Tony Benford Interviews

All interviews with North Texas head coach Tony Benford must be arranged through the Media Relations Office. Please contact Stephen Howard.

Post-Game Interviews

The Mean Green locker room is closed at all times. Coach Benford and requested players will be available for interviews postgame after a brief cooling off period.

Practice Coverage

North Texas basketball practice is always open to the media. Practice times are usually scheduled for 3:30-6 p.m., and players and coaches are available for interviews prior to each practice, on a prearranged basis through the athletic media relations office.

Quick Facts

Location: Denton, Texas
Founded: 1890
Enrollment: 35,694
Nickname: Mean Green
Colors: Green and White
Home Arena: The Super Pit (10,500)
Affiliation: Division I
Conference: Sun Belt (C-USA 2013-14)
Head Coach: Tony Benford (1st Year)
Record at North Texas: 6-11, 1-5 SBC
Overall Record: Same
Program All-Time Record: 1,070-1,204-1

Quick Hitters

- P.J. Hardwick had 19 assists in the year's first 14 games, but has piled up 15 assists in the last three games.
- NT's depleted bench has been outscored 54-7 by its last two opponents' benches.
- At 1-5 in SBC play, NT is off to its toughest league start since the 2002-03 squad started 1-6 in Sun Belt action.

Magic Mark - A shooting mark of 45 percent seems to be the magic number for NT this year. NT is 5-2 when shooting 45 percent or better, but that record falls to 1-9 when it shoots under that clip. NT shot 40.4 percent against UALR on Thursday.

Banged Up - Just 17 games into the season, NT's injuries have already accounted for 27 individual games missed in 2012-13. In fact, five NT players missed Thursday's game at UALR while just seven scholarship players took the court.

Picking Up The Slack - North Texas' unfortunate injury situations have allowed others to shine:

- P.J. Hardwick has averaged 5.0 assists per game since entering the starting lineup three games ago.
- Justin Patton poured in a career-high 16 points on 6-of-11 shooting against ULM, and is averaging 10.0 points in two starts.
- Jordan Williams is averaging 13.7 points on 46.0 percent shooting over the last six outings.

Six Blocks Away - Tony Mitchell is just the second player in North Texas history to reach the century mark in blocks, and is now just six blocks shy of the NT record. The sophomore has 113 career blocks (2.8 per game), and has his eyes set on Jeffrey Simpson's school record of 119 set from 2004-06.

New Year's, Baby! - Tony Mitchell, who posted 29 points and 15 rebounds against Troy on Jan. 3, has been unstoppable in 20 career games after the start of the new year. The sophomore's career high games in points, rebounds, assists and blocks all came after the holidays.

INSIDE THE MATCHUP

• Tony Mitchell exploded for a career-high 34 points and 16 rebounds in willing NT to a 78-73 overtime win over South Alabama on Jan. 5, 2012. Mitchell had seven of his points, including two dunks, and three rebounds in the extra frame. NT held the Jaguars to 3-of-12 shooting in overtime. Freddie Goldstein led USA with 21 points, while Augustine Rubit played just 11 minutes after sustaining an injury early in the contest.

• Augustine Rubit will once again be a strong candidate for Sun Belt Player of the Year honors. The junior leads the conference in rebounding at 11.2 per game, and is second in scoring with an average of 19.3. Rubit owns nine double-doubles this year, including a pair of 30-point games.

• USA leads the all-time series with NT, 13-7, although North Texas has taken the last three meetings. The pair first met in 1991 in Mobile in a 105-98 Jaguar win, and USA took return trip to Denton the following season, 84-79. The two didn't meet again until NT joined the Sun Belt in 2000-01.

• In Denton, North Texas and South Alabama have each won five games against the other, but the Mean Green has pulled out a win in the last three. The last USA win in Denton came on Jan. 28, 2006 (89-67), when Demetric Bennett scored 21 points while helping the Jags shoot 58.5 percent.

