
Todd C. Mellon

Director of Logistics and Sustainment F-35 Lightning II Joint Program Office

Mr. Todd C. Mellon is currently the Director of Logistics and Sustainment and the Product Support Manager (PSM) for the F-35 Lightning II Joint Program Office, Arlington, VA. The F-35 Lightning II Program is the Department of Defense's initiative for defining affordable and sustainable fifth-generation strike aircraft. Mr. Mellon is responsible for delivering the F-35 Global Sustainment Strategy for three US Services and eight Partner Countries.

Mr. Mellon graduated from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University with a bachelor's degree in Aeronautical Engineering in 1986. After graduating from the Logistics Intern Development Program in 1991, Mr. Mellon was promoted to assistant program manager for Logistics for the F/A-18E/F in 1997 and directed the acquisition planning and execution of the logistics support system for the Navy's newest tactical aircraft and successfully developed and implemented the Naval Aviation's first performance-based logistics support contract with industry, which continues to serve throughout the Navy and DoD as the model for industry partnership. In recognition of this significant and unprecedented accomplishment, Mr. Mellon was awarded the Navy's Admiral Stan Arthur Civilian Logistician of the Year Award. In December 2001, Mr. Mellon was selected as the Division Director for Logistics Information Systems.

Mr. Mellon was appointed to the Senior Executive Service as the Director of the Design Interface and Maintenance Planning Department on July 24, 2005. In that capacity, Mr. Mellon led a national organization of over 1400 people and was responsible for ensuring supportability of newly developed weapon systems as well as for the establishment and sustainment of integrated logistics support for fleet operations and maintenance throughout the life cycle of Naval Systems. He was awarded the Presidential Rank Award in 2010.
