
John A. Hogan

Executive Assistant Director Criminal Operations Naval Criminal Investigative Service

Special Agent John (Andy) Hogan is currently the Executive Assistant Director (EAD) for Criminal Operations. In this capacity, he has program management oversight of a myriad of criminal investigations and operations which include death, sexual assault, narcotics, and procurement fraud investigations. He serves as the primary advisor and principal EAD to the Director and Deputy Director, NCIS on all economic crimes investigations, general crimes investigations, criminal intelligence investigations and operational support services. He is responsible for the manning, training and equipping of agency personnel to accomplish the investigative mission, and for the operational execution of both reactive and proactive major criminal investigative activities for the Department of the Navy including the U.S. Marine Corps.

Special Agent Hogan was appointed to the Senior Executive Service in April 2014 and has 27+ years of Federal Service.

Special Agent Hogan joined the Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS) in 1987, serving in the Great Lakes, Illinois Resident Agency. He subsequently served tours of duty in La Maddalena, Italy (1991-1993), New York, NY (1993-1996), Yokosuka, Japan (1996-1999), and in the Counterintelligence Directorate at NCIS Headquarters, Washington, DC (1999-2000).

In 2000, Special Agent Hogan was promoted to Supervisory Special Agent for Counterintelligence at the NCIS Washington, DC Field Office. His subsequent management assignments included Division Chief, NCISHQ Procurement Fraud Division; Assistant Special Agent in Charge, Office of Special Projects, Washington, DC; Deputy Assistant Director, General Crimes Directorate, Washington, DC; Special Agent in Charge of the NCIS Field Office Europe and Africa located in Naples, Italy.

Immediately prior to his appointment as Executive Assistant Director, Special Agent Hogan served as the Assistant Director for Human Resources. In this role, he was responsible for the entire range of human resource operations to include recruiting, hiring, pay and allowances, transfers, promotions, performance management, and policy development. Assistant Director

Hogan was also responsible for all training matters and oversaw the operation of the NCIS Academy at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, Glynco, GA.

Special Agent Hogan graduated from Bowling Green State University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science. Special Agent Hogan also attended Georgetown University where he earned a Master of Arts degree in Policy Management.