• Tony Mitchell isn't the only NT player to have success against the Jaguars. Alzee Williams has only faced USA once (2012), but managed to pile up 15 points on 6-of-9 shooting from the floor. Chris Jones, who will miss Saturday's game, also scored 12 points last year against the Jags.

• The 3-ball could come into play in Saturday's game because of each team's philosophy of defending the paint. The squads both rank in the top three of the SBC in blocked shots, but are 10th (USA) and 11th (NT) in defensive 3-point percentage at 36.3 percent and 39.2 percent, respectively.

Running Mean Green - Transition points are the key to North Texas' game, and fast-break buckets are a pretty good indicator of Mean Green success. In wins, NT is averaging 11.7 fast-break points, but that figure drops to 6.6 in its losses.

Getting Their Best Shot - If NT's opponents were one collective team, that team would be one of the nation's top perimeter shooting squads. NT's opponents shoot 39.2 percent from 3-point and are averaging 6.8 makes per game, which would rank 27th and 97th in the nation, respectively. Eight of NT's 17 opponents have hit at least eight 3-pointers.

No Turnover Trouble Here - Thanks to Tony Benford's policy of treasuring every possession North Texas is among the best in the nation in turnover margin. NT's 12.9 turnovers per game rank second in the SBC and 88th in the NCAA.

Nation's Most Efficient - Alzee Williams is the nation's most efficient guard. The junior leads NT with 32.9 minutes per game, but has just 13 turnovers. That averages out to a turnover every 40.5 minutes - the second-best ratio in the nation.

Scott Wood - F	NC State	11	40.3
Blake Allen - G	Youngstown St.	13	37.2
Laurent Rivard - G	Harvard	12	36.9

Scoring Inside-Out - Tony Benford emphasizes paint touches in his offensive philosophy, and NT's ability to score in the lane goes a long way in the final score. NT posted a season-high tying 44 points in the paint against Jackson State.

NT Points In The Paint

Wins	Losses
37.7	26.4

Best In The Belt - With a winning percentage of 63.0, North Texas is the Sun Belt's winningest program since the 2006-07 season. NT has made four trips to the SBC Tournament finals since then, including championships in '07 and '10.

SBC Team (as of 1/10)

W-L	Win%
North Texas	133-78
Western Kentucky	137-82
Middle Tennessee	124-86
South Alabama	118-82

Glass Gurus - Owning the boards are an essential part of Tony Benford's philosophy, and NT isn't disappointing. NT ranks second in the Sun Belt in total rebounding (37.7) and leads the league in offensive rebounding (13.9 per game).

28th Ranked Recruiting Class - North Texas coach Tony Benford just laid the foundation on the nation's No. 28 ranked recruiting class according to HoopScoopOnline.com, which includes Seguin's Greg Wesley, Kingwood's Josh Friar and Oldsmar Christian big-man Tony Nunn. NT's class is ranked higher than that of any Sun Belt school or future CUSA foe.

All-American - Tony Mitchell was named a Preseason All-American by several national publications, including ESPN, CBS Sports, Athlon, Basketball Times and Blue Ribbon Report. He was also named the Sun Belt's Preseason Player of the Year. At 14.7 points and 10.3 rebounds, Mitchell joined Kentucky's Anthony Davis as the only freshmen to average a double-double.

Tough Schedule - Matchups against No. 16/15 Creighton, the NIT Season Tip-Off, St. Louis and Lehigh got the attention of USA Today, which ranked the NT schedule as the nation's fifth toughest overall, and the best by any mid-major this year.

First-Class Staff - Tony Benford brought a first-class coaching staff with him to NT. The staff owns over 100 years of collegiate coaching experience, and features Associate Head Coach Rob Evans, who has 205 head coaching wins at Arizona State and Ole' Miss. Bart Lundy, a veteran of 211 head coaching victories at High Point and Queens, came from Marquette to join Benford. David Anwar spent the last six seasons at Nebraska, and is a 12-year collegiate coaching veteran.

