 - (f) DoD Instruction O-5205.11, "Management, Administration, and Oversight of DoD Special Access Programs (SAP)," July 1, 1997

1. PURPOSE. This Instruction:

a. Reissues Reference (a) as a DoD Instruction in accordance with the authority in Reference (b) to update policy and responsibilities for the DTIRP as a DoD arms control security preparedness and outreach program consistent with References (c) and (d).

b. Designates the Director, Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA), under the authority, direction, and control of Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology, and Logistics (USD(AT&L)), as the DoD Lead Agent for the DTIRP and as Chair of the DTIRP Coordination Group (CG).

c. Directs a security support program to ensure the continued protection of DoD programs, operations, and activities.

2. APPLICABILITY. This Instruction applies to OSD, the Military Departments, the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Joint Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD

Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the Department of Defense (hereafter referred to collectively as the “DoD Components”).

3. DEFINITIONS. For the purpose of this Instruction, the term “DTIRP” is defined as a DoD security preparedness and outreach program designed to provide security education and awareness concerning arms control implementation operational activities. It provides arms control implementation advice and assistance to sites subject to on-site inspection and overflight through the use of specially trained personnel, analyses, and educational activities, utilizing expertise from established facilities and services in the Department of Defense and other Government agencies, whenever practicable, to avoid duplication and achieve maximum efficiency and economy.

4. POLICY. It is DoD policy that:

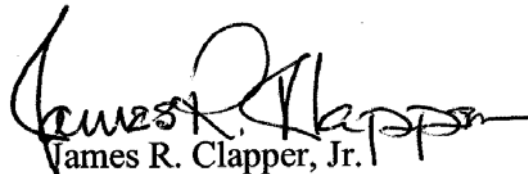

a. Security countermeasures support for implementation of arms control agreements and related activities shall be integrated and coordinated within existing DoD security and counterintelligence (CI) programs to ensure a consistent and focused approach for the protection of national security interests.

b. The DoD Component responsible for any action taken or directed under this Instruction affecting an industrial facility shall be the DoD Component that either administers or is obligated to fund a contract involving that industrial facility. Any contact with the facility involving DTIRP matters shall be coordinated with each DoD Component administering or funding a contract at that facility.

5. RESPONSIBILITIES. See Enclosure.

6. RELEASABILITY. UNLIMITED. This Instruction is approved for public release and is available on the Internet from the DoD Issuances Web Site at <http://www.dtic.mil/whs/directives>.

7. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Instruction is effective immediately.

James R. Clapper, Jr.
Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence

Enclosure
Responsibilities

ENCLOSURE

RESPONSIBILITIES

1. UNDER SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FOR INTELLIGENCE (USD(I)). The USD(I), in addition to the responsibilities in paragraph 9 of this enclosure, shall provide security policy, guidance, and oversight to the DTIRP consistent with Reference (b), and in coordination with the USD(AT&L) consistent with References (c) and (d).

2. DIRECTOR, NATIONAL SECURITY AGENCY (DIRNSA). The DIRNSA, in addition to the responsibilities in paragraph 9 of this enclosure and under the authority, direction, and control of the USD(I), shall provide information systems security and operations security assistance to the DTIRP, to include research, analyses, and augmentees for assistance teams as requested by the Director, DTRA.

3. DIRECTOR, DEFENSE INTELLIGENCE AGENCY (DIA). The Director, DIA, in addition to the responsibilities in paragraph 9 of this enclosure and under the authority, direction, and control of the USD(I), shall:
 - a. Provide all source intelligence support to the DTIRP, to include research and analyses, database development analyses, and personnel to augment assistance teams as requested by the Director, DTRA.

 - b. Provide intelligence and security countermeasures analyses in the areas of technology transfer, open source literature, imagery assessment, and other relevant areas as requested by the Director, DTRA.

4. DIRECTOR, DEFENSE SECURITY SERVICE (DSS). The Director, DSS, in addition to the responsibilities in paragraph 9 of this enclosure and under the authority, direction, and control of the USD(I), shall:
 - a. Provide assistance in arms control security matters to DoD contractor facilities; disseminate arms control security countermeasure information; and, when deemed appropriate, provide personnel to augment assistance teams as requested by the Director, DTRA.

 - b. Direct the Director, Defense Security Service Academy, to develop and conduct training on arms control security countermeasures in coordination with the Director, Special Access Program Central Office, Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (USD(P)).

5. USD(AT&L). The USD(AT&L), in addition to the responsibilities in paragraph 9 of this enclosure, shall:

a. Provide DTIRP participants with treaty compliance guidance pursuant to this Instruction and Reference (c).

b. Oversee assistance in facility preparation in support of implementation and compliance with arms control agreements and request DTIRP assistance, as appropriate.

