

Lieutenant Colonel Keith G. Harley
Product Manager, PM AcqBusiness
Program Executive Office, Enterprise Information Systems

LTC Keith Gerard Harley previously served as the Acting Deputy Product Manager and Project Director for the Medical Communications for Combat Casualty Care (MC4) Product Management Office. His other acquisition assignments include Ballistics Live Fire Evaluator for the Army Test Evaluation Command at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md.; Assistant Product Manager (APM) for Combat Engineer and Material Handling Equipment; APM for Product Manager Route Clearance Systems, Warren, Mich.; Department of the Army Systems Coordinator for Force Projection Systems for the Assistant Secretary of the Army for Acquisition, Logistics and Technology.

LTC Harley's tactical assignments include Platoon Leader 502d Military Intelligence Company and Assistant, S2 3d Squadron 2d Armored Cavalry Regiment, Fort Polk, La.; Assistant Operations Officer of the 501st Military Intelligence Battalion (BN) Bosnia-Herzegovina; Electronic Warfare Officer, 4th Infantry Division G2, S2 Division Support Command and S2 1-66 Armor Battalion, Fort Hood, Texas. In December 2002, he assumed command of C Company, 104th Military Intelligence Battalion, 3rd Brigade Combat Team, 4th Infantry Division, Fort Carson, Colo. While in command, he trained and deployed the Company in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

LTC Harley is a Distinguished Military Graduate of South Carolina State University with a B.S. in Psychology and an M.S. in Acquisition Contract Management from the Florida Institute of Technology. He is Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act (DAWIA) Level III Certified Program Management and Level II Certified Test and Evaluation. LTC Harley's honors include the Bronze Star, Meritorious Service Medal with one Silver and one Oak Leaf clusters, Army Commendation Medal Army Achievement with one Oak Leaf Medal Cluster, NATO Medal, National Defense Service Medal with one Oak Leaf Cluster, Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, Global War on Terrorism Medal, Armed Forces Service Medal, Army Service Ribbon, and Parachutist Badge.