One issue that was raised was the concern of the Corps of Engineers not returning the associated funerary objects with the cultural unidentifiable remains. Out of this concern the St. Louis District held two listening sessions with the Tribes to hear their concerns. First session with Osage and Eastern Shawnee Tribes, to hear their concerns on the disposition of the Culturally Unidentifiable human remains (CUI) and associated funerary objects. Second session with United Keetoowah Band of Cherokee, Creek, Pawnee, Sac & Fox of Oklahoma, Osage Nation, Eastern Shawnee, Delaware Nation, Alabama Quassarta, Choctaw, Thlopthlocco Tribal Town, Chickasaw, and Peoria.	Out of both listening sessions the Corps of Engineers guidance for CUI stated the Corps should return the associated funerary objects.

	2011-2012	Sac & Fox Tribe of the Mississippi in Iowa	IL	Consultation letter regarding human remains recovered in Pike County, IL	Human remains recovered from John Hay Recreation Area on Mississippi River in Pike County, IL. Remains were recovered as part of a criminal investigation by Pike County Sheriff's Department, although Corps was not notified until after remains had been sent to FBI Laboratory Division in Quantico, VA. FBI forensic anthropologist determined remains were likely prehistoric although they could not be identified conclusively. It is highly unlikely that the remains were in situ as several of the remains had been "glued" back together and the landform from which they were recovered was very recent (<100 years old). Corps notified seven tribal groups of the discovery by letter dated 16 Mar.	No responses were received. The remains are presently curated at the Illinois State Museum in Springfield, Illinois and consultation is ongoing.
