

Dr. David Powers
Project Director
Force Management System

Dr. Powers has served as the Project Director, Force Management System (FMS), PEO EIS since October 2003. FMS is an automation effort to integrate, consolidate, and replace four Force Management legacy automation systems and is the Army's base system for the JCS Global Force Management Data Initiative. FMS has been in the field since August 2006 (development of new functionality is occurring - FOC planned in fiscal year 2010).

Prior to his assignment to PEO EIS, Dr. Powers has worked the Force Management business process at all levels of the Army. He started in civil service in 1985 at the Military Police School and has worked at the Headquarters Major Command level (TRADOC) and at the Department of the Army Staff level (G3). Dr.

Powers also served in the active Army as a Military Police Officer medically retiring as a Captain in 1985.

His military awards include the Meritorious Service Medal, 1985; Army Commendation Medal, 1982; and Humanitarian Service Medal, 1981. Civilian awards include the Achievement Medal for Civilian Service, 1999; and the Quality Step Increases, 2003, 2002, 2001, 1999, and 1988. His performance awards/certificates were from 1985 to 2007 (Special Act/Service award 2004).

Dr. Powers has a Ph.D., Management, California Coast University, Santa Ana, Calif., 1994; MA, Management, Webster University, St. Louis, MO. 1981; BA, Criminal Justice, California State University, Sacramento, Calif., 1977; AS, Administration of Justice, Monterey Peninsula College, Calif., 1975. Memphis Catholic High School, Memphis, Tenn., graduated 1973.

He is certified in Acquisition Corps Level III Program Management, July 2005 and has been a member of the Acquisition Corps since August 2005).