Third Straight Final - The Mean Green, which fell just two wins shy of its sixth consecutive 20-win season, advanced to the Sun Belt Tournament finals for a third straight year. That makes NT just the third program in Sun Belt history to advance to three straight SBC Tournament finals, and the first since Western Kentucky in 2001-03.

Pit Prowess - The reason for the attendance spike has a lot to do with the fact that North Texas has been nearly unbeatable at home. NT is a Sun Belt best 79-20 (.798) at the Super Pit since the 2006-07 season.

One of the nation's most respected assistant coaches, Tony Benford, has taken the reigns of the North Texas men's basketball program.

A veteran of 20 years in Division I basketball and 14 postseason appearances, Benford served as the associate head coach under Buzz Williams at Marquette last season; his fourth year with the Golden Eagles. During his time at Marquette, Benford helped recruit and coach six All-Big East players, including 2012 Big East Player of the Year Jae Crowder.

Tabbed by Basketball Times, Fox Sports and Hoop Scoop as one of the country's top assistant coaches, Benford also spent time at Nebraska (2006-08), Arizona State (1998-06) and New Mexico (1992-98) developing some of the nation's most talented players.

"I couldn't be more excited about the opportunity of taking over the basketball program at North Texas," Benford said. "I would like to thank Rick Villarreal and President V. Lane Rawlins for this opportunity, and Johnny Jones for doing such a great job in making North Texas a winner. My philosophy is all about the players, and we will do everything in ensure that our players grow in the classroom, the community and on the court."

In his career Benford recruited and coached five NBA first-round draft picks: Garland, Texas; Ike Diogu (Arizona St., '05), Charles Smith (New Mexico, '97), Kenny Thomas (New Mexico, '99), Lazar Hayward (Marquette, '10) and Jimmy Butler (Marquette, '11), as well as three second-round picks in Eddie House (Arizona St., '00), Tommy Smith (Arizona St., '03) and Jeff Pendergraph (Arizona St., '09).

A native of Hobbs, N.M., Benford played collegiately at Texas Tech and was the catalyst for the Red Raiders Southwest Conference regular-season and tournament titles in 1985, and their 1986 SWC Tournament championship. He earned All-Southwest Conference and SWC Tournament MVP honors as a senior. The Boston Celtics selected Benford in the fourth round of the 1986 NBA Draft, and he played professionally in Holland for the 1986-87 season.

With Williams and Benford at the helm at Marquette, the Golden Eagles have reached the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16 in each of the last two years. Marquette was ranked No. 11 in the final AP poll of 2012, and ranked 31st in the country in scoring offense with an average of 75.4 points per game. MU won at least 20 games and reached the NCAA Tournament in each of Benford's four years with the program.

Before arriving at Marquette, he had spent the previous two campaigns at Nebraska under head coach Doc Sadler. The Huskers collected 37 total victories in the two seasons, highlighted by a trip to the National Invitation Tournament in 2008. The squad posted 20 wins in 2007-08, just the 12th 20-win campaign in the program's 112-year history. North Texas forward Alonzo Edwards was recruited to Nebraska by Benford prior to transferring to Denton.

Benford served on the Arizona State bench as an assistant coach for his first six years in Tempe before being named associate head coach for his last two seasons. Benford helped the Sun Devils to four postseason appearances during his tenure, including earning a spot in the second round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament. While at ASU, Benford recruited Keith Wooden and George Odufuwa to Phoenix before the pair transferred to North Texas and went on to start a combined 143 games for the Mean Green.

In six seasons with New Mexico, Benford helped the Lobos reach five NCAA Tournament bids while winning 73.2 percent of their games (139-51 record). New Mexico picked up a pair of Western Athletic Conference tournament titles in 1993 and 1996, and a regular-season championship in 1994. During his stint with the Lobos, Benford coached the top four scorers in program history, including all-time leading scorer in Kenny Thomas.

As a prep all-star, Benford was a Converse All-American and the New Mexico Player of the Year after pouring in 27.5 points per game as a senior at Hobbs High School. He led Hobbs to the state title in his final season, earning MVP honors of the state championship tournament after posting 29 points in the title game.
