RESPONSIBILITIES

1. UNDER SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FOR INTELLIGENCE (USD(I)). In accordance with Reference (a), the USD(I):

a. Provides policy, direction, and oversight for DoD security education, training, and certification programs to the DoD Components and assigns education, training, and security responsibilities as necessary.

b. Reviews DoD security education, training certification programs, and standards and provides recommendations to the DoD Components.

c. Develops and distributes security education, training, and certification guidance in accordance with the strategic planning guidance, defense intelligence guidance, and other appropriate OSD policy guidance to identify security education, training, and certification requirements during the program and budget build and during development of supplemental requests. Reviews these requirements and provides additional guidance as needed.

d. Evaluates and approves education, training, and certification recommendations from the DSTC and DoD Components via the DITEB on policies, standards, responsibilities, or related security professional development matters.

e. Coordinate with the Under Secretary for Personnel and Readiness (USD(P&R)) policies on security education, training, and certification of military personnel.

f. Coordinate the content of specialized training courses for international program security and foreign disclosure with Office of the Secretary of Defense for Policy (OUSDP).

2. DIRECTOR, DSS. Under the authority, direction, and control of the USD(I), the Director, DSS:

a. Establishes and maintains DoD security professional development programs in accordance with References (a), (c), (f) and DoDI 1400.25, Volume 2010 (Reference (h)).

b. Establishes security education and training standards in cooperation with the DoD Component heads.

c. Requests recommendations from the DSTC on policies, standards, responsibilities, and related matters to facilitate security education, training and certification.

d. Utilizes established education and training analysis, design, development, implementation, and evaluation processes to determine the most effective and efficient method of education and training delivery, to include instructor-led, distance learning, blended-learning, job aids, or other means of instructional delivery, to meet mission requirements.

e. Develops and conducts assessments and evaluations of DoD security education, training, and certification programs to determine the effectiveness, efficiency, and compliance within the DoD.

f. Collaborates and provides periodic program updates to the OSD security Functional Community Manager, USD(I), and Defense Security Enterprise Executive Committee (DSE ExCom) addressing security education, training, and certification program management and implementation.

g. Manages the DSTC:

(1) The DSTC serves as an advisory body on DoD security education and training to the USD(I) and is managed by the Director of the DSS as the functional manager for the execution of DoD security training. The DSTC provides a forum for DoD entities to discuss and coordinate security education and training issues and policies, recommend education and training standards and criteria, identify emerging education and training needs, and promote professional development and certification programs for the security practitioner workforce.

(2) The DSTC serves as the governance board for the SPeD Certification Program.

(3) Membership in the DTSC is comprised of DoD entities with security responsibilities and others as determined by the Chair.

h. Appoints the Chair of the DSTC, who:

(1) Calls a meeting of the DSTC at least annually.

(2) Chairs DSTC meetings, schedules meetings, approves agenda and maintains DSTC documentation.

(3) Charters working groups to research and provide solutions to the DSTC on specified topics.

(4) Prepares and coordinates DSTC reports to the Director, DSS and USD(I).

(5) Represents the DSTC on the DITEB.

(6) Prepares, coordinates, and presents DSTC recommendations and requirements to the Director, DSS, USD(I) and DITEB as applicable.

3. USD(P&R). In accordance with Reference (e), The USD(P&R) coordinates with the USD(I) military training policies as they apply to security education, training and certification.

4. UNDER SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FOR POLICY (USD(P)). Pursuant to DoDD 5111.1 (Reference (i)), the USD(P):

- a. Provides policy, direction and oversight for DoD international program security and foreign disclosure training.
- b. Develops and distributes security training for international programs and foreign disclosure.

5. DoD COMPONENT HEADS AND COMMANDANT OF THE U.S. COAST GUARD (USCG). The DoD Component heads and the Commandant of the USCG:

- a. Allocate resources and provide security education, training, and certification to security personnel in accordance with DSS security education, training, and certification standards.
- b. Incorporate guidance from the USD(I) and the Director, DSS, to facilitate the security education, training and certification of their security personnel.
- c. Implement policies, procedures, programs, and requirements as specified in this instruction.
- d. Conduct periodic review and analysis of DoD Component-unique security education and training curriculums and share the results of this analysis for potential consolidation of DoD Components' training efforts.
- e. Assemble, maintain, and forward to the Director, DSS, a record of all security education and training requirements and programs under their responsibility.
- f. Appoint a representative to the DSTC.
- g. Submit proposed DSTC agenda and action items to DSTC Chair.
- h. Will coordinate the content of specialized training courses for international program and foreign disclosure with OUSDP.
