

Partnerships for Protection

The Army Compatible Use Buffer Program

creates partnerships among the Army, conservation groups and private land owners to protect natural resources and Army installations from land uses that are incompatible with Soldier training and testing.

Photo: Scenic view of Mount Rainier from the buffer parcel adjacent to Fort Lewis, Washington.

www.sustainability.army.mil
