Carl Sheffield Jr.

Director of Track & Field

Fourth Year as Director; 20th at NT ▶ UTA '93

In just three years, North Texas Director of Track and Field Carl Sheffield has returned the Mean Green program to its former glory.

In 2015, Sheffield helped coached nine student-athletes qualify for the NCAA West Preliminaries during the outdoor season. Senior Shahaf Bereni qualified in the high jump and finished in the top 25 with a jump of 1.73 meters.

At the 2015 Conference USA Outdoor Championships, Sheffield helped the men's team finish sixth with three podium finishes and 14 top-8 finalists. On the women's side, two student-athletes came in the top-3 and 10 finished in the top eight.

During the indoor season, the men's team finished fifth and the women's team came in fourth thanks to three individual wins from Troy Taylor (3000 meter run), Shahaf Bereni (High Jump) and Susie Kemper (1 mile).

Under Sheffield, the Mean Green has continued to see success at the national level. North Texas has sent at least one athlete to the NCAA Championships in nine out of the last 11 years.

At the helm of the prestigious track and field program at North Texas, Sheffield has led the Mean Green to two conference championships and two runner-up titles in the last four years. The women's outdoor program won back-to-back titles in 2012 and 2013, while the women's indoor team picked up second-place honors in 2012 and 2013. The 2012 outdoor title was the best finish for the women since winning the championship in 2003.

Sheffield also guided the men's team to the most individual outdoor champions, five in 2012, since 2008 when North Texas had six individual outdoor champions.

Individually, Sheffield has been recognized for his team's success. He was named the Sun Belt Conference Outdoor Coach of the Year in 2012 and 2013. He was also named the indoor coach of the year in 2012. Under Sheffield's leadership, athletes have broken a total of 17 school records.

In 2014, Sheffield coached both Clinton Collins and Chastity Stewart to the NCAA Championship with Collins earning All-American honors with a 15th-place finish in the semifinal round of the men's 400. Both Collins and Stewart were also individual champions at the 2014 Conference USA Conference Championship.

Sheffield guided 12 athletes to qualify for the NCAA West Preliminaries in 2014. At NCAA West Prelims, the 4X400M Relay team of Connor Bey, Clinton Collins, Collin Heard and Anthony Hamilton placed 18th, and freshman Elisha Peters placed 25th in the women's high jump.

In 2013, track and field sent a combined three athletes to the NCAA Finals. It was the first time that three Mean Green athletes participating in individual events went to the NCAA Championships since 1983.

Shahaf Bereni's sixth-place finish at the NCAA West Prelims ensured her a spot at the NCAA Championships. Bereni placed seventh at the championships with a record-breaking jump of 1.83 meters, one of the top finishes in school history.

Steven White finished his career with a third-place finish in the men's 400-meter hurdles in a school record 49.32 at the NCAA Championships. White's third-place finish is the best for North Texas by an individual or relay team since Bill Schmidt finished second in the men's javelin at the championships in 1970.

In 2012, White was named an USTFCA Second-Team All-American after finishing 14th in the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships in the 400-meter hurdles. White also participated in the U.S. Olympic Trials.

Sheffield spent 12 years coaching as a Mean Green track & field assistant coach from 1996 to 2007 before departing for an opportunity to be the performance coach at the Michael Johnson Training Center in McKinney, Texas.

Under Sheffield's guidance as the sprints and hurdles coach at North Texas, his athletes established or tied over 20 school records and earned more than 70 all-conference awards from 1996-2007. The Mean Green won four team championships with Sheffield on staff, two each on the men's and women's sides.

He brings enhanced credentials through his work at the Michael Johnson Training Center where he focused on improving the ability of his athletes to integrate linear speed concepts through biomechanics, motor control and performance analysis.

Sheffield began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at LSU in 1988. The Tigers went on to win a string of 11 consecutive NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Championships. He also coached national-caliber athletes with Nike-sponsored teams in Texas and along the Atlantic coast before his first stint at North Texas.

A native of Dallas, Sheffield was one of the top-five hurdlers in the state while attending Skyline High School and attended UTA on scholarship as a high hurdler.

After earning his bachelor's degree from UTA in 1993, Sheffield earned his Master of Science from North Texas in exercise physiology in 1996. In addition to his coaching duties, he served as an adjunct instructor for North Texas from 2005-07 for the Department of Kinesiology.

Carl and his wife, Tara, have two sons, Julian and Aiden.

Derek Mackel

Assistant Coach

Sixth Year ▶ New Mexico '06

Derek Mackel begins his sixth season as an assistant track & field coach at North Texas after a three-year stint at the University of New Mexico.

Mackel works primarily with the pole vaulters, long jumpers, triple jumpers, and multi-event athletes.

During his five seasons at North Texas, Mackel has coached one All-American in Shahaf Barení, 15 all-conference student-athletes, 12 NCAA Preliminary participants and has seen seven school records broken.

In 2015, Mackel helped coach three student-athletes who qualified for the NCAA West Prelims in Mona Landry (100 meter dash, long jump), Shahaf Barení (high jump) and Jazmine Martin (triple jump).

