American Athletic Conference. TU recorded at least one win over each of its conference opponents despite being shorthanded with injuries. Junior Erica Bohannon was a first-team all-conference selection, while senior Valerie El Houssine was a third-team Academic All-America selection, and earned second-team all-conference honors.

Wills returned to his alma mater after three years as an assistant coach at Alabama. He was appointed the Tulsa head coach on February 7, 2014.

Wills was born and raised in Tulsa and graduated from Wright Christian Academy before attending The University of Tulsa. He earned his bachelor's degree from TU in business administration in 2008.

At Alabama, Wills coached under former Tulsa Head Coach Ed Allen and during those three years, the Crimson Tide posted an overall 53-44 record. The 2013 Crimson Tide team recorded the most wins in school history with a 24-10 mark and made an appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Before joining Allen at Alabama, the Tide had won just 19 matches the previous two seasons, and in their first two years the Tide posted 29 wins, including an 18-14 mark in the 2012 campaign.

Before joining Alabama, Wills was an assistant coach for the Golden Hurricane for the 2010 season under Allen. Tulsa posted a school-record 31 wins, including 30 straight victories, and winning the program's first NCAA Tournament match with a victory over 15th-ranked LSU. TU finished the 2010 season with a 31-3 overall record, a perfect 20-0 mark in Conference USA play, a conference regular-season crown, and ranked No. 20 in the country in the AVCA Coaches poll.

Wills was a student assistant coach at Tulsa for the 2006-07 seasons and helped the Golden Hurricane win its first Conference USA regular-season title in 2006, followed by the program's first C-USA Tournament championship and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2007. Tulsa compiled an overall 54-15 record during those two seasons.

After his graduation from Tulsa in 2008, Wills was a volunteer coach at UCLA for two seasons (2008-09) under now-retired head coach and National Volleyball Hall of Famer Andy Banachowski, the all-time winningest NCAA Division I women's volleyball coach and winner of six national championships.

Wills was also the Beach Program Director at the Mizuno Long Beach Volleyball Club, where he developed and directed a sand volleyball program for the club. In 2009, the program won the inaugural National Club Championship for club beach volleyball.

He trained nine girls who received Division I scholarships while coaching for the Mizuno Long Beach program and had five players earn Junior Olympic All-America honors, including Tulsa's Kellie Culbertson, who was the Junior Olympic 17 open division Most Valuable Player. This past fall, Culbertson finished her career at Tulsa among the top-three all-time leaders for kills and digs and set a school-record for service aces.

Wills, 30, also assisted with Club ONE Volleyball in Tulsa from 2006-08, where the program won three Oklahoma Regional Volleyball Association Championships and received three bids to the Junior Olympic National Championships.

Wills' wife, Evyn, was a four-year letterwinner for the Golden Hurricane volleyball team and completed her career ranked first on the school's all-time digs list as a libero.

WILLS' YEAR-BY-YEAR HEAD COACH RECORD

Year	Overall	Conference
2014	22-9	14-6
2015	3-6	0-0

Preseason All-Conference:

Junior outside hitter Erica Bohannon was selected unanimously as one of 12 players named to the American Athletic Conference preseason all-conference team. Bohannon ranked second in league play in kills and points last year, recording 4.19 kills and 4.83 points per set. She was named to the 2014 American Athletic Conference first team.

2014 Brief Recap:

In 2014, Tulsa posted an 8-3 non-conference record over the first four weekends. TU started league play dropping its first four American Athletic Conference matches, while battling injuries. Those four losses put the Golden Hurricane at the bottom of the conference, desperate for a quick turnaround.

Tulsa bounced back to win 14 of its final 16 league matches of the season. The Hurricane climbed to as high as second in conference play, before finishing the season in fourth place. TU topped every team in the conference at least one time and swept last season's series against four teams (UConn, East Carolina, Houston, Tulane).

Tulsa Has 10 Straight 20-Win Seasons:

TU finished its 39th season with an overall record of 22-9 and 14-6 in the American Athletic Conference in 2014-15. In Ryan Wills' first season as head coach, Tulsa picked up its 10th straight 20+ win season dating back to 2005, while also losing less than 10 matches for the eighth time in that stretch
