

Mr. Twyman Bledsoe
Product Director
Vehicular Intercom Systems

Mr. Twyman “Ty” Bledsoe serves as Product Director, Vehicular Intercom Systems (PD VIS), which reports to the Project Manager, Defense Communications and Army Transmission Systems (PM DCATS). Mr. Bledsoe is responsible for configuration management, future development, production coordination and acquisition of Army vehicle intercom systems, head-sets and ancillary equipment that safeguard Soldier hearing and allow Soldiers to communicate in the high-noise environments of combat crew-served tactical vehicles. He also supports Navy, Marine, State Department and National Guard units. The VIS AN/VIC-3 and the enhanced capability AN/VIC-5 systems are leveraged by their customer base through two indefinite delivery indefinite quantity firm fixed price contracts with a VIC-3 contract ceiling of $230 million and a VIC-5 contract ceiling of $2.4 billion.

Previously, Mr. Bledsoe served as the Acting Technical Management Division Chief for Project Manager, Network Services Center. Prior to that, he served as Chief of the U.S. Army Signal Activity-Intelligence and Security Command’s CIO G-6, Programs, Plans, Engineering and Installation Division. Prior to that, he served as US 20th Support Command Chemical, Biological, Radiological, Nuclear High Yield Explosive Chief, Communications and Support Systems Division.

Mr. Bledsoe earned his Bachelor’s Degree in management studies from the University of Maryland University Colleges in 2001. He has also earned CIO Program and Project Management Program certificates from the National Defense University. He has attained Defense Acquisition University Program Management Level-3 Certification (2010), and has completed the Army Management Staff College (AMSC) Civilian Education System Continuing Education program for Senior Leaders, the AMSC Advanced Course, the AMSC Organizational Leadership for Executives Course, and the AMSC Personnel Management for Executives course.

Mr. Bledsoe’s awards include the Department of the Army Achievement Medal for Civilian Service and a Department of the Army Official Commendation Letter.