VAMPIRE PROGRAM CCOP-01A: RECONDITIONING OF BLOOD PRODUCT STORAGE CONTAINERS USED FOR TACTICAL EVACUATION

Appendix A – REVIEW AND APPROVAL FOR :
1. When the blood issuing facility (BSD/MTF/LAB) is u unit FSO/SMO will submit ETP request to the JBPO offind blood-program@mail.mil, with the following information	ce at centcom.macdill.centcom-hq.mbx.ccsg-joint-
a. Unit requesting ETP and their contact information.
b. Blood issuing facility name, location and point of contact.
c. Confirmation of mandatory supply items (GHCs; Harining requirements.	lemacool or other Freezer) and completion of
*B lood products will not be held beyond 48 hours issuing facility.	but will be returned and exchanged with the
2. It is the responsibility of the FSO/SMO, Senior Traini personnel implementing CCOP-01A remain current for t skills to safely implement reconditioning of blood storag requirements. a. FSO/SMO Signature of Approval.	he length of the units deployment in all required
•
(1) Name/Rank	Date
(2) Unit Email
b. Senior Training NCO Signature of Approval.
(1) Name/Rank	Date
(2) Email	_
c. Unit Commander Signature of Approval.
(1) Name/Rank	Date
(2) Email	_
d. FSO/SMO will forward a signed copy to the JBPO joint-blood-program@mail.mil.
3. JBPO has reviewed and approved implementation of C	CCOP-01A for:
(Insert Unit Name)

b. JBPO will forward a signed copy to the requesting unit FSO/SMO.

a. JBPO Signature of Approval.

c. JBPO will maintain a copy of approval record for length of the unit's deployment.

(1) Name/Rank Date

4. Once signed by JBPO, this protocol will be in effect the length of deployment but not to exceed 12 months. For deployments scheduled beyond 12 months, protocol will be reviewed prior to the end of 12 months and resigned by the FSO/SMO, Senior Training NCO, Unit Commander and the JBPO.