
Lisa M. St. Andre

Director, Business Operations/Comptroller Bureau of Medicine and Surgery (BUMED)

Ms. St. Andre serves as the Director, Business Operations/Comptroller. In this position, she serves as the chief financial executive for Navy Medicine and as resource advisor to the Chief, Bureau of Medicine and Surgery. She is responsible for establishing policy and managing financial and manpower resources for a medical activity totaling more than $6 billion per year in operating costs. She also leads the planning, programming, and budgeting process throughout Navy Medicine, interfacing directly with both Navy and Office of the Secretary of Defense counterparts.

Prior to joining the Senior Executive Service in 2015, Ms. St. Andre served as the Branch Head for Readiness Programs in the Department of the Navy Office of the Assistant Secretary (Financial Management and Comptroller) Operations Division (FMB1). Her responsibilities included oversight of the Department of the Navy Budget formulation and execution of the O&M accounts for Air Operations, Aircraft Maintenance and Operations Support, Ship Maintenance, Ship Operations and Support, and Base Operations/SRM totaling $28 billion. From 2009-2014, Ms. St. Andre was the Branch Head for Construction, C4I, and RDT&E in the Investment and Development Division (FMB2). Her responsibilities included oversight of the Department of the Navy Budget formulation and execution of all RDT&E, OPN, C4I, and MILCON programs.

Ms. St. Andre has also served as the Congressional Support Branch Head in the Department of the Navy Appropriations Matters Office (FMBE) from 2003-2008. Her responsibilities included maintaining liaison with the Congressional Appropriations Committees, the Office of Legislative Affairs, and the Congressional Liaison Offices of the Secretary of Defense for appropriations matters related to Congressional hearings and Congressional staff members for all oversight committees. She was responsible for coordinating all matters related to Department of the Navy (DoN) participation in hearings before the Appropriations Committees. In this capacity, she prepared the Secretary of the Navy, Chief of Naval Operations, and Commandant of the Marine Corps for DoN posture hearing testimony. She also coordinated the preparation of the Department of the Navy appeals to proposed budget adjustments by the Appropriations and Armed Services Committees.

Ms. St. Andre graduated Summa Cum Laude and Phi Beta Kappa from Bowdoin College with a Bachelor's degree in Mathematics and Spanish and holds a Master of Public Administration degree from American University where she was inducted into the Pi Alpha Alpha National Honor Society for Public Affairs and Administration. She also is a graduate of the Secretary of the Navy Civilian Fellowship Program in Financial Management.

She entered the Federal Government in 1992 as a Navy Centralized Financial Management Trainee at the National Naval Medical Center. Her duties included being the Budget Analyst for several medical directorates, including Clinical Support Services, while completing rotational assignments at OASD(HA) and NAVCOMPT. Upon completing the two-year training program, she became a Senior Budget Analyst at BUMED and had primary responsibility for the Medical Budget Programs totaling $1.5 billion in O&M for review, evaluation, justification, and execution monitoring. Ms. St. Andre also served as the Deputy Director for the Program Analysis and Evaluation (PA&E) division at BUMED. Her responsibilities included overseeing analysis of a strategic nature for new programs and/or major system changes which involved the compilation of certified financial data with clinical workload. Her analyses included Tricare For Life and VA/DoD Sharing impacts on Navy Medicine.

Ms. St. Andre is a two time recipient of the Department of the Navy Meritorious Civilian Service Award. She is also a member of the American Society of Military Comptrollers.
