

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
ALPHA COMPANY
86TH COMBAT SUPPORT HOSPITAL
6206 DESERT STORM AVE.
FORT CAMPBELL, KY 42223

2 September 2015

Dear Soldier,

It is my pleasure to welcome you and your family to Alpha Company, 86th Combat Support Hospital (CSH), "Painkillers." You are now a member of an exceptional organization; the 86th CSH is committed to excellence and strives to remain resilient, fit, trained, and disciplined. We will be ready for any mission the Army gives us!

Fort Campbell is a world class community located on the border of Tennessee and Kentucky. You are fortunate to be assigned to such a dynamic post located in a great area. Fort Campbell presents the possibility of the new and unique experiences in terms of recreation, social development, and expanded knowledge of southern culture for both married and single Soldiers.

We will make every effort to support your arrival. The successful reception of each Soldier is a great concern to our team. Prior to your arrival, feel free to email or call your sponsor with any questions or concerns. Upon arrival you will report to Kalsu Replacement Company (20th Replacement), Building 6916 Desert Storm Ave, to obtain newcomers' assistance and sign-in to the installation. You can also visit the Fort Campbell website at www.campbell.army.mil. This website provides additional information about the installation and the surrounding communities. Also, feel free to check out the 86th CSH "Eagle Medics" Facebook page at www.facebook.com/86CSH.

You are coming to the best company in the battalion! Recently re-established, there are many challenges and expectations for the Company to achieve. Ensure you arrive ready to work and become part of our team. We will do everything possible to make your arrival a smooth transition for you and your family.

Again, welcome to A Co, 86th CSH and Fort Campbell. We are looking forward to your arrival!

Sincerely,
