
Jodi Greene

Deputy Under Secretary of the Navy (Policy)

As the Deputy Under Secretary of the Navy (DUSN) for Policy, she serves as the Secretary's primary advisor on all matters relating to Department of the Navy (DON) foreign and defense policy, capability and readiness issues, security policy, intelligence oversight, and special programs and activities. She is responsible for developing strategic guidance for the DON Planning, Programming, Budgeting and Execution process, represents the Secretariat in senior-level Department of Defense (DOD) policy and decision forums, oversees the DON international engagement program, and serves as the DON senior security executive.

Prior to her appointment as DUSN (P), Ms. Greene was the Senior Director for Policy in the Office of the Deputy Under Secretary of the Navy (DUSN). She was the principal advisor to the DUSN on general defense and foreign policy development, responsible for coordination with the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy. She supported the formulation of Department of the Navy-wide strategic plans, program objectives, policies and standards in support of major policy initiatives.

From January 2004 until August 2007, Ms. Greene served as the Country Director for Russia in the Office of the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Europe-NATO in Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD) Policy. She was responsible for the formulation and implementation of United States security policy for Russia and the Eurasia region.

Ms. Greene served as the Country Director and Senior Director for Korea in the Office of the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense of Asian and Pacific Affairs in OSD Policy from 1997-2004, where she developed security policy on North Korea's nuclear program and managed defense policies in support of the security alliance with the Republic of Korea.

From 1995-1997, Ms. Greene served as the Special Assistant to the Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs at the National Security Council (NSC). While at the NSC, she monitored the Northern Ireland Peace Process, assisted in the development of plans for the African Crisis response Initiative, and participated in negotiations with the governments of Peru and Ecuador regarding resolution of their border dispute.

Prior to joining OSD Policy, Ms. Greene served in the U.S. Air Force from 1990-1995, with assignments at the National Security Agency, in the Offices of the Secretary of the Air Force and the Secretary of Defense.
