Professional Organizations

The Center for an Accessible Society (<http://www.accessiblesociety.org>)

The Center for an Accessible Society's goal is to focus public attention on disability and independent living issues by disseminating information developed through NIDRR-funded research to promote independent living. With the end of NIDRR-funding, the Center is on hiatus, pending future funding.

International Association of Rehabilitation Professionals (www.rehabpro.org/)

IARP unites rehab professionals across North America and beyond to promote the availability of services for persons with disabilities. IARP serves a diverse membership practicing in the fields of long-term disability and disability management consulting, case management and managed care, forensics and expert testimony, life care planning, and Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) consulting. IARP supports professional growth, fosters rehabilitation research and management innovation and strives to shape public policy favorable to private-sector rehabilitation.

National Rehabilitation Counseling Association, [NRCA] (nrca-net.org/)

A division of the NRA for rehabilitation counselors; strives to meet the professional interests and needs of all rehabilitation counselors.
