
Jack N. Summe

Director, Navy Insider Threat to Cyber Security (ITCS)

Mr. Jack Summe currently serves as the Director of the Navy Insider Threat to Cyber Security Office within the Office of the Deputy Chief of Naval Operations for Information Dominance, N2/N6. He is responsible for the implementation of the cyber aspects of a holistic Navy Insider Threat Program that spans the disciplines of human resources, antiterrorism/force protection, cyber/information assurance, intelligence/counterintelligence, law enforcement, security, and other related activities. In addition, he serves as the principal advisor to the Deputy Chief of Naval Operations for Information Dominance, N2/N6 on all Insider Threat communication matters. He was appointed as a Navy DISL in January 2009.

From 2010-2013, Mr. Summe served as the Senior Advisor to the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Cyber Policy in the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy. Mr. Summe was responsible for the development of DoD Cyber Policy and activities focused on providing for the cybersecurity of the Defense Industrial Base and U.S. critical infrastructure. Mr. Summe worked closely with the National Security Staff, Department of Homeland Security, U.S. Cyber Command, and the National Security Agency. From 2009-2010, Mr. Summe served as the Assistant Director of Naval Intelligence for Strategic Engagement. In that role, he led Naval Intelligence Strategic Communications, Navy Foreign Liaison, International Engagement and Intelligence Community policy review.

Prior to Mr. Summe's appointment as a DISL, he led a distinguished 30-year career in the U.S. Army, serving in various command and staff positions within the Military Police, Psychological Operations and Information Operations career fields. Mr. Summe was the Commander of the Joint Military Information Support Command, USSOCOM from 2006-2008; Chief, Information Operations Division, USSOCOM from 2005-2006; and Commander, 4th Psychological Operations Group (Airborne) from 2003-2005.

A native of Warsaw, Indiana, he holds a bachelor's degree in Psychology from Purdue University and a master's degree in International Relations from the University of South Carolina. He is a resident graduate of the U.S. Army War College at Carlisle Barracks, PA and the Army Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, KS. He is designated a Joint Duty Officer and has IC Joint experience.

Mr. Summe is the recipient of the Secretary of Defense Award for Excellence in Cyber Policy and the MG Robert A. McClure Gold Medal for Psychological Operations Excellence. His military awards include the Defense Superior Service Medal, the Legion of Merit (2OLC), the Bronze Star Medal, the Defense Meritorious Service Medal and the Meritorious Service Medal (4 OLC).