Leadership Focus Points

Chief of Navy Reserve:

CNR discusses career opportunities in her June Focus on the Force column in TNR. "One of the Navy Reserve's top priorities is enabling the service of our Sailors. We've been working closely with the Chief of Naval Personnel to provide options for talented Active Component Sailors with a strong desire to continue their service in the Reserve Component. There are also opportunities for our RC Sailors to transition to active duty via definite and indefinite recalls. The RC to AC augmentation program (RC2AC) allows qualified RC Sailors in specific rates and year groups to transition to the AC."

FORCM:

Under Career Navigator all enlisted AC and RC career management policies, processes and information technology support systems are organized into one overarching program. This program includes all career events such as reenlisting, changing ratings, choosing orders and transitioning between AC and RC. Video here.

Commander Navy Reserve Forces Command:

CNRFC Blog: Taking Care of Those Who Take Care of Us "These Sailors were an inspired group of individuals, each working diligently to bounce back from their injuries. They were also benefitting from several recent program changes that are having a positive impact on their lives." Continue reading here.
