Quick Hitters

- Thursday marked the first scoreless game of Tony Mitchell's career.
- NT is 7-0 when holding its opponents under 67 points, but 0-12 when they score 67 or more.
- In two career games against FAU, Alzee Williams is 9-of-12 (75.0) from the floor.

Sultan Of Swat - It took Tony Mitchell just 42 games to take down the program's career shot block record. The sophomore posted four blocks at FIU on Thursday, and now has 121 for his career. He passed Jeffrey Simpson (119 from 2004-06) for the career mark, and now has his sights set on breaking his own single-season record of 70 set last season. Mitchell and Florida Atlantic's Kelvin Penn are tied atop the Sun Belt with 2.7 blocks per game.

Serious Seniors - Seniors Roger Franklin and Niko Stojiljkovic both exploded for career scoring highs against FIU on Thursday. Franklin pummeled his previous career best outing of 20 points with 29 points on 11-of-15 shooting. Stojiljkovic tallied 13 points, including 2-of-2 shooting from 3-point, and five rebounds in 23 minutes.

Block Party - Tony Mitchell's blocking prowess will have this year's squad challenging the program's blocks record by the end of the year. NT currently has 89 blocks at a pace of 4.7 per game, which could catch the 2006-07 squad's record of 151 swats.

Banged Up - Just 19 games into the season, NT's injuries have already accounted for 34 individual games missed in 2012-13. In fact, five NT players missed last Thursday's game at UALR while just seven scholarship players took the court. NT is expected to be without four players in the Florida road swing.

He's On Point - Injuries to the NT roster have allowed others the chance to pick up the slack. P.J. Hardwick, a Miami native, has taken over the starting point guard job and is drawing rave reviews from his coaches. The freshman is averaging 7.2 points, 4.4 assists, 4.8 rebounds and an 88.9 percent free throw mark since taking over the starting gig five games ago.

Thin Bench - Niko Stojiljkovic accounted for 13 of NT's 14 bench points at FIU, which allowed NT to outscore its opponent's bench for the first time since Chris Jones went down with an injury against Western Kentucky. NT's bench has been outscored 148-55 over the last six games.

INSIDE THE MATCHUP

• NT leads the overall series with Florida Atlantic, 5-3, despite last year's 86-81 double-overtime loss to the Owls in Boca Raton. The series began in 2006-07 when FAU joined the SBC as a full time member.

• FAU Arena is the only venue in the Sun Belt that North Texas has yet to win at, although they've had just two opportunities.

North Texas at FAU Arena

1/19/08... L 86-81 B. Bell - 26 pts
2/11/12... L 86-81 (2OT)... T. Mitchell - 22 pts

• The last NT win over the Owls put NT's Tristan Thompson in the same sentence with Steve Nash. The senior became just the ninth player in NCAA history and the first since Santa Clara's Nash in 1995 to go 20-of-20 from the free throw line. His efforts from the stripe helped NT claw out of a 34-27 halftime deficit en route to a 78-64 win in the 2011 SBC Tournament quarterfinals. Thompson scored 36 points in the game and would go on to break the SBC Tournament scoring record in the finals.

• Tony Mitchell put in an epic performance in the last meeting with Florida Atlantic, but it wasn't enough to hold off the owls in the 86-81 double-overtime loss. Mitchell piled up 22 points, 21 rebounds, six blocks and five assists, which was just the ninth 20/20 game in the NCAA last year. It was the eighth best rebounding performance in the country of 2012, and the ninth best in NT history. North Texas led by 19 points with 14:38 remaining, but couldn't stop an Owls squad that got 23 points each from Kore White and Raymond Taylor.

• Greg Gantt has turned into the Sun Belt's premier scorer. He leads the league with an average of 22.5 per points game, and is shooting 41.2 percent from deep. Gantt has connected on 54 three-pointers on the year, which isn't far behind NT's team total of 62. Last year, NT kept Gantt in check in their lone meeting, holding him to six points on 2-of-11 shooting.

New Year's, Baby! - Tony Mitchell, who posted 29 points and 15 rebounds against Troy on Jan. 3, has been unstoppable in 22 career games after the start of the new year. The sophomore's career high games in points, rebounds, assists and blocks all came after the holidays.

Nation's Most Efficient - Alzee Williams is one of the nation's most efficient players. The junior leads NT with 33.6 minutes per game, but has just 17 turnovers on the year. That averages out to a turnover every 35.6 minutes - the best ratio in the nation.

Running Mean Green - Transition points are the key to North Texas' game, and fast-break buckets are a pretty good indicator of Mean Green success. In wins, NT is averaging 10.3 fast-break points, but that figure drops to 6.4 in its losses.

Getting Their Best Shot - If NT's opponents were one collective team, that team would be one of the nation's top perimeter shooting squads. NT's opponents shoot 37.6 percent from 3-point and are averaging 6.7 makes per game, which would rank 32nd and 113th in the nation, respectively. Eight of NT's 19 opponents have hit at least eight 3-pointers.

Scoring Inside-Out - Tony Benford emphasizes paint touches in his offensive philosophy, and NT's ability to score in the lane goes a long way in the final score. NT posted a season-high tying 44 points in the paint against Jackson State.

NT Points In The Paint

Wins	Losses
32.5	25.7

Best In The Belt - With a winning percentage of 62.9, North Texas is the Sun Belt's winningest program since the 2006-07 season. NT has made four trips to the SBC Tournament finals since then, including championships in '07 and '10.