6. DIRECTOR, DTRA. The Director DTRA, as DoD Lead Agent for the DTIRP, in addition to the responsibilities in paragraph 9 of this enclosure and under the authority, direction, and control of the USD(AT&L), shall manage the DTRIP program consistent with Reference (d) and shall:

a. Coordinate with the USD(I) to ensure DTIRP activities adequately support DoD security protection requirements.

b. Chair the DTIRP CG, which shall be composed of full-time or permanent part-time Federal officers or employees.

c. Develop, plan, and execute the DTIRP to provide arms control treaty inspection advice and support to the DoD Components and DoD contractor facilities responsible for protecting DoD equities subject to arms control implementation activities on an as-requested basis.

d. Conduct outreach activities to promote arms control security awareness, to include the development of arms control educational materials in coordination with the appropriate OSD treaty management office and the dissemination of outreach products.

e. Recruit, train, equip, and manage the activities of DTIRP assistance teams.

f. Conduct analyses of arms control-specific threats to determine susceptibility and vulnerability of U.S. equities.

g. Provide CI support to the DTIRP process, to include augmentees for assistance teams, technical training, and analyses; coordinate support for DTIRP CI activities with the DoD Components.

h. With USD(AT&L) approval, coordinate with the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Global Security Affairs, under the authority, direction, and control of the USD(P), to provide advice and assistance on arms control security planning to non-defense agencies and industrial facilities, when requested and when authorized, subject to reimbursement, as appropriate.

i. Coordinate with the Director, Defense Security Service Academy, or other training organizations, as appropriate, to assist in the development and execution of a comprehensive training program on arms control agreement issues, to include both industrial and Government security matters, and provide necessary resources as required.

j. Coordinate, within the DTIRP CG, the formulation of DTIRP requirements documents, advice on security risks associated with arms control inspection activities, software development, analyses, training, and outreach activities.

k. Invite the DoD Components and, in consultation with the USD(AT&L), invite other U.S. Government agencies having any involvement with arms control to provide representatives to the CG; convene CG meetings as required.

l. Develop DTIRP budget requirements and execute the budget in support of the Lead Agent mission.

m. Take the lead for DTIRP public affairs (PA) activities, to include leading PA planning, guidance, and development of fact sheets in coordination with the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Public Affairs.

n. Provide DTIRP updates on at least a quarterly basis to the Director of Security, Office of the USD(I).

o. Provide general assistance to the DTIRP for arms control treaty verification research, development, test and engineering, and nuclear matters.

p. Coordinate with the USD(P) to ensure DTIRP contacts with non-DoD personnel and foreign nationals seeking any form of arms control security education and awareness, advice, or assistance do not compromise U.S. Government positions being negotiated.

7. USD(P). The USD(P), in addition to the responsibilities in paragraph 9 of this enclosure, shall:

a. Provide DTIRP participants with information on DoD policies and U.S. Government positions for international negotiations on arms control implementation and/or compliance issues.

b. Provide security countermeasures policy guidance and security oversight to the Heads of DoD Components, their respective special access program (SAP) central offices, and the DoD SAP Oversight Committee to ensure DTIRP assistance adequately supports DoD SAPs, when required, in accordance with DoD Directive 5205.07 (Reference (e)) and DoD Instruction O-5205.11 (Reference (f)).

8. DIRECTOR, DEFENSE INFORMATION SYSTEMS AGENCY (DISA). The Director, DISA, in addition to the responsibilities in paragraph 9 of this enclosure and under the authority, direction, and control of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Networks and Information Integration/DoD Chief Information Officer, shall provide multidiscipline security and intelligence support to the DTIRP in the area of communications research and analyses as well as personnel to assist in assessments as requested by the Director, DTRA.

9. HEADS OF THE DoD COMPONENTS. The Heads of DoD Components shall:

- a. Provide security guidance, support, and oversight to their component commands, and coordinate and approve requests for DTIRP support.
- b. Provide personnel to augment assistance teams as requested by the Director, DTRA.
- c. If involved with arms control implementation, ensure facilities, activities, and programs, wherever located, have cost-effective security plans, policies, and procedures that appropriately consider arms control agreements.
- d. Coordinate CI and security countermeasures analyses and support with the Director, DTRA.

10. CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF. The Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, in addition to the responsibilities in paragraph 9 of this enclosure and as a member of the DTIRP CG, shall:

- a. Provide military advice and assistance to the Director, DTRA, in implementing this Instruction in accordance with Reference (c).
- b. Provide guidance for support to the Combatant Commands and coordinate on their requests for DTIRP support.
