MEMORANDUM FOR ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF THE ARMY (MANPOWER AND RESERVE AFFAIRS)

SUBJECT: Delegation of Authority – Approval of Professional Liability Insurance (PLI)
Reimbursement Requests

1. References:

a. Section 636 of the Treasury, Postal Service, and General Appropriations Act, 1997 (Public Law (PL) 104-208), as amended by Section 642 of the Treasury and General Government Appropriations Act for Fiscal Year 2000 (PL 106-58).

b. Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Force Management Policy) memorandum, June 6, 2000, subject: Professional Liability Insurance.

2. I hereby delegate to the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Manpower and Reserve Affairs) the authority to determine eligibility and to make payments to reimburse qualified employees for costs incurred for professional liability insurance. This authority will be exercised in accordance with the guidance prescribed in the above references.

3. When the position of the ASA(M&RA) is vacant, as defined by the law governing vacancies, or the ASA(M&RA) is temporarily absent or otherwise not available to take timely action, the Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army (PDASA(M&RA)) or the designated Senior Official performing the duties of the ASA(M&RA) may exercise the authorities set forth in paragraph 2, above.

4. Unless expressly prohibited or restricted by law, directive, regulation, or policy, or as set forth herein, the ASA(M&RA), the PDASA(M&RA) or the designated Senior Official, as appropriate under the circumstances outlined above, may further delegate this authority, in whole or in part, to other Department of the Army officials, down to the lowest practicable level, but not lower than an installation commander or activity head. Should the ASA(M&RA), PDASA(M&RA) or designated Senior Official elect to delegate this authority further, each will remain cognizant of, and accountable for, all actions taken in the exercise of this authority, at any level of the Army. Any further delegation may restrict or condition the delegate's exercise of this authority. A re-delegation of authority shall not be effective unless it is in writing, signed by the ASA(M&RA), PDASA(M&RA) or Senior Official, and has been determined not to be legally objectionable upon review by the Office of the Army General Counsel. No re-delegation shall take effect until a record copy of same has been provided to the Office of the Administrative Assistant for archiving.

SUBJECT: Delegation of Authority – Approval of Professional Liability Insurance (PLI) Reimbursement Requests

5. Although not a limitation on the authority of the ASA(M&RA), PDASA(M&RA) or Senior Official to act in those cases specified above where the proposed decision represents a change in precedent or policy; is of significant White House, Congressional, Department, or public interest; or has been, or should be, of interest or concern to me, for any reason, brief me prior to rendering your decision, unless the exigencies of the situation preclude such action. Continue my practice of coordination with the Office of the Army General Counsel.

6. This delegation is effective immediately and expires April 3, 2017, unless earlier revoked or superseded.
