

Temporary Housing Mission Overview

- Temporary Housing is a highly visible mission.
- Success requires teamwork (FEMA/COE/State/Local) and advanced planning.
- FEMA's steps to providing housing relief:
 1. Provide rental and home repair assistance.
 2. FEMA may consider increasing limits on individual assistance (home repair limits, rental limits, self-help Manufactured Housing Units (MHU) on private sites).
 3. As a last resort, community group site development utilizing (Manufactured Housing Units (MHUs) may be considered:
 - a. Depending on capabilities, the State may procure, transport, and set up units.
 - b. In some cases, the Federal Government may take the lead (with State/Local cooperation).
- Options for Temporary Housing:
 - Temporary Community Group Sites
 - Replacement/rehabilitation of existing commercial parks
 - Installation of MHUs at private home sites
 - Development of new Community Group Sites
- State, County, Township and City assistance with:
 - Site identification
 - Leasing and right-of-ways
 - Compliance with codes/permits
 - Community Group Site management
 - Deactivation/site restoration
