LEARN ABOUT INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES FOR CURRENT STUDENTS ONLINE

The United States Intelligence Community (IC), an integrated network of agencies that work together to protect our nation's security, has internship, co-op and scholarship opportunities for current students. Join us at the IC Student Programs Virtual Info Session to see how you can participate. Chat with Student Program Managers and learn how to apply.

Internship and co-operative education opportunities are available for undergraduate and graduate students majoring in the following areas:*

- Accounting
- Business Administration
- Chemistry
- Computer Science
- Criminal Justice
- Data Science
- Economics
- Engineering (Computer, Electrical, Mechanical and Power)
- Environmental Science
- Finance
- Foreign Languages
- Geospatial/Geographic Studies
- Geology
- Information Assurance/Cybersecurity
- Intelligence/National Security Studies
- International Affairs
- Law
- Mathematics
- Operations Research
- Physics
- Political Science/Public Policy
- Public Relations/Marketing

Scholarships are available for students studying chemistry, computer science, computer or electrical engineering, foreign languages, geology, international affairs, intelligence/national security studies, and political science.*
