Course Catalog Description: This course fulfills TSI requirements for students who have not passed the writing portion of the Texas Higher Education Assessment with a score of 7 prior to enrolling in the university or who are not otherwise exempt. The course content covers sentence formation, emphasizes audience, purpose and occasion, and focuses on skills needed for argumentation and exposition. Students must complete the requirements of the course with a grade of C or better in order to meet the prerequisite for ENGL 1310 or ENGL 1313. UGRW 1200 does not apply to degree.

This non-course-based program includes workshops, tutorials, and self-paced instruction. This program option is generally available to students for only one semester. The professor of record monitors student progress in the non-course-based program throughout the semester while the student is concurrently enrolled in English 1313. At any point during the semester, based on assessments by the professor of record, the student may cease participation in UGRW 1200 and mainstream in English 1313.

Definition of Non-Course Competency-Based Developmental Education Interventions: Interventions that use innovative learning approaches designed to address a student's identified weaknesses and effectively and efficiently prepare the student for college-level work. These interventions must be overseen by an instructor of record, must not fit traditional course frameworks, and cannot include advising or learning support activities already connected to a traditional course. Interventions may include, but are not limited to, tutoring, supplemental instruction, or labs.

Prerequisites: NA

Co-requisites: This course runs concurrently with English 1313.

Required Text: There is no text for this course. All materials are provided within the BB shell. Note: Students will need a flash drive to maintain course assignments.

TOPICS	TIMELINE
Before we begin, please keep this idea in mind. We are in this together. Your professor wants to help you get from where you are to where you want to be with your writing in preparation for your next English course and your other university courses. To achieve that goal, we will constantly strive for the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">  demonstrate a process approach to writing;  generate topics and supporting details from one's personal and  educational experience;  write an essay with a three-part structure (introduction/body/conclusion) that makes a  point; support general statements with specific details and  examples; recognize the difference between writing for an audience and writing  for self; employ a strong writer's voice and revise and edit writing for  standard written English; identify the parts of speech; and develop proofreading strategies to be able to edit  writing for the following errors: apostrophes in contractions, possessives, and misused apostrophes; articles and prepositions; awkward wording; capitalization; commas with items in a series, coordinating conjunctions, introductory clauses, phrases, and transitional devices, and unnecessary commas; ten commonly confused words - a/an/and; are/our; it's/its; knew/know/new/no; than/then; their/there/they're; to/too/two; were/we're/where; whose/who's; your/you're - parallelism; omitted words and letters; pronoun case, agreement, and reference; quotation marks; run-ons and sentence fragments; subject-verb agreement; verb tense consistency; and document design. The weekly general content follows below.	The time frame is on-going throughout the course and in the future as a critical part of life-long learning.

University Policies and Procedures

Students with Disabilities (ADA Compliance):

The University of North Texas Dallas faculty is committed to complying with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Any student requesting academic accommodations based on disability is required to register with Disability Services each semester. A letter of verification for approved accommodations can be obtained from the disability office. Please be sure the letter is delivered to me as early in the semester as possible. For more information, you may visit the Student Life Office, Suite 200, Building 2 (open Mon – Friday 8:30am to 5:00 pm) or call 972-338-1775.

Student Evaluation of Teaching Effectiveness Policy:

The Student Evaluation of Teaching Effectiveness (SETE) is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. This short survey will be made available to you at the end of the semester, providing you a chance to comment on how this class is taught. I am very interested in the feedback I get from students, as I work to continually improve my teaching. I consider the SETE to be an important part of your participation in this class.

Assignment Policy:

All required assignments and discussion boards must be submitted by the posted due dates and in the proper MLA format to receive credit. Part of the format that is expected is that all final drafts of essays, journals, free writes, summaries, etc are to be submitted as both paper copies and digital submissions in the location that the professor specifies by the start of class. Failure to turn in one of the two submissions on time results in a 0. All work must be created solely for the purposes of this class and must be the student’s own. Students should keep a copy of all materials handed in during the course. Grades will be updated every week and feedback given through email, Bb comments, turnitin.com and/or rubrics. NO LATE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED. Grades are posted as the grading is completed. Students have access to the grade book at all times.

Exam Policy: Exams should be taken as scheduled. No makeup examinations will be allowed except for documented emergencies (See Student Handbook).

Academic Integrity:

Academic integrity is a hallmark of higher education. You are expected to abide by the University’s code of Academic Integrity policy. Any person suspected of academic dishonesty (i.e., cheating or plagiarism) will be handled in accordance with the University’s policies and procedures. Refer to the Student Code of Academic Integrity at http://www.untDallas.edu/sites/default/files/page_level2/pdf/policy/7.002%20Code%20of%20Academic_Integrity.pdf for complete provisions of this code.

In addition, all academic work submitted for this class, including exams, papers, and written assignments should include the following statement:

On my honor, I have not given, nor received, nor witnessed any unauthorized assistance that violates the UNTD Academic Integrity Policy.

Bad Weather Policy:

On those days that present severe weather and driving conditions, a decision may be made to close the campus. In case of inclement weather, call UNT Dallas Campuses main voicemail number (972) 780-3600 or search postings on the campus website <http://www.untDallas.edu/>. Students are encouraged to update their Eagle Alert contact information, so they will receive this information automatically.

Attendance and Participation Policy:

The University attendance policy is in effect for this course. Class attendance and participation is expected because the class is designed as a shared learning experience and because essential information not in the textbook will be discussed in class. Students are responsible to notify the instructor if they are missing class and for what reason. Students are also responsible to make up any work covered in class. It is recommended that each student coordinate with a student colleague to obtain a copy of the class notes, if they are absent.

http://www.untDallas.edu/sites/default/files/page_level2/pdf/policy/7.005%20Student%20Attendance.pdf

In addition to the above information, an excessive absence pattern may be an important factor in determining quiz, assignment, and test makeups as well as in averaging borderline letter grades. The policy for this course is as follows. More than three unexcused absences may lead to a failing grade for the course.

Diversity/Tolerance Policy Students are encouraged to contribute their perspectives and insights to class discussions. However, offensive & inappropriate language (swearing) and remarks offensive to others of particular nationalities, ethnic groups, sexual preferences, religious groups, genders, or other ascribed statuses will not be tolerated. Disruptions which violate the Code of Student Conduct will be referred to the Office of Student Life as the instructor deems appropriate.

Other Policies:

- I reserve the right to amend this syllabus as needed when needed.
- Use of Blackboard is an essential part of the course.
- Use of Cell Phones & other Electronic Gadgets in the Classroom is prohibited unless specifically requested by the professor.
- Please do not bring Food & Drink in the Classroom.
- Use of Laptops is fine for class work. Surfing the web and e-mailing is rude and un-professional and cannot be tolerated.
- Avoid a "Grade of Incomplete" by completing all work. Any assignment not completed will be averaged as a zero <http://www.untDallas.edu/search/node/incomplete>
