

Guess the STATE!

NORTHEAST

Military OneSource
ROAD TRIP
GAMES

1

- This state became the first state by being the first to ratify the U.S. Constitution.
- In 2009, peach pie was designated as this state's official dessert.
- This state is bordered by a bay that shares its name.
- This state is the second-smallest U.S. state.
- Dover is this state's capital.

What state is this?

2

- Chesapeake Bay, located in this state, is the largest estuary in the United States.
- This state is famous for great seafood, especially crabs.
- Antietam National Battlefield, in this state, was the site of the bloodiest one-day battle in American history.
- The capital of this state is Annapolis.

What state is this?

3

- This state is nicknamed the Garden State.
- Atlantic City, located in this state, has the longest boardwalk in the world.
- The city of Hoboken, in this state, hosted the nation's first organized baseball game in 1845.
- This state is home to the Statue of Liberty.
- Trenton is the capital of this state.

What state is this?

Call. 800-342-9647

Click. MilitaryOneSource.mil

Connect. 24/7

Preschool

School age

All ages

Guess the STATE!

NORTHEAST

Military OneSource

ROAD TRIP
GAMES

4

- This state was the first to require license plates on cars.
- The Erie Canal, located in this state, was built to carry goods and people more than 350 miles between Lake Erie and the Hudson River.
- The world's most famous park, Central Park, is located in this state.
- This state is also known as the Empire State.
- This state's capital is Albany.

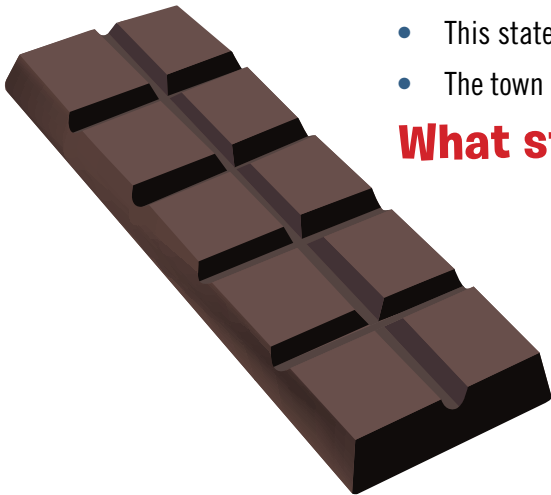

What state is this?

5

- The Liberty Bell, which toured the country in the late 1800s to help heal divisions after the Civil War, is now on display in this state.
- This state is home to Punxsutawney Phil, the groundhog who predicts the end of winter.
- The Philadelphia Zoo, founded by Benjamin Franklin, was the first public zoo in the United States.
- This state was the first to list its official website on its license plates.
- The town of Hershey, located in this state, is famous for chocolate.

What state is this?

Answers: (1) Delaware (2) Maryland (3) New Jersey (4) New York (5) Pennsylvania

Call. 800-342-9647

Click. MilitaryOneSource.mil

Connect. 24/7

