

1. WHICH PARENT WAS IN THE MILITARY?

Father, COL (Ret.) Thaddeus "Ted" Dmuchowski, Illinois Army National Guard.

2. HOW MANY TIMES DID YOU MOVE GROWING UP?

Two.

3. WHAT LED YOU TO A CAREER WITH THE ARMY?

I was lucky enough to get a management internship with the Army when I was in college that had a bridge in to permanent employment. When my father made the transition from federal service to private sector work I saw how he felt less able to directly make change, and how much more money and less people focused the work was. I realized that I held a lot of the same values, and that money was less important than being able to make the decisions that directly impact the Soldier. I'd never want to work for any other government agency...especially not the Navy. Go Army, Beat Navy!

4. HOW MANY PLACES HAVE YOU LIVED AND WHAT WAS YOUR FAVORITE?

Three, technically. We didn't move much due to my father being on Title 10 orders. When his orders ended, he would seek orders in the same area so we wouldn't have to move. It was really convenient for stability, but for me, moving never really defined the Army lifestyle.

5. WHAT VALUES DID YOU LEARN GROWING UP IN THE MILITARY?

Determination, Citizenship, Leadership, Service, Respect.

6. WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE STORY FROM GROWING UP IN THE MILITARY?

When we were young my father would have his Soldiers over for barbecues, and in the absence of the football they would use me and my brothers as footballs.