Mackel was a part of Barení's first-place finish in the high jump at the C-USA Indoor Championship and a third-place finish at the C-USA Outdoor Championship. He also coached eight top-5 finishes and three podium finishes in Derek Richard (pole vault) and Eddie Wilcox (high jump).

Mackel's guidance of the 2014 jump squad sent three athletes to the NCAA preliminary round. Mona Landry earned third team all-conference honors in the C-USA Outdoor Championship and two other student-athletes earned all-conference status.

During 2013, junior Shahaf Barení advanced to the NCAA Championship final and became the second jumper from North Texas to earn All-American honors with a seventh-place showing at 1.83 meters (6'0"), a school record.

Chelsea Hermes broke the school record in the heptathlon at the 2013 Sun Belt Outdoor Conference Championships, and Barení broke the SBC Championships record for the second consecutive year in the high jump.

In his second season at North Texas, Mackel's athletes brought down two records at the 2012 Sun Belt Outdoor Conference Championship when Barení won the women's high jump, qualifying her to the NCAA West Prelims, and Hermes claimed the No. 1 spot in North Texas history during the heptathlon finishing the two-day competition with 5056 points and a silver medal.

The 2012 campaign saw big improvements from the women's pole vaulters as Sarah Vann took home all-conference honors during both the indoor and outdoor championships. All together, the jumps group would string 42 points up for the team score en route to being crowned team champions.

In his first season at North Texas, Mackel worked with the throwers and jumpers. He quickly made an impact as one school record fell, two vaulters qualified for the NCAA West Preliminary Round and a long jumper would earn a silver medal at the Jr. Pan-Am Championships.

In his time at New Mexico, Mackel coached pole vaulter Kyle Walker to a second-place finish, All-Mountain West Conference honors and a spot in the NCAA West Preliminary Round with a vault of 5.35m (17'4").

Mackel also worked with Sandy Fortner, the Mountain West Conference Heptathlon Champion (5723) and a qualifier to the NCAA Outdoor Championships in the heptathlon. Fortner was named the Mountain West Female Athlete of the Year in 2010. Mackel mentored pole vaulter Robert Caldwell who would go on to earn All-American honors at the 2008 NCAA outdoor championship with a sixth-place finish.

Mackel, the 2006 NCAA Midwest Regional pole vault champion, also set the Midwest Regional record in that event at 5.51m (18' 1") and was one of the great success stories in UNM track & field history. He began as an unrecruited walk-on in 2002, with a best vault of under 12' out of high school. As a Lobo, Mackel improved by more than six feet during his collegiate career, earning six letters, three All-MWC conference honors and was named MWC Athlete of the Week and Midwest Region Male Athlete of the Year.

He is a 2006 graduate of the University of New Mexico, receiving his bachelor's degree in university studies and received a master's degree in exercise science from the University of New Mexico in 2010.

Stefanie Slekis

Assistant Coach

Third Year ▶ Syracuse '10

Stefanie Slekis is in her third year as the North Texas cross country coach and the assistant coach for track and field in 2015.

In just her first three years as the cross country coach, Slekis has led the Mean Green cross-country programs to a conference championship, three third-place finishes and a runner-up finish in 2013.

A combined 22 North Texas runners received all-conference individual honors and six were named all-region in the last three years under Slekis. Slekis was named the 2014 C-USA Coach of the Year after the men's team won its first Conference USA Championship.

The men's cross country team received votes in the top 25 national rankings for the first time in school history in 2015. The men's team finished third at the C-USA championships and finished the season ranked seventh in the NCAA South Central region. Bryce McAndrew finished 17th to earn all-region status at the 2015 NCAA South Central Regional Championships.

At the 2014 NCAA South Central Regional Championships, the men and women's teams continued to surpass their previous rankings, placing within the top 10 for the second year in a row, with the men's team finishing fourth and the women's team placing eighth. Troy Taylor placed eighth in the men's 10K race, allowing him to compete in the NCAA Cross-Country National Championships.

The Mean Green distance men recorded a win, four podium finishes and seven top-eight finalists at the 2015 C-USA indoor track championships, while the women's team grabbed a win, three podium finishes and two top-eight finalists.

At the 2015 C-USA outdoor track championships, Troy Taylor earned all-conference honors placing third at the 1500 meter run, while 10 additional athletes scored team points in their events with top eight finishes.

In the 2014 indoor and outdoor track and field seasons, Slekis led the distance program to seven school records, including the men's indoor distance medley relay, indoor 5000m, and indoor 800m and the women's indoor 5000m, mile, and outdoor women's 3000m steeplechase and 10,000m.

The Mean Green distance men recorded six top-eight finishes at the 2014 C-USA Indoor Championships, while the women's side grabbed two runner-up finishes and an additional top-six finish. At the 2014 C-USA Outdoor Championships three athletes earned all-conference honors, placing in the top three in their events.

Troy Taylor and Charlotte Wilson went on to represent Mean Green distance at the 2014 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field West Preliminary Round of the National Championship. Taylor competed in the men's 1500m while Wilson competed in the women's 3000m steeplechase. Wilson also recorded the fifth fastest women's 3000m steeplechase run by any female Australian athlete during 2014 with a time of 10:13.10.

