TNR: Navy Reserve Medicine

Leadership Focus Points

Chief of Navy Reserve:

CNR discusses 'Navy Reserve Medicine: A Legacy of Excellence' in her November Focus on the Force column in TNR. "Our nation appreciates that throughout the world, Navy Reserve Medical professionals are building partnerships and providing compassionate care to thousands in need. Navy Reserve Medicine is a shining example of the tremendous skill sets and dedication our Selected Reserve Sailors offer our Navy and nation."

FORCM:

FORCM discusses "readiness" in his November Focus on the Force column in TNR: "Our Navy leadership has emphasized the importance of readiness in our Force. One of the CNO's first priorities is to "Remain Ready," and the Chief of Navy Reserve gives the highest priority to "Delivering a Ready and Accessible Force." I'm sure you are all familiar with our Navy Reserve Force motto, "Ready Now. Anytime, Anywhere." So, with that in mind, "Are You Ready?" I know the answer is a resounding, "Always Ready!"
