BRENDON BRAY - HEAD COACH

On the team's goals coming into Friday's meet:

"We just wanted to swim better than last week and we wanted to swim better today than we did at this meet a year ago. I think we did both of those things, and we had a ton of breakthroughs overall."

On impressive individual performances:

"I thought Isabelle Morris really had a big day today, especially in her 200 and 100 freestyle races. She's just on fire. Krista [Rossum] continues to put out some lifetime-best times for her in-season swims. Sydney Buckley had a phenomenal 50 fly in one of our relays, and I think she showed that she's really coming together. Our distance swimmers continue to improve, and the divers were very competitive. In terms of winning events I was pretty happy and I don't think it could've been much better."

On the team's strategy with less than a month to go:

"We've now got two or three more weeks left in the season. This ends our phase of hard work and intense training. Now we're going to start getting into more of a resting phase. I want us to get better this next week and that'll leave us with a week and a half before conference."

On where the team came up short:

"We just didn't have the depth that TCU had. For example, in the 200 free, we won that event but they took second, third and fourth. A lot of the races that we won, we weren't able to follow those up with second- or third-place finishes. At the end of the day that means a lot in dual meets. We had some good performances, we won our share of races, but we didn't quite have the depth to even the score."