Sleakis spent the 2012-13 season as a volunteer assistant coach for Florida State's women's cross country and distance track program. During 2011-12, she served as a graduate assistant coach for the distance group at McNeese State, while completing her master's degree at Arizona State.

In her undergraduate career, she competed for Syracuse University cross-country and track & field teams and she was a three-time Big East all-academic student-athlete, earning the Athletic Director's honor-roll award all eight semesters.

During her collegiate career, Sleakis earned All-Big East honors twice as a senior, finishing eighth in the 3000-meters during the indoor season and fourth in the 3000-meter steeplechase in the outdoor season. Stefanie stood eighth in the NCAA East Region in steeplechase (10:20.68) and was a regional qualifier in the 10,000M (34:52.12.)

Her successful career started at Forest Park High School, where she earned 15 all-state honors in cross-country and track.

Brendon Kelso

Assistant Coach

Second Year ▶ Hardin-Simmons '12

Brendon Kelso is in his second year as an assistant track & field coach at North Texas after serving two years as a volunteer assistant coach. Kelso works primarily with the throwers.

During the 2015 season, Kelso guided the Mean Green throwers to two school records. The first of which occurred during indoor competition when Deja McKnight launched a throw of 17.27 meters (56'8") in the weight throw at the New Mexico Classic to solidify the furthest throw in North Texas history.

McKnight also posted the No. 3 throw in the shot put at North Texas with a toss of 14.69m (48' 2.5"), which was good for third place at the Conference USA Championships.

The second school record fell during the outdoor season when Victoria Clark unleashed a massive hammer throw measuring 55.14 meters (180' 11").

In 2014, Kelso helped coach Tom Kalisky to qualify to NCAA West National Championships Preliminary Rounds in the javelin throw with a monster throw of 64.02 meters (210'), the second-furthest throw in school history with a new rules javelin.

In his first year at North Texas, Kelso helped coach Deja McKnight to a second-place finish at the Indoor Sun Belt Conference Championships. McKnight, Victoria Clark and Ngozi Nweke claimed three of the eight scoring places in the shot put, adding 17 points to the women's team score tying the 200 meter dash for the most points scored in a single event and paved the way for the women's team to win the 2013 Women's Sun Belt Conference Outdoor Track & Field Championship.

In that same year, Aaron Sirles broke the school record in the hammer throw and took third place in the shot put at both the Indoor and Outdoor Sun Belt Conference Championships. Sirles capped his senior year with a personal best discus throw, qualifying him for the NCAA West Prelims.

Kelso also helped coach Charleston Lewis to break the school record in the 35lb weight throw. Solidifying a fourth-place finish in men's weight throw during the Sun Belt Conference Championships, John Garrish bombed a personal best and school record of 18.56 meters (60' 10.75"), surpassing Lewis' mark set earlier that season. Garrish also set the current school record in the hammer throw with a launch of 58.34 meters (191' 5"), surpassing Sirles' mark set earlier that year.

As a student-athlete at Hardin-Simmons University, Kelso competed in the 2009 DIII National Championships in the javelin throw and holds the school record in the event. He was a four-time American Southwest Conference Champion in multiple throwing events, including the javelin, shot put, and discus and was once named American Southwest Conference Championships Outstanding Field athlete and twice won the Conference Championships High Point Award.

While earning a bachelor's and master's degree from Hardin-Simmons, Kelso was named the American Southwest Conference Men's Track and Field Distinguished Scholar Athlete three times and was a member of the USTFCCA DIII Men's All-Academic Track and Field team in 2009.

Kelso is married to Alyssa Kelso.

Joe Whelan

Assistant Coach

First Year ▶ Syracuse '14

Joe Whelan is entering his first year as a volunteer assistant coach for the University of North Texas cross country and track and field teams.

Before deciding to pursue a career in coaching, Whelan was a member of Stotan Racing, a Nike sponsored post-collegiate running club based in Syracuse, NY from 2014-2015.

Whelan was also NCAA Division I student-athlete for Syracuse University from 2009 to 2014, where he earned a bachelor of science in public health. The Hamburg, New York native, helped lead the Orange make four NCAA Division I Cross Country Championship appearances, record two Big East Cross Country Championship victories (2010, 2012), and win the 2015 ACC Cross Country Championship title, the first ACC title in school history.

On the track, Whelan's accolades include two appearances at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships East Preliminary Rounds. At this meet in 2012, he posted his personal best time in 3000-meter steeplechase of 8:53.53, placing 17th. He was a multiple-time scorer on the track at the conference level.

Whelan represented the United States in the 3000-meter steeplechase internationally at the 2009 Pan-American Junior Track and Field Championships, qualifying with a runner-up finish at the 2009 USA Junior Track and Field Championships.

Prior to Syracuse University, Whelan attended Hamburg High School and was the 2008 Gatorade Player of the Year in New York. During his senior year, he earned a ninth-place finish earning All-American honors at the 2008 Footlocker Cross Country Championships and was the New York cross country state champion.

At Syracuse University, Whelan received multiple Big East Honor Roll, ACC Honor Roll and Dean's List academic achievements.
