

Deputy Chief Management Officer of the Department of Defense
ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTION

NUMBER 33
December 17, 2015

HRD, WHS

SUBJECT: Merit Promotion Plan

References: See Enclosure 1

1. PURPOSE. This administrative instruction (AI):

a. Reissues AI 33 (Reference (a)) in accordance with the authority in DoD Directive 5110.04 (Reference (b)) and DoD Instruction 5025.01 (Reference (c)).

b. Implements policy, assigns responsibilities, and provides procedures for selection of employees covered by the merit promotion requirements of part 335 of Title 5, Code of Federal Regulations (Reference (d)).

2. APPLICABILITY. This AI:

a. Applies to:

(1) OSD and those Defense Agencies, DoD Field Activities, and other components of the DoD that receive human resource services from Washington Headquarters Services (WHS).

(2) All competitive service positions at General Schedule 15 or equivalent (e.g., NH-IV, AD-15) and below, to include wage grade positions that require a competitive selection as defined in part 335 of Reference (d). It may be used by selecting officials, if appropriate, for excepted service positions. Bargaining unit positions may be subject to provisions of a negotiated agreement.

(3) Positions filled by:

(a) Competitive promotion.

(b) Performance-based promotion.

(c) Time limited or temporary promotion to a higher-graded position for more than 120 days.

(d) Transfer to a position at a higher grade or to a position with more promotion potential than a position previously held on a permanent basis in the competitive service.

(e) Reinstatement to a permanent or temporary position at a higher grade or with more promotion potential than a position previously held on a permanent basis in the competitive service.

(f) Detail for more than 120 days to a position at a higher grade or with more promotion potential than a position previously held on a permanent basis in the competitive service.

(g) Reassignment or demotion to a position with more promotion potential than a position previously held on a permanent basis in the competitive service.

(h) Selection for training programs that is part of an authorized training agreement, part of a promotion program, or required before an employee may be considered for promotion pursuant to part 410 of Reference (d).

b. Does not apply to:

(1) Organizations operating under separate agency merit promotion plans or negotiated agreements or employees under the Defense Civilian Intelligence Personnel System.

(2) Promotions resulting from an upgrade in the position without significant change in duties and responsibilities as a result of a classification decision.

(3) A position change permitted by reduction in force procedures.

(4) Promotion to full performance level when the promotion potential was made known in the original vacancy announcement.

(5) Promotion resulting from upgrading of a position due to added duties and responsibilities, when no other employees in the immediate organization are assigned to the same type of position.

(6) Promotion or detail to a higher grade position for 120 days or less.

(7) Promotion to a grade previously held on a permanent basis in the competitive service or to a position with promotion potential no greater than the position previously held on a permanent basis in the competitive service from which the employee was separated or demoted for reasons other than performance or conduct.

(8) Consideration of a candidate not given proper consideration in a competitive promotion action.

(9) Reassignment, demotion, transfer, reinstatement, or detail to a position having promotion potential no greater than the potential of a position the employee previously held in the competitive service from which the employee was separated or demoted for reasons other than performance or conduct.

3. POLICY

a. Merit promotions or selections must be based solely upon job related criteria and must be made in accordance with section 335.103 of Reference (d), DoD Directive 1020.02E (Reference (e)), and Administrative Instruction 31 (Reference (f)).

b. All aspects of the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) and DoD Priority Placement Program requirements will be followed (including the OPM Interagency Career Transition Assistance Plan for displaced employees), where appropriate, as required by part 330 of Reference (d) and Volume 1800 of DoD Instruction 1400.25 (Reference (g)).

c. Absent employees within the area of consideration will receive appropriate consideration for promotion if their absence is for legitimate reasons such as their being:

(1) On detail;

(2) On temporary reassignment;

(3) On leave;

(4) At training courses;

(5) In the military service;

(6) Serving in public international organizations; or

(7) On assignments in accordance with sections 3371-3376 of Title 5, United States Code (also known as the "Intergovernmental Personnel Act") (Reference (h)).

d. Selection rules for Veterans' Preference-eligible or Military Spouse Preference-eligible individuals must be observed.

e. Sufficient records will be maintained to allow reconstruction of each selection and to provide information required by part 335 of Reference (d).

f. Selecting officials will give due weight to performance appraisals and incentive awards.

g. Supervisors and managers have the right to select or not select from among a group of best qualified applicants or a referral certificate. They may also select from other appropriate sources as listed in Reference (d).

4. RESPONSIBILITIES

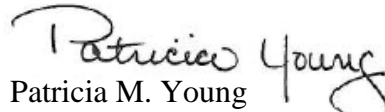

a. Director, WHS. Under the authority, direction, and control of the Deputy Chief Management Officer of the Department of Defense and through the Director of Administration, Office of the Deputy Chief Management Officer, the Director, WHS, develops guidance for merit promotion within the organizations assigned for administrative support.

b. Director, WHS Human Resources Directorate. Under the authority, direction, and control of the Director, WHS, the Director, WHS Human Resources Directorate establishes procedures for merit promotion.

5. PROCEDURES. See Enclosure 2.

PROCEDURES

1. The following apply to all merit promotion actions.

a. Interviews are encouraged. The selecting official may use discretion in determining which and how many applicants are interviewed using job-related questions. The selecting officials may interview all, some, or none of the applicants.

2. The following apply to the performance based promotion process.

a. Selecting officials should consider a minimum of 3 employees within an organizational unit, if practicable.

b. Each employee being considered must have received a recent exceptional (or equivalent) annual rating.

(1) Employees who received an exceptional rating may be promoted to a vacant position in a higher grade when the vacant position has the same occupational code (or related interdisciplinary or inter-occupational code) and similar function as the position the employee held at the time he or she received the exceptional rating.

(2) WHS Human Resources Directorate must complete a final qualifications determination for all employees that do not currently hold a position in the series advertised.

(3) Managers using performance based promotions are required to notify all eligible employees within the area of consideration by an internal vacancy announcement with a minimum open period of 5 working days.

(4) Notification must include position title, pay plan, series, grade, opening date, closing date, conditions of employment, and salary range. The Figure is a sample announcement.
