

A DLA recruiter attended the Fort Belvoir Career Fair on Oct. 22, 2015. The event was hosted by the Employment Readiness Program of Army Community Service. It was open to all Fort Belvoir military and civilian personnel. The DLA table was visited by prospective employees with a wide range of experience to include logistics, information technology, program management, human resources, and telecommunications.