
Robin Porterfield

Comptroller Naval Supply Systems Command

Ms. Porterfield serves as the Assistant Commander for Financial Management and Comptroller responsible for budgeting, execution, and solvency of the $6.9B Navy Working Capital Fund – Supply Management account and $1.7B NAVSUP Enterprise Operating Budget.

Ms. Porterfield was appointed to the Senior Executive Service in 2015 and brings extensive knowledge and experience to this position with more than twenty years of specialized career development in Naval Supply Systems Command (NAVSUP) and the federal government. She has served as NAVSUP's Director, Strategy and Innovation, where she was responsible for development of NAVSUP strategic plans & guidance, deployment of continuous process improvement (CPI) initiatives, and directing Enterprise performance analysis. She also implemented NAVSUP innovation efforts to include research & development programs and forming the Logistics Innovation Cell. Prior to this position, Ms. Porterfield directed NAVSUP Enterprise CPI Deployment and served 12 years as a Supervisory Financial Analyst, directing financial planning, programming, budgeting, accounting, control and execution of resources and funds for NAVSUP.

Ms. Porterfield graduated from Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania with a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting. She holds a Master's degree from the American University, Washington, D.C. in Public Administration and Financial Management, and a second Master's degree in Strategic Studies from the U.S. Army War College, Carlisle, PA.

Ms. Porterfield received the Under Secretary of Defense Financial Management Initiative Award and the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Financial Management and Comptroller) Award.