SBC Team (as of 1/14)

Team	W-L	Win%
North Texas	134-79	62.9
Western Kentucky	138-83	62.4
Middle Tennessee	126-86	59.4

28th Ranked Recruiting Class - NT coach Tony Benford just laid the foundation on the nation's No. 28 ranked recruiting class according to HoopScoopOnline.com, which includes Seguin's Greg Wesley, Kingwood's Josh Friar and Oldsmar Christian big-man Tony Nunn. NT's class is ranked higher than that of any SBC school or future CUSA foe.

All-American - Tony Mitchell was named a Preseason All-American by several national publications, including ESPN, CBS Sports, Athlon, Basketball Times and Blue Ribbon Report. He was also named the Sun Belt's Preseason Player of the Year. At 14.7 points and 10.3 rebounds, Mitchell joined Kentucky's Anthony Davis as the only freshmen to average a double-double.

Tough Schedule - Matchups against No. 16/15 Creighton, the NIT Season Tip-Off, St. Louis and Lehigh got the attention of USA Today, which ranked the NT schedule as the nation's fifth toughest overall, and the best by any mid-major this year.

First-Class Staff - Tony Benford brought a first-class coaching staff with him to NT. The staff owns over 100 years of collegiate coaching experience, and features Associate Head Coach Rob Evans, who has 205 head coaching wins at Arizona State and Ole' Miss. Bart Lundy, a veteran of 211 head coaching victories at High Point and Queens, came from Marquette to join Benford. David Anwar spent the last six seasons at Nebraska, and is a 12-year collegiate coaching veteran.

Third Straight Final - The Mean Green, which fell just two wins shy of its sixth consecutive 20-win season, advanced to the Sun Belt Tournament finals for a third straight year. That makes NT just the third program in Sun Belt history to advance to three straight SBC Tournament finals, and the first since Western Kentucky in 2001-03.

Pit Prowess - The reason for the attendance spike has a lot to do with the fact that North Texas has been nearly unbeatable at home. NT is a Sun Belt best 80-20 (.800) at the Super Pit since the 2006-07 season.

One of the nation's most respected assistant coaches, Tony Benford, has taken the reigns of the North Texas men's basketball program.

A veteran of 20 years in Division I basketball and 14 postseason appearances, Benford served as the associate head coach under Buzz Williams at Marquette last season; his fourth year with the Golden Eagles. During his time at Marquette, Benford helped recruit and coach six All-Big East players, including 2012 Big East Player of the Year Jae Crowder.

Tabbed by Basketball Times, Fox Sports and Hoop Scoop as one of the country's top assistant coaches, Benford also spent time at Nebraska (2006-08), Arizona State (1998-06) and New Mexico (1992-98) developing some of the nation's most talented players.

"I couldn't be more excited about the opportunity of taking over the basketball program at North Texas," Benford said. "I would like to thank Rick Villarreal and President V. Lane Rawlins for this opportunity, and Johnny Jones for doing such a great job in making North Texas a winner. My philosophy is all about the players, and we will do everything in ensure that our players grow in the classroom, the community and on the court."

In his career Benford recruited and coached five NBA first-round draft picks: Garland, Texas; Ike Diogu (Arizona St., '05), Charles Smith (New Mexico, '97), Kenny Thomas (New Mexico, '99), Lazar Hayward (Marquette, '10) and Jimmy Butler (Marquette, '11), as well as three second-round picks in Eddie House (Arizona St., '00), Tommy Smith (Arizona St., '03) and Jeff Pendergraph (Arizona St., '09).

A native of Hobbs, N.M., Benford played collegiately at Texas Tech and was the catalyst for the Red Raiders Southwest Conference regular-season and tournament titles in 1985, and their 1986 SWC Tournament championship. He earned All-Southwest Conference and SWC Tournament MVP honors as a senior. The Boston Celtics selected Benford in the fourth round of the 1986 NBA Draft, and he played professionally in Holland for the 1986-87 season.

With Williams and Benford at the helm at Marquette, the Golden Eagles have reached the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16 in each of the last two years. Marquette was ranked No. 11 in the final AP poll of 2012, and ranked 31st in the country in scoring offense with an average of 75.4 points per game. MU won at least 20 games and reached the NCAA Tournament in each of Benford's four years with the program.

Before arriving at Marquette, he had spent the previous two campaigns at Nebraska under head coach Doc Sadler. The Huskers collected 37 total victories in the two seasons, highlighted by a trip to the National Invitation Tournament in 2008. The squad posted 20 wins in 2007-08, just the 12th 20-win campaign in the program's 112-year history. North Texas forward Alonzo Edwards was recruited to Nebraska by Benford prior to transferring to Denton.

Benford served on the Arizona State bench as an assistant coach for his first six years in Tempe before being named associate head coach for his last two seasons. Benford helped the Sun Devils to four postseason appearances during his tenure, including earning a spot in the second round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament. While at ASU, Benford recruited Keith Wooden and George Odufuwa to Phoenix before the pair transferred to North Texas and went on to start a combined 143 games for the Mean Green.

In six seasons with New Mexico, Benford helped the Lobos reach five NCAA Tournament bids while winning 73.2 percent of their games (139-51 record). New Mexico picked up a pair of Western Athletic Conference tournament titles in 1993 and 1996, and a regular-season championship in 1994. During his stint with the Lobos, Benford coached the top four scorers in program history, including all-time leading scorer in Kenny Thomas.

As a prep all-star, Benford was a Converse All-American and the New Mexico Player of the Year after pouring in 27.5 points per game as a senior at Hobbs High School. He led Hobbs to the state title in his final season, earning MVP honors of the state championship tournament after posting 29 points in the title game.
