MEET & TEAM NOTES

High Hopes

North Texas enters the Conference USA Championships with high hopes for success. Historically, the team tends to finish near the middle of the pack, but the Mean Green would like to see strong regular season performances translate to post-season success. In November, North Texas picked up a win against a defending conference champion Rice team. Combine that with down-to-the-wire meets with metroplex foes SMU and TCU, and it appears that the Mean Green have the potential to turn heads in Knoxville.

Remember A Day

Tuesday, Feb. 10, was a memorable day for the team as two North Texas athletes - Krista Rossum and Jasmine Abercrombie - swept the Conference USA weekly awards. In the final league awards of the regular season, Rossum was named C-USA Swimmer of the Week after winning the 200 individual medley in a dual with SMU (2:04.56) and notching a third-place time in the 100 breaststroke. The Canadian picked up an additional win in the 400 medley relay with the conference's sixth-best time of the season (3:49.67). The award was the third Swimmer of the Week honor in Rossum's career and her second in C-USA. Abercrombie picked up conference Diver of the Week honors for the first time in her career. In a weekend of meets, the junior notched two wins and one silver finish in diving events with SMU and Oklahoma Baptist.

The Trial

North Texas last competed in a pre-conference time trial event with SMU and Oklahoma Baptist. On that day, six Mean Green athletes set new season-best times: Zoe James (24.43) and Haley Goertz (25.17) in the 50 freestyle; Ashley Stone (2:05.11), Bianca Bocsa (2:05.64) and Zoe James (2:08.33) in the 200 backstroke; Allson Crites in the one-meter dive (222.55); and Cecilia Hernandez in the three-meter dive (193.35).

Two Suns In The Sunset

The sun is setting on two of the top swimmers in North Texas history. Seniors Krista Rossum and Mona Groteguth know that the conference championships will be the last time that they suit up for the Mean Green, and they look to add to a long list of accomplishments. Rossum owns the North Texas records for breaststroke and IM events, in addition to adding four more records as a part of relay teams, and the Canadian has been an all-conference selection in each of her previous three seasons. Groteguth accounts for program records in both backstroke events, and she has contributed to North Texas bests in the 200 and 400 medley relay. A German native, Groteguth is a two-time All-Sun Belt selection, but she is still looking for her first all-conference nod in C-USA.

It's What We Do

The 2014-15 season marked the fifth year in a row that at least one North Texas diver has qualified for the Zone D Diving Meet under diving coach Jim Pynch. The team's lone qualifying mark came against TCU as sophomore Samantha Scheck recorded a 294.74 score in the one-meter dive. Pynch's influence on the diving program is hard to deny. In his seventh year as the team's diving guru, Pynch has guided Mean Green athletes to 16 diver of the week awards and three all-conference finishes.

Lost For Words

This year's freshmen have made an immediate impact in their first year for the Mean Green, and their presence is easy to see when looking at the team's top season performances. Freshmen have posted the top North Texas times in four individual events: Isabelle Morris in the 200 freestyle (1:49.18), Barbara Wasilewska in the 1000 freestyle (10:20.63) and 1650 freestyle (17:10.22), and Caroline Culpepper in the 200 butterfly (2:03.88). In addition, Sydney Buckley, Lauren Tidwell or Isabelle Morris have swam a leg in each of the team's top five relay times.

One Of The Few

Academics have been a focal point for head coach Brendon Bray, and the team's academic excellence has been noted in the coach's first two seasons. In July, North Texas received the Scholar All-America Team Award from the College Swimming Coaches Association of America after posting one of the top grade point averages in the nation. To qualify for the award, a team must achieve a team GPA of 3.0 or higher. Following the Spring 2014 semester, the Mean Green ranked 12th nationally with a 3.55 GPA after claiming the nation's second-highest team GPA in Fall 2013.

Poles Apart

It's not uncommon for collegiate swimming programs to have a mix of international influence on its roster. This year's Mean Green lineup is no different as it includes nine international swimmers from seven different countries: Michelle Balcaen, Krista Rossum and Isabelle Morris from Canada; Bianca Bocsa from Romania; Mona Groteguth from Germany; Eva Marie Oesterhus from Norway; Ash Stone from Australia; Sarah Vaisse from France; and Basia Wasilewska from Poland. North Texas can claim at least one swimmer from the other side of the world - if you were to dig a hole through the Earth from Denton, America, you'd find yourself in the Indian Ocean, just west of Ash Stone's home country of Australia.
